MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It hardly seems possible that the summer is over - the days and weeks flew by!

It was a great summer - the weather, staff, and enthusiastic campers all contributed to the success. We again had new activities, a fantastic Color War, trips, tournaments, and all the super things that make West End House Camp so unique.

This could not have been accomplished without the help of many. My thanks to Mike Andelman for a truly outstanding job as Program Director: his commitment and spirit always shone forth and he oversaw a smooth and well run program. To Mike Troubh and B. Brian Bloch my gratitude for a safe and well run waterfront. My special thanks to all the counseling staff for their dedication, with special thanks to Brett Wilensky who oversaw a great Color War.

The medical personnel this year were all veterans! Linda Jones Fischer returned for her second year as Registered Nurse and was most caring and efficient - good luck Linda living in New York! Doctors Hack, Levin and Kita were most giving of their time and we are so very grateful for their efforts on our behalf. Dave and Stefanie in the kitchen produced tasty food and were always so very pleasant to deal with; and thanks to John in the kitchen for his help the first part of the summer.

The Camp could not function without Dwight Day who day after day throughout the year watches and cares for the Camp. As always, he was ably assisted by Joseph Day and Jerry Day. The Camp just could not function as well without Dwight!

A number of people from the West End House Alumni Association deserve credit for their help: Mike Cataldo, Jimmy Stoller, Herbie Wein and Kevin Lustig come to Camp during the off-season to check with Dwight on repairs and renovations; Bobby Levine drives the supply truck before Camp opens; and, as always, our good friend Alex Berger most generously donates supplies and equipment - and always advice! Thanks Alex for your donation of new buoys lines and your constant support!

Alex always said that a West End House friend is a friend for life. Our Camp and Boys & Girls Club are unique, and you are all part of our family. Plan on attending the Camp Reunion in January, stop by the Club in Allston (the address and phone are at the top of this letterhead), keep in touch with me. Most importantly, come back next year and tell your friends about us

In closing, my deepest gratitude is reserved for my wife, Bryna, who generously gives of her time for the benefit of the Camp. Whether it is a reading group, a hospital trip, a tour, giving back money to campers and counselors, or just being someone whom I can talk to, I couldn't do it without her.

Hope to see you in 1994!

Biee

P.S. Congratulations to the Editors of the 1993 Spirit for a superb job, and to Adam Barr and Nick Brown for their work, also, on the West End Weekly

MESSAGE FROM THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

There is no greater place to spend a summer than at West End House Camp. My past 13 summers here could have been no more educational and enjoyable. The summer flew by thanks to the hard work of a dedicated staff who made the season terrific.

Special thanks goes out to Danny Andelman for running an awesome intercamp schedule, including two tournaments hosted by West End. Also, my job was made much easier thanks to the work of Billy Faria, Brian Bloch, Todd Grossman, Dave Gorin, Mike Santosuosso, Mike Troubh, and Adam Alfred. Thanks, guys!

Campers, thank you guys for a great summer. During a harsh Schenectady winter, thinking about memories like fireworks, Ogunquit, boxing, Color War, junior vs. senior wars, Awards Night, and bonfires brings a huge smile to my face. I look forward to seeing you guys next summer.

Finally, thanks to Bill for being a close friend who gives me the trust and space I need to program and schedule.

Have a safe winter and look forward to next summer,

Your friend,

Mike Andelman

Program Director

THE SPIRIT OF THE HOUSE WILL NEVER DIE!

MESSAGE FROM THE WATERFRONT DIRECTOR

The waterfront enjoyed another very successful year. In fact, other than some trouble with one of the boats, the season was flawless. With the blazing sun out almost every day, swimming at the waterfront was extremely refreshing. Whether it was a quick dip off the Old Timers' Dock, or a camp trip to Kennards, it was always fun. Thanks goes out to the whole waterfront staff, who helped to keep the waterfront strong all season. A very special thanks goes to Brian Bloch, Junior Waterfront Director, who kept the waterfront on the right. Finally, it is you, the campers, who made the waterfront such an exciting and great experience. Warm wishes to all staff and campers for a wonderful winter, and for a great future.

Yours truly,

Mikael Troubh

Waterfront Director

MESSAGE FROM THE INTERCAMP DIRECTOR...

Although West End House Camp may be known for its intense color war, competitive leagues, and innovative night activities, West End's intercamp program can not be overlooked. Once again, the boys from West End House proved to be a powerhouse in everything from 10 and under newcombe to 13 and under baseball to 15 and under beach volleyball. In addition to posting an impressive record of 20 wins, 9 losses, and one tie, West End was also champion of the 13 and under basketball and 15 under and beach volleyball tournaments as well as runner-up of the 15 and under basketball and 13 and under soccer tournaments. For the first time in over five years, West End House held two of our own invitational tournaments in 1993 with such camps as Robinhood, Samoset, Wildwood, Maine Teen, and Powhatan attending. It may be a tough job scheduling all of these tourneys and games, but the toughest job is representing the spirit and heart of West End House on the fields.

Good work in '93 and good luck in '94,

Daniel "Cooke" Andelman
Intercamp Director
League Buckman

SENIOR LEAGUES 1993

This year there were three different senior leagues. There was the Seinfeld League, the Carmen Sandiego league, and the very popular West End House Beaten Dessert League. After fierce competition in sports like football, softball, soccer, basketball, volleyball, and ultimate frisbee, the Chewy Brownies came out on top of the Dessert League. That did not last long because they lost in the first round of the league playoffs. After a round robin basketball tournament, Ian Halbert's Red Jellos were crowned the 1993 WEH Beaten Dessert League Champs. It was a great year with some spectacular playing and good sportsmanship. I thank all captains and officials for their help and congratulate all participants in this year's senior leagues.

Brett A. Wilensky

JUNIOR LEAGUES 1993

This year's Junior Leagues were competitive, well-played and well-coached, and most importantly, fun. Thank you to all coaches and players for making it run so well. For the first two weeks, dinosaurs roamed West End House in the Jurassic Park League. First place was taken home by the Veggiesauruses, coached by Danny Walsh, followed by Matt Wynn's Raptors. Steve Cohn's T-Rexes came in third place and Alex Fritz's Spitters finished a close fourth. Outstanding performances were put in by Danny Barr, Mike Katzen, Mike Gordon, Dave Klapman, and Mike Blumberg.

In the next two weeks, the names of the teams remained the same, but the competition grew with the addition of two new teams. E.J. Michelson's Triceratops, led by Danny Barr and Adam Avakian, finished in first place, with Jason MacLean's Brontosauruses a close second. Mike Hahn led the Veggies to third place, followed by Nick Brown's T-Rexes in fourth. The Stegosauruses, coached by Mike "Lumpy" Lamkin, and the Raptors, led by coach Ryan Wilensky, finished in fifth and sixth place, respectively. Key newcomers were Aaron Englander, Davey Hahn, and Kevin Walsh, among others.

For the last session of junior leagues, the names were changed to those of baseball card companies. E.J. again coached his team to first place, this time the Ultras, with Mike Hahn's Upper Decks second and Jason MacLean's Topps third. Ryan Wilensky coached his Fleers to fourth place, Nick Brown's Donruss came in sixth, and Lumpy's Selects bottomed out in sixth place. Jared Wilk, Evan Syms, Sammy Weinger, Will Hopkins, Josh Garon, Mike Garon, Jason Kublin, and Steve Ross were some of the key contributors on these teams. Thank you again to all coaches, players, and referees for making it a very successful junior league season.

COLOR WAR' 1993

It was a balmy Wednesday afternoon and the thoughts of Color War were on the minds of each and every West End House camper. Second bell rang and everyone gathered outside to be let in for lunch. Once line-up was over, the campers breathed a sigh of relief, for the threat of a Color War start had just been greatly reduced. I mean, how often does Color War start inside the mess hall?

As the meal began to wind down, Bill rang the bell to get everyone's attention. Everything was running normally. He made his few trivial announcements, and then he began to move on to another subject. The letters.

You see, throughout this camp season Bill has been addressing the camp whenever a letter has been incorrectly addressed or return-addressed. If no one claimed the incorrectly-labeled letter, he would open it up in front of everyone to see to whom it was addressed. Well, this is what exactly happened. However, instead of saying to whom the letter was addressed, upon opening this letter, Bill yelled, "COLOR WAR IS NOW!!!"

The White High Roller$ of West End jumped out to a quick lead, and going into day three, led by 28 points. However, the Blue Justice, refused to quit, and made an amazing Track & Field (day 3) comeback. When the lights were turned off at the end of day 3, the Blue Justice was up by 28. From that point on, the Blue team was just a bit too much for the White, and continued on to take the war by 50 points.

Congratulations to all of the coaches and referees for putting together a great Color War, to Brett Wilensky for running a smooth war, and to you, the campers. You guys are the ones who make West End's Color War the best in the land. It is your intensity, dedication, and effort that make the whole thing operate, and you deserve all the praise in the world.

To watch, High Rollers take their big fall
(That's what we said now!)

SOLO:

To be on BLUE, it's where to be
We're the team that's winning now can't you see
White's got no future they're history
We know what a winning team ought to be
We know what a winning team ought to be

SAID !

VERSE #2 (2X)

RIGHT NOW- VAN HALEN

Don't wanna wait till tomorrow
Why put it off another day
One by one through problems
No team can stand in our way

CHORUS:

We are ahead, you are behind
Now you gotta run to get even
Make future plans or dream about yesterday
We've turned, turned this thing around
Right now- white, there's no tomorrow
Right now- c'mon it's everything
Right now-it's our magic moment-do it RIGHT here and now

SOLO:

It's means everything

VERSE:

We can't be beat, were on a mission
Justice has one this race
White's a team with no direction
You've stepped a little off your pace

[CHORUS]

Right now- white there's no tomorrow
Right now- c'mon it's everything
Right now-it's our magic moment-do it RIGHT here and now

SOLO:

It's means everything

I'M GOING TO GO BACK THERE SOME DAY- DAVE GOELZ

This looks familiar
Vaguely, familiar
Almost unreal yet
It's too soon to feel yet
Close to my soul
And yet so far away
I'm going to come back here someday.

Sun rises, night falls
Sometimes the sky calls
Is this the end here
I feel I belong here
I've always been here
And I know the way
I'm going to ~~come~~ back there some day

Come and go with me
It's more fun to share
We'll both be completely
at home in mid air
We're flying not walking on featherless wings
We can hold on to love
Like invisible strings

There's not a word yet for old friends who've just met
Part heaven Part space and I have found my place
You can just visit
but I plan to stay .
I'm going to ~~come~~ back there some day
I'm going to ~~come~~ back there some day

'CUZ WHITE'S TAKING CONTROL

YOU KNOW THE HIGH ROLLERS
MUST BE NUMBER ONE
WHERE EVER THERE IS FUN
THERE'S ALWAYS THE HIGH ROLLERS

(CHORUS X 2)

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS CARMEN SANDIEGO?

[DO IT WHITE-APELLA!]

WELL, WE SNEAK AROUND THE STRIP
FROM MIRAGE TO THE FLAMINGO
AND WE'LL LOSE A HUNDRED GRAND ONE NIGHT
THEN WIN TWO GRAND THE NEXT
WE'LL BET ON ANY HORSE, SLOT MACHINE, OR EVEN BINGO

JUDGES...
WE'LL WIN THE WAR FIRST
THEN WE'LL FLY TO VEGAS

CHORUS

WE WENT FROM TAHOE TO VEGAS
FROM LONDON TO PARIS
AND EVEN A SIOUX RESERVATION...
AND BACK!!!

WELL, WE JAMMED IN PAKISTAN
AND RAN A SCAM IN SCANDANAVIA
THEN WE HIT ATLANTIC CITY
'TIL WE MADE OUR POCKETS BURST
WE TOOK A TRIP TO RENO
JUST FOR BLACK JACK AND SOME KENO

(CHORUS X 5)

IF I HAD NO LOOT

TALKING 'BOUT THE TIMES WHEN I WAS BY MYSELF
I WAS ALWAYS LOOKING FOR SOMEBODY ELSE
FIRST I SAW THE BLUE BUT THEN I THOUGHT 'NO WAY'
THEN I SAW THE WHITE AND I JUST HAD TO SAY

OH THE BLUE'S A BUNCH OF FOOLS
'CUZ WE'VE NEVER BEEN REFUSED
AND WE'D NEVER EVER LET THE WHITE TEAM LOSE

WE'RE JUST GLAD TO SEE THEM DOWN
WHEN WE SMILE, BLUE TEAM FROWNS
'CUZ THE JUSTICE HAS HAD NOTHING BUT BAD NEWS

CHORUS

JUSTICE WILL GO HOME BUT WHITE TEAM'S HERE TO STAY
WE CAN'T BELIEVE HALF THE THINGS THEY SAY
THINKING THAT THEIR TEAM HAS GOT A SHOT IN THIS WAR
WE JUST LET THEM TALK AND BEAT 'EM UP SOME MORE

(CHORUS X 2)

CATCH THE RHYTHM

CATCH THE RHYTHM
MOVE YOUR FEET
WE'RE THE WHITE HIGH ROLLERS
WE CAN'T BE BEAT

NOBODY BEATS THE WHITE
AIN'T NOBODY GONNA BEAT THE WHITE
NOBODY BEATS THE WHITE

CHORUS

GONNA BE THE WINNING TEAM TONIGHT
AIN'T NOBODY GONNA BEAT THE WHITE

WE'RE THE GREATEST
WE'RE THE PROUDEST
WHEN IT COMES TO SONG NIGHT
WE'RE THE LOUDEST!!!

NOBODY BEATS THE WHITE
AIN'T NOBODY GONNA BEAT THE WHITE
NOBODY BEATS THE WHITE

IF BLUE TEAM
IS LOOKING FOR A FIGHT
AIN'T NOBODY GONNA BEAT THE WHITE

(CHORUS X 3)
