

MESSAGE FROM STEVE

It is Sunday night August 17th, 36 hours after 120 happy campers left to rejoin their families after a memorable centennial season at West End House Camp. Since you left, I have taken a 3 mile walk around the lake and a 4 mile walk through the apple orchards to the cliff with awesome views of Long Pond. These strolls have allowed me to get an excellent perspective on what made this year special, as well as all that has been accomplished since my return to WEHC 10 years ago.

When I first met with Bill and then WEHC President Henry Barr, we set goals of how I could help camp get even better than it was at that point. These included increasing the number and quality of the campers, increasing the amount of instruction that was done in all activities, ensuring fun friendly competition with better sportsmanship, having a busier schedule with more choices/activities, expecting higher standards of staff performance and maturity in all aspects of their jobs, doing out of camp special activities such as socials and hikes, and leading a recruitment strategy that consists of tours during all seasons, house calls, active outreach and follow-up, and new campers invited to and introduced at the camp breakfast. It has been very satisfying to see the steady progress that has been made in all of these areas, culminating in this year's excellent camp season, which may have been our best yet (despite the weather).

The success of 2008 was a collaborative effort among many key people. First of all the number and quality of the campers were at a level not seen for decades. The relationships, support from, and collaboration with the campers' families was also crucial to the good feelings that permeated the camp. The overall staff effort and seriousness of purpose was established early in our initial training and orientation sessions and continued throughout the season.

The team of leaders that we put together was truly exceptional and each person was a major contributor to 2008's success. Director of Operations Ryan Wilensky returned after a 9 year absence to lend his spirit, organizational skills, coaching ability, leadership, and high standards of what it takes for a staff person to be at his best for the campers. Program Director Danny Walsh positively impacted so many aspects of the camp, from the waterfront to sports to evening activities to staff scheduling to his excellent work with the campers. Waterfront Director Charlie McGibony was always at the docks, ensuring safety, teaching swimming, arranging for a varied and fun waterfront schedule, and providing his calm veteran leadership to camp in general. Charlie and his waterfront staff (Thanks Avergons!) taught Red Cross courses so well and the kids tried so hard that 152 campers received their Red Cross cards for accomplishing the next level!

As always, it was a pleasure to collaborate with Bill who has continued to be a mentor, friend, and icon of all that is special about WEHC. All of us who try to follow in his footsteps have a large task at hand. However, the mutual goals that we all have of making the second century of WEHC even better than the first will provide the blueprint for successful collaboration as we move forward.

How do we improve upon our current quality? First, we do all we can to encourage continuity of our best campers and best staff. We look forward to the return of most if not all of our key staff leaders. We will actively pursue staff at all levels who have shown excellence, commitment to our goals, and certification in important skill areas. Although promoting deserving folks from within is our first choice, we also will fill gaps that we have with quality mature individuals who will help us in certain important areas.

My vision, that I believe I share with all campers, families, counselors, and leaders at camp and on the WEHC Board of Directors, is to solidify our camp as the best, safest, most fun, most life-enhancing experience possible. We will keep and expand upon the core activities and values that have made camp so successful. The tradition and legacy of making friends for life, becoming part of a family that is second only to one's own, and giving back to the camp for all it has done for each of us should continue to guide each of our actions in the second century of WEHC. I pledge that I will continue my efforts to collaborate with all of you to continue to accomplish these vital goals. I am glad that you are part of the WEHC family. Thanks in advance for your help and support.

Best regards to you and your family,
Steve Lepler

Message from the Operations Director

Before I talk about the wonderful 2008 camp season, there are many people I need to thank. First off, to the members of the Board of Directors who sought me out and helped convince me that I should come back to camp during my summer "off." You were right. Also to Bill and Steve for welcoming me with open arms and being receptive to all that I hoped to accomplish this summer. To Dan Walsh, who was my fellow Gottliebier in 1992 and continues to be one of the most reliable people in the West End family. Dan is one of the most unselfish people I know and as Program Director initiated most of the activities during the summer. Thanks to Bryna for doing everything that nobody else wants to do including overseeing the laundry, canteen, letters home and taking a huge share of the van driving. Finally, thanks to my soon to be wife, Rachel. When I first proposed the idea of the both of us going to an all boys camp for the summer, I thought it was going to be a tough sell. But, when she said "sounds like fun" I knew I better give her another proposal quickly.

One of the truest adages about camp is that it is only as good as its staff. The staff can make a bad activity good, a good one great and a great one memorable. I remember Josh Swiecicki once saying "picking up trash can be a great activity if the staff makes it fun." Special thanks to the Senior Counselors in particular for providing leadership to the younger staff and leading new and improved activities. I will remember Mike Jacobs for running a terrific Sailing program and doing Model Rocketry, Brandon Avergon for running an amazing "Staff Wrestlemania" and "Desert War," Rashad Cudjoe for running the "Gold Rush," Dave Voshchin for running the new "Gladiators" activity and for agreeing to do Maureen's laundry, Jordan Shapiro for running the new Intermediate Leagues, Ayura for doing Astronomy and Science adventures, Andrew DeMarco for coaching the unsettled stomachs of the 10-under soccer team, Mike Stawowy for running the Archery program and doing a lot of the van driving, Sam Jekowsky for being the Inspection Master and for being the model for all Senior Counselors, Steve McGibony for being a huge late season addition and Evan White for being our best referee.

Our younger staff stepped up this summer and led activities as well. Thanks to Dan Bernard, Ben Yudysky and Ben Olins for doing the "West End Weekly" and for organizing this Spirit. One of the highlights of the summer for me was watching Dan and Ben O argue about how to deal with the Goose dropping issue in front of everyone during Elections. Thanks to Jesse Charney-Golden for running leagues, coaching Intercamp sports and for his spirited Mess Hall announcements. Finally thanks to Matt Shivers for heading up the Arts and Crafts program.

Safety is always the #1 priority at camp and Charlie McGibony, as Waterfront Director, ensured the safety of everyone at the Waterfront as a mature adult with a military background. Charlie worked endlessly, prioritizing safety first and managed to schedule campers for a variety of activities including Waterskiing, Water Bongo, Banana boating and Sailing.

Finally, I just want to thank everyone, including the campers for making Rachel and I feel so welcome. We experimented with many ideas this summer such as Karaoke, Astronomy, Intermediate Leagues, and Model Rocketry which I hope everyone enjoyed. I was pleasantly shocked by the quality of campers at West End, even compared to when I was last at camp in 1999. Everyone has such a genuine love for the camp and a respect for each other that makes West End even better than ever. I hope to come back in 2009 and help the start of the next 100 years of West End, which will be even better than the first.

-Ryan Wilensky

INTERCAMP SPORTS REPORT

By Ryan Wilensky

This year's Intercamp season was successful in terms of variety of sports and great competition. The Intercamp season started off the year with a 12 under Basketball victory over Cody in a terrific game 35-31. The team was led by MoMo, Grady Newberg, Jake Karger and Zach Chason. Then West End brought a 12-under group to Cody for a Soccer game. Again, a solid Cody squad gave the team all they could handle taking a 2-1 lead. But, West End scored 3 straight goals by Grady Newberg, Jake Karger and Brendan Cronin and held Cody off 5-4. Other great performances were by Panharith Kong and Justin Hirschfield.

The annual 15- Under Basketball "House Game" was once again played with an atmosphere that only the Duke Blue Devils enjoy. In a dominating performance, West End won 74-36 with a suffocating 1-2-2 press. Kyle Danielson led the team with 19 points and Chris "the Eraser" Moriarty led the team defensively on their way to victory. Other solid contributions were made by Dan Bernard and Chris Scott.

Another highlight of the summer was the 13-under Basketball team finishing in 2nd place in the Robin Hood tournament led by Coach Jesse Charney-Golden. The team played well and was led by Tony Adams and Eric Lesser.

West End was also the runner up in the 15-under Baseball tournament. The team won their semi-final game in dominating fashion over Robin Hood and lost a tight 8-6 game in the Finals to Winaukee. Coach Jordan Shapiro led the boys well in their defense of the 2007 title.

During a 3 day stretch of rain and thanks to the cooperation of Robin Hood, West End hosted an 11-under and 14-under Basketball double header. In the 11-under game, Robin Hood won an exciting game 43-41, but in the 2nd game West End won 79-69 in what would have to be called the "Jared Klapman" game. Klapman scored 55 points vs. a terrific Robin Hood team.

Other new intercamp sports this year were Archery and Flag Football. Since both sports were new, it took some adjustment to learn the rules of these competitions, but both teams represented West End well. The 13- Under Flag Football team was led by Eric Lesser and Steve "Randy Moss" White. Mike Stawowy coached the Archery team who had contributions from Sam London and Evan Vale.

Finally, in the last competition of the year, West End hosted the annual "10 and Under Day," in which Softball, Soccer, Newcomb and Basketball were played. The team was dominating in all of the games, except for Newcomb, which ended in a tie. Great performances by the three Jacks (Meaney, Conlon, and Lesser) and many others led the way.

Thanks to all the coaches and campers for continuing to bring that great West End spirit to Intercamp competition. We pride ourselves on intensity and sportsmanship and are extremely well respected wherever we go. West End finished with a final record of 19-10-1 record and is ready to top this in 2009.

WEST END WEEKLY

WEST END WINS HOUSE GAME!

WILENSKY COACHES TEAM TO 74-36 VICTORY OVER ROBIN HOOD

By Neil Sharma

West End tradition dates back to the past hundred years. One of its most cherished traditions is the House Game, the annual 15-under basketball match features our West End team playing its arch rival Camp Robin Hood. The rivalry was renewed this past Saturday when a crowded Rec Hall hosted the game once again.

Robin Hood brought about 80 fans, all pumped for the game, but no more excited than the West Enders. Our fans cheered, painted chests, and screamed like there was no tomorrow. The game tipped off at approximately 7:20, when Robin Hood took a quick 2-0 lead, silencing the crowd. At that point no one in the gym, including Wilensky, thought West End could overcome such an insurmountable lead. However, West End closed out the first quarter with a 23-2 run. The game was smooth sailing from then on.

With help from fellow CITs Ben Yudysky, Danny Bernard, Gottleiber Chris Moriarty, and 4A-er Chris Scott, Kyle Danielson led the team with 19 points. The whole team contributed to the victory: Ben Ryter, Eric Lesser, Sam McGann, and Marcus Tingling all scored. After the final buzzer sounded, the West End fans stormed the court and waved the Robin Hood fans goodbye. Best of luck to the 15 and 13 under teams as they compete at the Robin Hood Tournament on Tuesday!

West End Rocks the Bee

By Jesse Weiss, 1A

Although West End did not place in either the team or individual competitions at the Fourth Annual Intercamp Spelling Bee, the efforts of nine bright campers brought some glory to the camp. For the 15-under team, Marcus Tingling, Jake Ryter, Eric Lesser, Alex Hebert, and Jesse Weiss tried their best and came in fourth place for the team competition. Tingling also came in fourth place in the individual competition. He fought the hardest but was eliminated by missing the word 'iridescent,' "I felt terrible," Tingling said, "I was astonished, it was so disappointing."

The juniors did not fare any better. The four man team did not even make the playoffs for either the individual or team contests. Joey Rowland was disappointed because he worked hard during rest-period spelling practices, but faced tough competition at the bee. Sam Eggert, Christian Trombley, and Mohamed Muhamed also tried their hardest.

Bill Margolin supervised the trip, but as good as the bee was, the highlight of his trip was stopping at Dairy Queen. "The Blizzard was great," he noted. It has become a spelling bee tradition to feast at DQ after the bee. "I've waited a year for this day," Bill said, reflecting on the bee, "We fought hard and we will be back again next year."

Close Calls with Camp Cody

By Ryan Wilensky

During the first two weeks, the 12-under age group played two games vs. Camp Cody. The first game, which was played in the Rec Hall last Saturday, was a terrific game in which West End survived a 3-point shooting barrage from Cody in a 35-31 victory. Three days later the group headed out to Cody for a soccer game, in which West End survived an early deficit on their way to a 5-4 victory.

The basketball game was a back and forth battle. Every time West End started to gain a comfortable lead, the resilient Cody team would hit a timely 3-pointer. It wasn't until Jake Stetson sank two clutch free throws with 30 seconds that the team felt safe. Those two free throws gave West End a 35-31 lead, which ended up being the final score. The team was led by great performances by Grady Newburg at the point guard position, and MoMo who dominated the paint all game long. Momo was the leading scorer with 12 points, Grady had 8, and Jake Karger and Zach Chason each had 6. Karger sparked a 6-0 run late in the game with consecutive outside shots. Other scorers were Justin Hirschfeld and Jake Stetson. Thanks to other team members Eric McNeilly, John Stewart, Sam Eggert, Josh Hirschfeld, Nick Scott, Josh Wertheimer, Panharith Kong, Jahsiah Toby and Deh'Kwan Rabb for contributing to the team. Coaches Mo Williams and Matt Freund were able to start West End out with a victory in Intercamp action.

The soccer game was just as intense and just as close at the end. Again Grady Newberg and Jake Karger led the team all game and each had a goal in the 5-4 victory. Cody got out to a 1-0 lead, and then Matt Yudsky tied the game with a goal. Cody took another lead at 2-1. In the second half, West End dominated a ten minute stretch in which Grady Newberg, Brendan Cronin and Jake Karger all had goals to take a 4-2 lead. After Cody cut the lead to 4-3, Cronin scored another goal to make it 5-3. After a late goal by Cody, the team held the lead thanks to the play of Panharith Kong and Justin Hirschfield, who controlled the ball. Other solid performances were by Jeremy Luna, Jake Stetson, who played goalie in the second half, and Juan Heneo. Special thanks to Rashad Cudjoe and Ben Olins for keeping the undefeated Intercamp season alive. Rashad had to do double duty, as a referee in the second half of the game as well.

West End brought the Intercamp record to 3-0 on Saturday, with the infamous "House Game" vs. long standing rival, Camp Robin Hood. The team was coached by me (Ryan Wilensky) and Jesse Charney Golden. The team was led by veteran players Kyle Danielson, Matt Yudsky and Dan Bernard. Other team members included Chris Scott, Chris Moriarty, Eric Lesser, Sam McGann, Ben Ryter and Marcus Tingling.

Scooter Basketball

By Ben Olins

As a former camper, I know of campers' curiosity regarding staff activity at night. It's a burning desire among every camper to know what their counselors do after hours. I feel, as a staff man, like it is my job to inform the camp of these activities. Unfortunately, an article that contained all of these happenings would be several pages long, so this week I will only speak of one: The new scooter basketball trend.

Scooter Basketball was invented by mistake. It was the result of discovering a new shipment of Hockey scooters, while in the middle of a basketball game. The rest, as you can guess, is history. Over the course of the next few days, several staff members competed in two v. two and three v. three Scooter Basketball games. Occasionally, several scooter riders would compete against one or two leg dwellers. The idea of the game is the same though; get the ball in the basket, and don't miss.

Several names have been thrown about for the new sport. David Lach is a fan of, "Scooterball," Andrew Demarco prefers, "Skeeterball," while Brandon Avergon just calls it his "weekly workout." Despite the lack of a name, counselors from across the camp have been flocking to the rec hall to compete, to sweat, and to cut their hands profusely by being rolled over by Matt Freund.

Several counselors have tried to advance the sport by talking to companies such as Nike, Adidas, and Reebok. Development has been temporarily suspended however, due to a minor law suit with the Wheel Chair Basketball League. For right now, the future of the game may take place in post-coverage rec hall matches, and the occasional night activity.

The lack of a name and a professional league does not hold back the staff though. Games are becoming ever more frequent, and ever more competitive. This of course leads to two things: intense games, and intense sweeping for the rec hall CITs.

So remember, the next time your counselor walks in at midnight, sweating, breathing hard, and bleeding, he didn't just try to take Rashad's phone, he just spent his evening playing Scooter Basketball- the greatest sport to hit West End since Cantaloupe Kickball.

GIMP

Learn a New Stitch Each Week

By Matt Shivers

BOX STITCH

- 1) Take two rolls of gimp, and pull the strings out to your desired length. Cut the strings.
- 2) Make the two strings perpendicular, and put your index finger in the place where the strings cross.
- 3) While holding the strings with your index finger, the string on the left, and cross it over your finger. Do the same with the string on the right.
- 4) Take the string that is north of your index finger, and put it over the crossed string that is closest to it, and under the crossed string that is furthest from it. Do the same with the string south of your index finger. At this point there should be something that looks similar to a square or box.
- 5) Take the top strings in each hand and pull them. It depends on how tight or loose you want your gimp to be. Results may vary.
- 6) Continue doing steps 3,4,5 without the index finger. Once, you run out of string, you can make a keychain or a bracelet.

For more help see Matt Shivers in 3A or Rashad Cudjoe in 4A.

WIFFLE BALL ACTION 2008

The Council Ring was again the place to be during many choice times at WEHC. Our unique and fun version of Wiffle Ball engaged hundreds of participants and spectators. There was a bit of controversy early on as there was a dramatic increase in the number of home runs being hit. Steroid use was quickly ruled out as the reason. The new supply of slightly thicker bats as well as the overall improvement and excellence of our players seemed to be the main reasons behind this power surge.

During the first part of the summer there were two tournaments: the Junior World Series of Wiffle Ball and the Senior World Series of Wiffle Ball. Both tourneys started with a dozen three person teams. After a number of close and exciting games in the Juniors, the finals came down to Jacob Stetson, Zach Chason, and Adam Josephson vs. Drew Harris, Jeremy Luna, and Panharith Kong. Stetson's crew pulled away to take this prestigious title. In the Senior tourney, Chris Moriarty, Eric Lesser, and Jacob Leppo used their power to advance to the finals against Marcus Tingling, Grady Newberg, and Jacob Kramer. Moriarty's team continued to be dominant and won the crown against their noble opponents.

The next two tournaments were even bigger. In the Senior-Junior tourney there were 28 teams of three and in the Camper-Counselor tourney there were 32 teams of four! Both of these competitions went many rounds with some amazingly close and exciting games, as well as a few blow outs. Because of the combination of frequent rain and many intercamp teams that had numerous practices and games, these two tournaments were not totally completed. However, this did not diminish the enjoyment that was experienced by so many in their shining moments in the Council Ring. Wiffle mania is sure to return to WEHC during the summer of 2009!

HIKING 2008

The beautiful area in and around West End House Camp was explored and enjoyed by many campers during the centennial season. There were several hikes up to the cliffs overlooking Long Pond and West Pond, as well as around the perimeter of our lake. On the 4th of July a group walked down to West Pond to view the annual boat parade that takes place there.

Danny Walsh took a few bunks of campers to the Ossipee area of New Hampshire where they did moderate hikes up small mountains in that area. These were followed up by other activities, such as swimming, disc golf, and camping out on the shores of a beautiful lake. All of the participants came back extremely happy and a little bit tired.

The big hike of the summer was to Mt. Chocurua. An eager group of courageous hikers set out on a drizzly late July morning. As the ascent began up the challenging Brook Trail, the rain picked up and lasted for awhile. When discussing the options at that point, no one wanted to turn back. The group proceeded to the summit as the rain gradually stopped. They all felt great about their accomplishment! The walk down the Liberty Trail to complete the 9 mile loop was free of precipitation, but full of puddles. People were glad to get back into the dry van. The stop at KHOP for an early dinner was a well deserved ending to their journey. Congratulations to this stellar group consisting of Shin Tsujimura, Jacob Leppo, Chris Moriarty, Jesse Weiss, MoMo, Vince Leppo, Cameron Hart, Caleb Johnson, Joe McKinnon, Jose Noyola, Alex Hebert, and Vicheth Seang, led by Steve Lepler, Danny Walsh, and Charlie McGibony.

HOME AND AWAY SOCIALS

The boys of West End House Camp did themselves proud as they socialized with the girls from Camp Fernwood Cove during two fun events. The first was held on July 15 as a bus and two vans traveled from East Parsonsfield to Harrison, the home of Fernwood Cove. This was our second year of visiting; this year's social there was also a huge success. There was much dancing and mingling on their lighted tennis courts. No one wanted the evening to end. Even before we left that night, we finalized an agreement for us to reciprocate and host them at our camp. Little did we know that it would be such a big event...

On the evening of August 12, the day after Color War ended, three busloads of girls pulled into our parking lot at 7:30. The crowd gathered in our beautiful rec hall, a much better venue for a dance, with an amazing sound system blasting out tunes that immediately got everyone moving. All but the youngest WEHC campers were given the opportunity to attend, and most chose to be there. Once again the night went by too quickly and reluctantly the girls headed back to the buses and our guys back to their cabins. Did we make the most of our homecourt advantage? Yes, as there have already been discussions about more such gatherings during the summer of 2009.

WATERMELON LEAGUE 2008

In last year's Spirit we posed the question, "Can the Walsh's threepat?" Now we know the answer, "Almost, but not quite."

West End House Camp's unique form of softball, in which all campers and staff are divided into 8 large teams and play 2 inning games with everybody batting and fielding in each inning, had a season of close and exciting games. After a full season of 7 games, the 2 teams led by Danny Walsh and Ryan Wilensky/Mike Jacobs finished in a tie for first with records of 6-1. Tied for third with records of 4-3 were the squads of Sam Jekowsky/Rashad Cudjoe and David Voshchin/Andrew DeMarco. With the identical record of 2-5 were teams captained by Mike Stawowy, Brandon Avergon, and Steve Lepler/Charlie McGibony. Occupying the cellar was the team nobly led by Jordan Shapiro.

In the eagerly anticipated and well played championship match, the Wilensky/Jacobs juggernaut put an end to the Walsh dynasty. They enjoyed their championship watermelon on the last night of camp. As the 2009 season approaches, people are already getting excited to play and to see if Ryan or Mike Jacobs can go back to back. Get ready for some fun, friendly competition!

WEHC ELITE EIGHT 2008

We are pleased to recognize the following campers who made the wise decision to spend the full 8 weeks at WEHC this past summer. By virtue of their commitment, skills, and continuity, they were the primary leaders in their age groups and in the camp in general. They did an outstanding job of leading camp to one of its best years ever. They received special privileges, recognition, and responsibilities throughout the season. We hope you become a member of the Elite 8 during the summer of 2009.

Finn Sullivan: Making fun of Spink, hatred towards porch and basket, Spink, Moriarty, dominance in sports, great HSC for White Champions, a great year, hopeful return on staff

Chris Moriarty: Buddies with Bill, serious face, Ayura, Matty, John, the Maureen walk, Finn, Spink, an injury-free year, HSC of Blue Centurions, a great year and future on the staff

JC Matt Freund: MFNS, karaoke machine, Birkenstocks, foot odor, bass he never played, 2B, great move to Gottlieb, his beard, somehow being off for 9 straight days, speakers, music collection, the shuffle, best bed in camp, coaching debut, 3-3 in water polo vs Brandon Avergon, wins in DW and CW

SC Jordan Shapiro: Constant sheet changing, dirty yet clean, feuds with the Avergons, Junior and Intermediate league commissioner, great return after missing a year, 15-under baseball coach, color war coaching debut, 3-3 in volleyball, White Champions, the beard, Chloe, love for Gottlieb, FAU, UCF, hopefully number 11 in '09.

Color War 2008

By Ryan Wilensky

The 2008 Color War was a close and memorable one. First off, Color War started on the morning of Wednesday, August 6th. With inclement weather being forecasted for a few days, Color War ended up starting in the rain. Campers were given the movie options of going to the Rec Hall to see Transformers or the Mess Hall to see Balls of Fury. This is one of the only times that Color War started when the campers were split up. About 10 minutes into each video, the magic words "Color War is Now!!!" flashed on the screens during the movies. Campers were stunned at first, then realized the moment they were waiting for had arrived. A special thanks to Dan Andelman (Producer of the Centennial Video and Phantom Gourmet) who was able to do this for us with only a week's notice.

This was one of the most memorable Color Wars. Each team had 7 coaches. Bill Margolin coached for the first time since he coached on the White Warriors in 1982. Bill's entrance, coming out of the Infirmary dressed as a Roman God, was the best moment of the summer. Steve Lepler also came out of Color War retirement as the Head Coach of the White Champions. This Color War was close throughout, as the White took control of the lead on the afternoon of Day 2, with a 4-1 split. The Blue Centurions swept the Omelette Games on Day 4 to give themselves a chance. But, they needed a 4-2 split on the morning of Day 5 to cut into a 30 point lead. White was able to win a memorable High Junior overtime Newcomb game, giving them a 30 point lead going into Song Night. Song Night was the best by far in my 14 years at camp. In any other year, either team would have won by 20. The Blue Centurions had great songs that were strictly about camp including songs about Bryna and 4:15 Fruit. The White Champions took some risks in their songs such as singing in rounds, clapping, and doing multiple songs; their team stepped up in a big way.

I would like to personally thank Danny Walsh and Ben Yudysky for helping run Color War. Also, I would like to thank Jason Cohen for volunteering to referee Waterpolo and taking care of the Spelling Bee. This had to be the least controversial Color War and I attribute that to the referees doing a great job and the coaches leading by example with good sportsmanship and positive attitudes.

WHITE CHAMPIONS

We Will Rock You

Blue team you're behind see the Champions
Winning all the games gonna be a big rout today.
You've got mud on your face
You big disgrace
Kicking your can all over the place.

White will white will rock blue
White will white will rock blue

White Team Champions number one men
Leading in this war gonna take down the blue today.
You got blood on your face
You big disgrace
Waving our banners all over the place.

White will white will rock blue
White will white will rock blue
White will white will rock blue
White will white will rock blue

She's Not There

Well no one told them about White, but they all knew.
Well no one told them about White, there was no chance for blue.

Well it's too late to say we're sorry, Champions rule,
beyond compare.
Please don't bother trying to catch us; it's not fair!

Well let us tell you 'bout the White Team romp, the way
we crush them on every court and field; Our boys are strong and cool, our guys are skilled and bright: Well, it's not fair!

Well no one warned them about Champs, now blue gets beat.
Well no one warned them about Champs, go down to sure defeat.

Well it's too late to say we're sorry, Champions rule,
beyond compare.
Please don't bother trying to catch us; it's not fair!

Well let us tell you 'bout the White Team romp, the way
we crush them on every court and field; Our boys are strong and cool, our guys are skilled and bright: Well, it's not fair!

Sweet Caroline

When we began, on that exciting Wednesday, we knew that white would be so strong.
First on the fields, then at the courts and water, we saw that blue did not belong.

White, proud and true, standing out, victory, crushing blue.
White Champions, (wo wo wo), good times never seemed
so good (so good, so good, so good).
We've been inclined, (wo wo wo), to believe we always
would win this war.

Song Night is here, judges enjoy our story; White Team is ready for our crown.

One hundred years, all of our West End glory, Champs are the best team ever found.

White, proud and true, standing out, victory, crushing blue.
White Champions, (wo wo wo), good times never seemed
so good (so good, so good, so good).
We've been inclined, (wo wo wo), to believe we always
would win this war.

White Champions, (wo wo wo), good times never seemed
so good (so good, so good, so good).
We've been inclined, (wo wo wo), to believe we always
would win this war.

Sooner or Later

Sooner or later White is gonna getcha,
Sooner or later White is gonna win it,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna catcha,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna win!

It's just a matter of time, before we show all our pride; beat
blue with the power we've been shining.
It's just a question of when, we've beat them time and again, so give the crown to mighty White Team
Champions.

Sooner or later White is gonna getcha,
Sooner or later White is gonna win it,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna catcha,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna win!

It's just a matter of time, before we show all our pride; beat
blue with the power we've been shining.
It's just a question of when, we've beat them time and again, so give the crown to mighty White Team
Champions.

Sing it out loud (Hail the White Champions)
Take a big bow (Hail the White Champions)
There is no doubt (Hail the White Champions)
White is gonna win this war!

Sooner or later White is gonna getcha,
Sooner or later White is gonna win it,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna catcha,
Sooner or later Champs are gonna win!

We are the Champions

We've paid our dues
Game after game
We've shown our courage
And honored white's name.

Amazing plays
We've made a few.
We've challenged blue in every battle
And we've come through.

Judges, judges,
We are the Champions, my friends
And we'll keep on fighting to the end.

We are the Champions.
We are the Champions.
No chance for blue team
'Cause we are the Champions of this war!

Tonight's our night
Song after song
We'll show our talent
So please sing along.

You'll know the tunes.
Championship rock
So enjoy this white celebration
We'll be on top.

Judges, judges,
We are the Champions, my friends
And we'll keep on fighting to the end.
We are the Champions.
We are the Champions.
No chance for blue team
'Cause we are the Champions of this war!

Fly Like an Eagle

Fight white fight, dit dit dit do, fight white fight
Fight white fight, dit dit dit do, fight white fight
Fight white fight, dit dit dit do, fight white fight
Fight white fight, dit dit dit do, fight white fight

White keeps on winning, winning, winning all of the ballgames.

White keeps on winning, winning, winning all of the
ballgames.

We're going to rise like a champion, victory.
Rise like a champion, let white spirit carry me.
We're going to rise like a champion, valiantly.
Blue team has no solution.

All white juniors, say no to defeat.
All white seniors, your skills are so sweet.
Poor blue campers, you all will be beat.
Blue team has no solution.

We're going to rise like a champion, victory.
Rise like a champion, let white spirit carry me.
We're going to rise like a champion, valiantly.
Blue team has no solution.

Dirty Water

Solo: We're going to tell you a story,
We're going to tell you about the Champs,
We're going to tell you an awesome story,
It's all about the Champs.

All:
Down by the water, down by the banks of our Long Pond.
That's where you'll find us, along with Whitey, Danny, and Steve.
Well we are the White Team Champions,
Oh blue team just go home.

Frustrated Snoopy, gotta stay up past 2 o'clock,
'Cause he's wishing and a hoping that just once those whites won't rock.

Well we are the White Team Champions,
Oh blue team just go home.

Up at the ballfields, up where the Champs do dominate,
That's where you'll see us, helping the blue team meet their fate.

Well we are the White Team Champions,
Oh blue team just go home.

Well we are the White Team Champions,
Oh blue team just go home.

I Will

Who knows how long we've loved you.
Our thanks we'll always send.
We're with you for our whole lifetime.
We'll be there for you West End.

For when we first arrived here
You showed us our best friends.
Helped us grow to future couns'lors.
We'll be there for you West End.

Love you forever and forever, love you with all our hearts;
love you whenever we're together, love you when we're
apart.

And when each year we join you, our joy will fill the air;
see our smiles when we are near you; shed a tear when we
must leave you, for the things you do endear us to you; oh,
we love West End.

Who knows how much you've taught us.
Strong bonds will never bend.
Memories will last us always.
We'll be there for you West End.

From both the white and blue teams
Camp honor we'll defend.
Brotherhood for the next century.
We'll be there for you West End.

Love you forever and forever, love you with all our hearts;
love you whenever we're together, love you when we're
apart.

And when each year we join you, our joy will fill the air;
see our smiles when we are near you; shed a tear when we
must leave you, for the things you do endear us to you; oh, we love West End. West End....
