LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

Before we start, (well I guess we already did!), we would like to thank everyone who has helped us in putting together this year's Spirit: Peter and Rob Mandell, Josh Mendelsohn, Mike Hahn, Adam Barr, Ryan Wilensky, Caleb Englander, Steve Cohn, and Keith Farrell. We also would like to thank Danny Andelman for this year's cover, Scott Eagerman for the "From The Bunks" picture, and everyone else who went to great lengths to help get this Spirit done in time (especially Todd Grossman and Brian Bloch for the "ribbon run early Friday morning -- thanks guys!!).

Between the old typewriter breaking down, the Day's typewriter running out not only of ribbon, but of erasure tape also, not to mention the copying machine jamming frequently, this year's issue of the Spirit was the strangest one we've ever seen. The editors would like to give a special "thank you" to the Day's for lending us their typewriter on such short notice.

If it hadn't been for the cooperation of everyone, and their willingness to help, this year's Spirit would not be as good as it is now.

Thanx to all who helped,
See you next summer,

Scott Rosenblatt

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

The summer of 1992 was an exciting and rewarding time for all of us. It was filled with new activities, new equipment, a GREAT STAFF, and over 200 campers from all over the United States and the world!

Special thanks to Mike Andelman for his dedication, direction and ideas. The success of the program, some of the recent innovations (lights on the outdoor court + bonfire, for example), and the firm way in which the daily schedule was followed, was all due to Michael's expertise and talents aided by Mike Troubh, Brett Wilensky, B. Brian Bloch and many others.

Dwight Day, assisted by Joseph and Jerry, continued to keep the camp in top shape-year round! He is- and always will be- the key to the operation. (Thanks to Joseph and Linda for loan of the typewriter to finish the Spirit!)

The medical staff was great and fortunately had relatively little business! Nurse Linda Jones was on top of each situation in a most calm and professional way. Doctors Mike Kita (my running partner) and Family, Bob Levin and Joel Alpert were also greatly appreciated for their help during the summer.

Great food was genuinely enjoyed through the efforts of Joe, Bill and Kevin. Their cooperation (and antics) were also equally appreciated.

Special thanks to Alex Berger (aided by Mike Berger) for the large and welcome donation of athletic equipment; and sincere appreciation to Mike Cataldo. Jimmy Stoller and Mike Bourg for their help year round with camp planning and affairs.

My deepest gratitude is reserved for my wife, Bryna- her help and advice keep me going when the going gets tough! I couldn't do it without her!

Congratulations to the editors of this year's Spirit for a job well done in just a couple of days! You guys were great!

Please drop by the West End House during the year- I am always there (105 Allston St., Allston, MA 02134-5029) or call (617-787-4044) if I can be of any help!

See you at the camp breakfast in early 1993- and hopefully at camp next summer!
Good luck at school- Thanks for a great season!

Bee Margolin

MESSAGE FROM THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

There is no greater place on this earth to spend a summer than at West End House Camp. For the past twelve summers, 6 as staff, 6 as camper, West End has played a colossal role in my life. For while camp lasts only eight weeks, there is not a day in the off season that goes by when I don't think about my experiences at West End. The friendships I have made here will last forever.

As I sit in the Council Ring & while this letter I cannot help but be a little remorseful, for camp will be over in less than 24 hrs! However, the memories from the 1992 summer are so tremendously positive that they will help me get through a harsh Schectady winter. This summer, my 1st as Program Director, couldn't have run so well without the help from the staff.

I'd like to give special thanks to Bill Margolin for putting his trust in me as Program Director. Bill, I promise to talk to you in October. To my crew of Junior Counselors, you guys are the backbone of camp and I look forward to seeing you guys become Senior Counselors. Cooker, Bo-Bo, Todd, Bill, Eagerman, thank you for everything. To Mikael Troubh, congratulations on an unbelievable rookie year and warm hopes you return for a sophomore season.

Enjoy the winter, but look forward to next summer.

Stay Gold,

THE SPIRIT OF THE HOUSE WILL NEVER DIE

MESSAGE FROM THE WATERFRONT DIRECTOR

As First year West End House staffman, I am proud to say this year's waterfront was a great success. Both staff and campers were able to battle through the tough weather conditions. Thanks goes out to all the staff that made the 1992 waterfront a complete success. Special thanks goes to co Junior Waterfront Directors, Scott Eagerman and Gilbert Michelson, who kept the waterfront on the right.

In conclusion, the 1992 waterfront was exciting and a great experience. To all staff and campers good luck in the future for where ever you shall be.

Yours truly,

Mikael L. Troubh

Waterfront Director

MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR LEAGUE COMMISSIONER

Due to the growing success of West End House Camp, senior leagues expanded to eight teams. The league was named after info-commercials, 30 minute commercials shown on late night t.v. The teams included: The Juicemen, The Flobbies, The Shamies, Po-Pete's, Auri's, Memory Power, Pearly White's, and the DiDi 7's. Also with the addition of new equipment, there were not only more teams, but new sports added like Street Hockey. The standings before playoffs were....

DiDi 7's 1st	250 cap't by C. Englander
Po-Pete's 2nd	240 cap't by Ryan Wilensky
Shamies 3rd	230 cap't by N. Brown+B. Leclere

I would like to thank all the campers who participated in senior leagues this year for their great sportsmanship, teamwork, and some very exciting games. I have enjoyed heading up senior leagues and hope that you all have enjoyed this year.

Sincerely yours,

Brett Wilensky

A MESSAGE FROM THE JUNIOR LEAGUE COMMISSIONERS

Junior leagues this year were very exciting and fun for all who participated. In the first two week period, the junior league teams were named after famous cartoon characters: Yosemite Sam's, Daffy Duck's, Porky Pig's, Bugs Bunny's, Elmer Fudd's, and the Road Runner's. Going into those playoffs, fifteen points separated the first and last place teams. In the end, however, the Daffy's Duck's, headed up by coach Ron Cochran and cap't Joseph Dwyer, came out of third place, to take the championship title.

In the last six weeks, the junior leagues were named after different mediums of listening pleasure: Compact Discs, Albums, Cassettes, and Eight Tracks. Right from the beginning, the C.D.'s, headed up by coach Ryan Leer and cap't Michael Gordon took the league by storm. With an unpresented 110 points, the Compact Discs were far and away the best team in the league.

Thanks to all of the coaches and players for making the junior league program so exciting and competitive.

Sincerely,

B. Brian "Bo-Bo-Ta-Ta" Bloch
and
Billy "Salty Billy" Faria

FINAL STANDINGS

1. The Compact Discs
2. The Cassettes
3. The Eight Tracks
4. The Albums

Arts & Crafts 1992

Although there were no future Rembrandts or Picassos, in Arts & Crafts this summer, there were a few Jamison Daileys, Chris Toms, and many more young aspiring artists. In addition to drawing, campers also made popsicle stick sculptures, stained glass pictures, and clay pizzas (hold the onions). We would even be so bold to say that more material wound up on the floor than on the paper. To sum up, we had a great time working with the campers, although I cannot claim the reverse. The directors of Arts & Crafts hope to see you all next year!

Boating 1992

This was a very successful summer for boating. All of our boats were used almost every day. And with a large shipment of brand new equipment, more kids were able to enjoy canoeing, rowboating, sailing, boogieboarding, waterskiing, and kneeboarding. Some of the camp's best boogieboarders include Stefan Moesta, Sean Wilshire, and Matt Rameior. With this new equipment, we will hopefully be able to make boating a bigger part of the waterfront next summer. We hope everyone will be ready for more whirlpools and flips next summer.

Tennis 1992

This year at West End tennis was a bigger part of the program than usual. Along with the annual camper/counselor tournament, there was the addition of a 15, 13, and 11 year old tennis tournament at Camp O-At-Ka. We arrived there early in the morning with uncombed hair and half-open eyes, but as the day progressed Andrew Berger, Adam Schneier, Aaron Rudenstine, Mike Hahn, and Steve Wynn started to show the other camps that we were there to play. Adam and Aaron both had tough first round matches and didn't come out on top but they did give it they're all. Steve, Andrew, and Mike breezed through to the semifinals, but once there, all three ran into a wall. They all gave the other camps some serious competition. Six hours later we were on our way back to camp, but we left a mark that said we will surely be back next year. When I saw the incredible turnout of about 20 people for 5 spots on the team, everyone's anxiousness to play their camper/counselor matches, and the amount of people always filling the tennis courts during free time tells me that tennis is a sport that is up and coming at West End House Camp.

Sincerely,

Ron H. Cochran

INTERCAMP ATHLETICS

"West End's just a powerhouse," stated Chuck Downy, Athletic Director of Camp Robinhood, after West End swept his camp's 13 + 15 and under basketball tournaments. These words, spoken by the leader of West End House's rival, could be the motto of the 1992 intercamp season. Once again, down-and-dirty boys of West End compiled an incredible record for intercamp games. From 10 and under Newcombe to 15 and under soccer, not only did West End boast a high winning percentage, but also superior sportsmanship and persistence on the fields.

Following the season-opening let-down, a freak last second loss to Robinhood in a 15 and under basketball game at home, losses were very few and far between.

Here's some 1992 intercamp memories:

- Mike Hahn's 16 strike-out performance
- 15 and under hoop's Israeli connection
- Mike Katson's one-timer to the top left
- Maine Teen Camp punks and girls
- Mike DeGrande's 2/3 inning performance
- Bo-Bo's, dyslexic umpiring
- Brewer's shot
- Steve Wynn's back hand winner
- The 10 and under landslides
- Chris Davis taking one in the mouth

Congratulations to all the winning teams this summer. Thanks to you other camps can experience the spirit of the House.

(Mander; the wierdest kid in camp)

This letter contains graphic descriptions of situations that might not be suitable for minors.

To whom it may concern may he be boy girl or clown when I was asked to create a long boring seminar I said no. I thought about it long and hard and decided it wasn't fair to the chickens. They are to oppressed. As I pulled I found it was stuck as crazy glue was stapled to it, and the ladder wasn't big enough to pass club standards. As I pulled my thumb out of the blue berry pie I found that it was really Tom Thumb, escaped from the circus. By the way your head is on fire put it out. Did you know that corn could fly, It is an underrated fact. Bla Bla Bla. Hick-up! If you are out there and you have meatloaf send it to me, just because. Same with watermelons that are rotten. If you unplugged a really big plug would the world stop turning. My favorite color is not yellow. You should know that, it is important. If Calvin and Hobbes came to life would they eat trees or salad? Time is like a cube. It has 6 sides and consists of all right angles. Do horse shoes come in pumps. What would the camp do if there was no more bathroom tissue. Who do you think you are; Neil? I really think that all the rings around planets are polka-dotted noola hoops. You save money and that's no balogna! What if jelly beans could talk? I wonder what they would say. My bed has a box spring. Life is not a highway. It is more like a jet stream. Money doesn't grow on trees it grows on clovers. I wish the sky had rafters because that would make one hell of a rafter ball game. Did I mention that I am typing this in invisible ink. I don't like water. It has much to much hydrogen. Wouldn't it be neat if the slush puppie dog gave birth to baby giraffes. 5A, 5B cake and milk. Cake and milk is a very deep thing. Only geniuses can understand it. Some of my very best friends are pillow people. A and C, D and F, or none of the above. Towels in the rafters may create unwanted light bulbs. Some whre there is a cave which contains all the combos to all the combo locks in the world.

Taking a very interesting look at life.

Love,

Rob "The Mander" Mandell

FOREVER

The Spirit of the House will never die

Is the motto of everyone of our guys

Their Hearts and souls both go

To celebrate their love and devotion so

For always will their memories be

Along in our hearts until eternity

Being one of the Boys

Means forever you will see

The sun in the sky

And your mind Free

COLOR WAR

On Wednesday morning it had been made apparent that Mike Andelman, the program director, had been fired. At breakfast he said goodbye, and when the meal was over, he was gone. Many of the campers were upset, and even some of them were brought to tears. Needless to say, it was not a happy morning at West End House Camp.

After an endless morning, first bell finally rung. You could tell, however, that camp was just not the same. The kids were still down and upset about Mike being fired, and the counselors didn't even know what to think. There was just a floating layer of disappointment, anger, and confusion hovering over camp.

Gottlieb made their way back from laundry, and second bell rang shortly there after. The campers somberly assembled in front of the Mess Hall to wait to be let in for lunch. Once all the staff and campers quieted down, Bill began to make the normal pre-lunch announcements: letters must be passed in before dinner, make sure to take down your laundry, etc... Everything was running pretty much on schedule.

Just as Bill was finishing up his announcements, Dwight Day, the camp's custodian, pulled his tractor up in front of the Mess Hall. Dwight was pulling a trailer filled with leaves and greenery. When Bill turned around to look over at Dwight, from underneath all of the bushes, Mike Andelman came flying out of the trailer screaming, "COLOR WAR IS NOW!!!"

After a long, hard, five day, see saw battle, the Blue Undertakers edged out the White Rock 'N' Roll. A terrific war just doesn't happen by chance. This year there was a super coaching staff, an excellent Head Official in Mike Andelman, and most importantly, a hard working, high spirited group of campers. Bringing these three elements together produced an awesome Color War in which every competitor could feel proud to be a part of.

For passing the test of time
We're here to tell you, we're here to stay
Every hour, every day

Our red blood runs true blue
And every win will belong to blue.

And something evil's lurking in the dark

You start to freeze, As horror looks you right between the e
you're paralyzed

And no one's gonna save you from the beast about to strike
Undertakers- Blue Teams night

You feel a cold hand
