DEDICATION

George Kane passed away in November of 2009. He had an extraordinary life, both in terms of age (he would have turned 105 on January 1, 2010) and of continuous involvement with the West End House (in 1915 he joined the Club and in 1919 he first attended the camp). He served as President of the Alumni Association, the Camp Corporation, and the Club, he chaired many committees, and he was the leader for many fundraising projects, including the efforts that resulted in the creation of a modern day camp in 1950 complete with cabins (in place of tents), a large dining hall, and a magnificent gym. In the late 1960s, after the demise of the West End section of Boston, he again rose to the occasion to lead efforts to raise the $1.6 million needed to build a new Club in a different community (Allston). In the 1990s he and his family, through their own donations and donations they solicited from friends and associates, created the Louis I. Kane Leadership Center, a new third floor in the renovated Allston facility that was named in memory of George's late son, himself a tireless supporter and advocate for the West End House cause. In 2008 George made a substantial donation to help sponsor the publication of the book chronicling the 100 year history of the camp.

There are many stories that can be told about George Kane, more so because of the many years we were blessed by his presence. His commitment to his family is inspirational and his loyalty to his West End House friends is legendary; indeed, the line in the House Song (“when you’re one of the boys, you’re always one of the boys”) was never so true than in the actions, commitments, and friendships that epitomized his life.

George was, and always will be, one of the boys. He was the West End House.

In his honor and in his memory, the 2009 Spirit is lovingly dedicated to

GEORGE E. KANE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There are many people whose assistance during this past year has been invaluable to the camp. We offer our sincere gratitude to the following individuals and institutions that contributed to the success of the season:

·Michael Berger, President of WEH Camp, for his tremendous enthusiasm, commitment and involvement throughout the year.

·Marty Jacobs and Henry Barr, Past Presidents of the WEH Camp Corporation, for their continued leadership, advice, and presence.

·Members of the Camp Corporation, who oversee the operation and whose committees meet regularly to ensure that WEH Camp is the very best it can possibly be. These great people are listed elsewhere in the Spirit, and each has been tremendous in his or her support of the Camp.

·Aaron Leppo (Full Line Graphics) – thank you for your patience and generosity in arranging for the printing of the Spirit for 2009 (and for many previous years, too!).

·The Camp Breakfast is always a great time, and Bert and Esther Wynn, with the help of many others, continue to ensure its success by providing many raffle prizes for the children.

·Tony Goroshko and Goroshko Moving Co. – deepest gratitude for transporting supplies to camp in the spring and for picking up and bringing trunks and baggage to Boston the last day of camp.

·Sheila O’Connell and Caritas St. Elizabeth’s Medical Center in Brighton for their donation of medical supplies.

·The fine folks at Franciscan Children’s Hospital in Brighton – we thank you for the use of your parking lot for bus departures and arrivals. It is an ideal meeting space!

·Sincere gratitude to the staff at the West End House Boys & Girls Club, especially Executive Director Andrea Howard and Director of Support Services, Karen Cyr, for their cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

·Thanks to the dozen Camp Alumni who spent a weekend at Camp last spring and helped on many projects.

·Brien Wong for meeting the returning buses at Franciscan Hospital and making sure that campers and luggage were picked up!

ABOUT THE COVER

What do you think of first when you are reminiscing about West End House Camp? The beautiful setting? The fun activities? The history and tradition? All these will come to mind quickly. However, most likely your first thoughts will go to the people, fellow staff and campers who became your brothers for the summer and your friends for life. Both the front and back covers show many of the special individuals who turned 2009 into a magical and memorable time for all of us.

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I am writing this message in December 2009 at the “Six Month Point” – six months ago the 2009 season began, and six months from now the 2010 season will start! It is always interesting at this midway point to reflect on the past as we look forward to the future.

Earlier in December I visited camp. It was a beautiful day, with glorious sunshine keeping the temperature at a very comfortable level. The menu board outside the dining hall still listed what was served last August on the last day of camp, and the hand sanitizers were still in place. I almost expected to hear second bell soon and to see everyone going to the Council Ring prior to coming to the dining hall! It was a nice daydream, made all the more pleasant by knowing that on June 27, 2010 it will become a reality as the camp will reverberate with spirited sounds of laughter and delight as the busses and parents drop off the campers on Opening Day.

Each summer the camp season is better than the previous one! This does not happen by itself. It is the result of a tremendous amount of planning, meetings, phone calls, interviews, mailings, email and web activity, travel, and coordination before the start of camp, as well as all the work that goes on during the camping season. Although Camp is open eight weeks for the children, the task of directing it encompasses a full 52 weeks each year. It is a task that is so ably handled by Steve Lepler. His commitment, energy, creativity, concern, and organizational skills are unmatched, as evidenced by summers that are always successful, by beds that are filled with campers who are not only happy but who gain from their experience with us, and by a staff that is diverse, qualified, talented, and trained. His fervent determination to ensure that West End House Camp remains the very best among all camps is evident. Thank you, Steve, for all you have done and will continue to do!

Ryan Wilensky has been a most valuable addition. Since October of 2007 he has served as Director of Operations, a position whose responsibilities go beyond any job descriptions. His presence has truly made a positive difference at camp, and in true West End House Camp tradition he gives over and above the call of duty to ensure success.

We were fortunate to have veteran nurse Sandi Nelson with us for the entire summer. Her care and concern for the campers and staff is exceptional.

Lee Russell returned as our head cook at camp. Assisted by his wife, Linda, and by Tom Mercier, he kept the delicious food flowing from the kitchen and always accommodated special events. We are truly grateful to Lee, Linda and Tom for the quality and quantity of the food they prepared.

As I have said many times, the Custodian is the key to the operation, and John Fredette willingly faced any and all tasks. He is such a knowledgeable and talented person, and he made sure that the facility ran smoothly at all times. Special mention to Norm and Joan Scott, whose efforts at Camp this year and for the past dozen or so seasons are genuinely appreciated. Norm and Joan retired after the 2009 season. They are a great couple who will always be part of the West End House Camp Family.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to Ramie Lepler, who once again this summer volunteered in many instances and was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. Thank you, Ramie, for all that you have done for us.

I am especially pleased to offer my thanks to my wife, Bryna. Her volunteer efforts keeping track of the campers' spending money, picking up the mail, making trips to the clinic or hospital, running the canteen, helping in the infirmary, picking up supplies, etc., are truly invaluable. She is a remarkable person!

Most of all, I want to offer my gratitude to the staff and to the campers. Ultimately, the success of the season comes down to quality of campers and quality of staff – and once again both “categories” were of the highest level!

Don't forget to check out our fantastic website (www.westendhousecamp.org) and to let your friends know about us! We continue to attract new campers largely through word of mouth, and we welcome your referrals.

In the meantime, stay well, and take care. Call (617-783-2267), email (webhgclub@aol.com) or write (105 Allston St., Allston, MA 02134-5029) me if I can help in any way.

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

It is Saturday afternoon August 22nd. West End House Camp is eerily quiet. All of you are back home after your awesome 2009 season. We truly kicked off our second century in style.

I just finished my annual post-camp walk, this time a 3 mile loop past West Pond, through the apple orchards, to the cliff overlooking Long Pond, and then back to my cabin. Now I am watching a sun shower from my porch. It is another uniquely beautiful day at WEHC. I am looking for a rainbow to emerge as I try to share my feelings about what made 2009 so special.

There were 6 equally important components to our success: 1) high quality and quantity of campers; 2) outstanding veteran staff; 3) excellent leadership team; 4) well run sports, waterfront, and special activity programs; 5) our positive upbeat attitude and clear mission; and 6) a beautiful well kept and well utilized facility and setting. The yearlong emphasis upon all these pieces led to a season that we all can look back upon with pride.

We had 235 campers, a nice combination of veterans and rookies, who kept WEHC overflowing with energetic and enthusiastic youngsters. Our staff was experienced and exceptional, led by 8 members of the newly formed Ten Year Club: Ryan Wilensky, Mike Jacobs, Brandon Avergon, Rashad Cudjoe, Mike Stawowy, Jordan Shapiro, Jason Cohen, and Jesse Charney-Golden. The 47 inductees of our Five Year Club included both campers and staff. Augmenting all these veterans were many outstanding rookie campers and a few "friends of friends" new counselors.

I can not thank our leadership team enough, starting from Mr. WEHC, Bill Margolin, my mentor and friend, and his tireless wife Bryna; my right hand man Ryan Wilensky, who oversaw the daily operations in an extremely competent and effective manner, and his helpful wife Rachel who gave dozens of campers the opportunity to experience the thrill of waterskiing, wakeboarding, and tubing; Waterfront Director Mark Sands who came back to passionately lead a safe, fun, and varied waterfront program, with a special emphasis upon fishing much to the glee of many current and new anglers; our excellent nurse Sandi Nelson, who led us to an extremely safe and healthy summer, especially compared to other camps; Property Manager John Fredette whose range of skills and commitment to the beauty and function of the camp, along with his experienced and able assistant Norm Scott, helped keep us the most scenic one around; and Head Chef Lee Russell who, along with his wife Linda and new addition Tom Mercier, produced delicious, plentiful, deluxe meals. Lastly (or should I say firstly), I want to thank my wife Ramie for her help and support at camp, and most importantly for her putting up with my crazy camp work schedule both in and out of season.

The most important element that I have emphasized in my expanded role at WEHC is the positive attitude, energy, and commitment to help further improve an already great and historic camp in our second century. I think we are off to a very good start and I pledge to do all I can to continue this process. West End House Camp is the best place in the world. Let's make it even better. I thank all of you in advance for joining with me during the 2010 season and beyond to make this happen.

Best regards to you and your families,

Steve Lepler

Message from the Operations Director

Many thanks need to go out for making the 2009 summer one of the best ever. First off, Steve's first year as Director was a smooth transition. It isn't easy replacing a legend, as Steve did, but his hard work and relentless pursuit of top notch campers is the number one reason for this summer's success. Although Bill is no longer Director, he continues to be as vital as ever. His overall guidance and the incredible good will in the East Parsonsfield and Allston communities he has established are invaluable. I feel honored and privileged to be a part of the leadership team that helps run the best camp in America.

There are many other people who made this summer run smoothly. Special thanks go out to John Fredette, Lee, Linda, Tom and Sandi for always being there when you need them. Also, this summer marked the return of Mark "Little Abbott" Sands, who brought back that old school West End passion we were in need of. We all knew Mark was going to bring a top notch fishing program, but he also ran a safe and fun waterfront. Also, Ramie deserves to be recognized for volunteering helping out at the waterfront as well. I'd like to thank Bryna for doing all the behind the scenes things that many people do not see. Finally, I want to thank my new bride, Rachel for helping out with driving the boat, for supporting my efforts in trying to improve the camp and being my most valuable advisor. Oh and for playing a great Marjorie Cressey.

I always believe that camp is as good as its staff. This year's staff was one of the best I ever can remember in my 15 years at the camp. In fact, I think I can say with certainty that we have NEVER had a more qualified waterfront staff as we did this year. There were times when I was at camp in the 90s, when having 1 Water Safety Instructor (WSI) on board was good. This summer we had 3 WSIs, 6 lifeguards and we trained 7 more lifeguards over the summer as well. We had Mike Jacobs, who is a qualified Sailing instructor and ran a terrific program. Under the leadership of Mark Sands, the waterfront staff was top notch, with Brandon Avergon doing much of the scheduling, Jason Cohen doing teaching and lifeguarding, and Justin Avergon being a wonderful teacher as well.

This summer I was sure we had the staff in place to try out some new things. One of the most memorable moments of the summer for me took place before camp even started. We had a contest during Setup Week to see who could come up with the best new Night Activity. The winner was the group led by one of our most creative counselors, Ben Olins, which was "Crossfire." However, the group led by Rashad Cudjoe and Mike Stawowy came up with a human (and non-contact) version of the board game "Stratego." This activity became known as "Westendo," and in my opinion is the best new activity at camp since Desert War in 1998. Another group, led by Dan Bernard and Dave Voshchin, came up with a "Murder Mystery," in which the campers had to use their detective skills to solve fake homicides.

Another memorable example of how talented, creative and committed our staff is, was when I made it known that I wanted to change the "Ironman" during Desert War. Jason Cohen took the lead. With the help of Brandon Avergon, Ben Olins, and Dave Voshchin we came up with a timed Swimming, Biking, and Running Triathlon. From now on the top 10 best times will be tracked on our new "West End's Ironmen" plaque made by Rashad, who could not have done a better job of making this plaque. The new Triathlon starts on the new "Desert War Rock," which is painted yearly in the color of the winning Desert War team.

Our Senior Staff also distinguished itself by the terrific coaching of Jordan Shapiro and Dan Bernard leading our 15-under Baseball team to a championship; our boys from Texas, Andrew DeMarco and Travis Clark, helping to lead the Soccer Program; Jesse Charney-Golden doing a much better job than I did with the 15-under hoops squad; Matt Shivers dominating Brion Rock in Karaoke; Mike Stawowy improving our Archery program; Thibaut Rochette becoming one of our best counselors and a terrific Color War coach; Neal Zucker being our best waterskiing instructor; Ben Yudysky being our best referee; Josh Singer coming back and being our most enthusiastic counselor; and Alex Melton listening to my sales pitch over Thanksgiving dinner and making me look good for pursuing him.

I look forward to another great summer at West End House Camp in 2010. I think new ideas like the "Sunday Intensity" program will be even stronger after piloting it at the end of the summer. I look forward to having more emphasis on programs such as tennis and lacrosse. We have some terrific CITs coming through the ranks who will be the future leaders of the camp, and those new CITs out there should look at the impact the group had last year and realize they can make an immediate impact. Steve, Bill and I are already planning for 2010 and plan on making it even better than 2009.

--Ryan Wilensky

WIFFLE BALL ACTION 2009

West End Stadium located in the Council Ring was the place to be during many elective times in the 2009 season. There were tournament games, pickup games, batting practice, and home run derbies. Wiffle ball action was fun for both participants and spectators alike.

West End wiffle ball started in the late-1950s when the Council Ring was built, a few short years after the 1's and the 2's were constructed. This set up was perfect for challenging both hitters and fielders. The rules were initially created by Steve Lepler's father, George Herman "Babe" Lepler, when he was a counselor in the 50s. Steve's knowledge and love of the game can be traced back to his dad, Babe. When Steve became a counselor in the 70s, he helped refine the rules and wrote the epic 239 page WEHC Wiffle Ball Rule Book, which he'll try to remember to bring up to camp this year.

Some of the more interesting and often controversial guidelines include the following:

1. The tree in front of 1B is the left field foul pole, just the trunk, not the branches. The right field foul pole is the tree to the outside right of the Council Ring.
2. The tree in front of the 2's has been the scorn of many left-handed power hitters over the years. This tree taketh away extra base hits and giveth singles on routine pop flies. Rumor has it that lefty slugger Max Parker once begged his father John to make the 5 figure donation that Steve says it would take to have the tree removed.
3. Home runs are achieved by hitting the ball over 1B, 2A, or theoretically 2B (that tree says no). The gap between 1B and 2A connected by two wires is always a judgment call. The ball has to go over the lower wire to be a home run. There are two fundraising efforts that are about to begin that could help: one is to build Monster Seats on top of 1B where a second umpire and a bunch of fans could sit and have a better vantage point, and a second is to put in an instant replay camera so this tough call can be reviewed.
4. Triples occur when the ball is hit off the slanted part of any roof (not the flat facing of the roof) and falls uncaught to the ground.
5. Doubles bounce off the flat side of the cabins and reach the ground. A ball off a diagonal partially open shutter can also be a two bagger, but any ball that first touches the porch is only a single.
6. What happens if a well struck ball goes directly into the opening door of 2A? This has yet to happen, but the ruling would be an automatic grand slam home run. This also would be the call on a massive home run that sails over Gottlieb.
7. Singles are usually less controversial- any ball that goes over or through the council ring and hits the rocks. But there is still some nuance here- the ball needs to hit the pile of rocks, not a random stray rock. Here is where our expert groundskeepers can really make a difference.
8. A batted ground ball has to roll past an imaginary line that connects the third pillar on each side of the Council Ring to become a fair ball. This has been the source of much discussion since the days of the Babe and continues now. Perhaps we need an instant replay camera focused here as well. What do you think?

This is just the beginning of the many interesting rules that have evolved for West End House Camp wiffle ball. Make sure you join us at West End Stadium for some excellent action in 2010. Remind Steve to bring the rule book this year!

WATERMELON MEN

This year's Watermelon League season was extremely exciting, competitive, and fun. WEHC's unique brand of softball, with all campers and staff playing 2 inning games, always leads to many memorable moments for all- from the youngest campers to the oldest staff members. The standings after the 6 game regular season were as follows:

DeMarco/Clarks	5-1
Cudjoe/Rochette	5-1
Lepler/Sands	3-3
Cohen/Shivers	3-3
Voshchin/Olins/JCGs	3-3
Stawowy/Zuckers	2-4
Shapiro/Avergons	2-4
Wilensky/Jacobs	1-5

The championship game pitted the DeMarco/Clarks against the Cudjoe/Rochettes. The latter team had to be considered the underdog since Rashad Cudjoe was in Barbados and hence unavailable to patrol the outfield. However, in a great team effort, Thibaut Rochette's squad triumphed 13-11 against the "never say die" DeMarco/Clarks. All members of the winning team celebrated together that evening, sharing a watermelon that not only tasted delicious but symbolized a very sweet victory.

Will there be a repeat champion next year? Or will there be a new team crowned? Join us to be part of the answer!

Intercamp Sports Report

By Ryan Wilensky

This year our intercamp teams struggled at times, but at other times excelled. It seemed that baseball was where our teams shined the most. For example, our 15-under team (led by Jordan Shapiro and Dan Bernard) won the Robin Hood Tournament Championship for the 2nd time in 3 years thanks to the pitching of rookie David Driscoll. Driscoll controlled the dominating Winaukee squad and finished off Samoset in the finals. Other great performances were turned in by Joe McKinnon and Louis Shaevel. We sent a 12-under baseball team to Samoset under the direction of Josh Singer, and they, too, came home with the Championship. Thanks to coaches Doug Spink and Chris Moriarty, our lacrosse program has improved dramatically. Our team competed in the 12-under tournament and even challenged the seasoned Winaukee team and outplayed them for the last 3 quarters. Jeremy Zucker, Andrew Jonash and Jack Lesser all played great. On the last day of intercamp sports, West End played a double header at Winaukee. In the first game, which was baseball, Kyle Hood completely owned Winaukee, which has double the number of campers. The football game afterwards was well played, but our guys came up a little short. This year's 15-under hoop team was not as successful as in years past, but showed tremendous improvement, losing only to a rare terrific Robin Hood by 6 after we lost by 26 in the House Game. The team has a promising future with Eric Lesser, Tony Adams, Kyle Hood and Josue Seoane eligible to play next year. Finally, we would have had liked to have had even more intercamp games this year, but some of the other camps cancelled their games due to their issues with the flu. We look forward to returning to our dominant self in 15-under hoop as well as further improving our lacrosse program next year. Thanks to all the coaches who volunteered their free time to improve the skills of our athletes. Our players showed tremendous heart and good sportsmanship. I think the highlight of the season was when Tony Adams, in 15-under football, knocked down a Winaukee player by accident and picked him up and gave him a hug. This kind of sportsmanship was indicative of the pride of all of our athletes.

SPELLING BEE

For the third year in a row West End House Camp entered the Maine Youth Camping Association's Spelling Bee. This time WEHC came away with two trophies – Marcus Tingling won top individual honors in the 15 and under category (the winning word was paraphernalia) and the 15 and under team as a whole placed second. The competition, which had about a dozen camps competing in both age groups, was held in Portland on July 15th.

The 12 and under team was composed of Sam Eggert, Jack Donaldson, and Josh Mazur, while the 15 and under team had Ben Grosser, Corey White, Eric Lesser, Jake Ryter, David Cohen, and Marcus Tingling doing the honors.

Congratulations to all the spellers for a job well done!

WEHC FIVE AND TEN YEAR CLUBS

As we began our second century this summer, we were proud to unveil two new plaques that will be prominently displayed in the dining hall as we move forward. The goal is to recognize and honor campers and staff who have been at WEHC for five years and for ten years. We held an induction ceremony on Visiting Day. These committed individuals have been a huge part of our success and will continue to be. They will proudly show their family now and in the future that they are members of a special and exclusive club. Congratulations and thanks to all the West Enders who are listed below.

West End Murder Mystery

Panharith Kong, 3a

Murder Mystery was a crazy night activity because it involved many characters, and many of them were lying-even the detectives. But, it was still a fun game. Throughout the activity, campers in groups of four were running around and going crazy. The winners got KHOP--a really good pizza place in Cornish, ME. The most frustrating part of the activity was when groups who got the answer wrong were given a five minute penalty. This meant that they would have to try and figure out where they went wrong in five minutes, because if they waited around, they would waste their time.

Westendo

Sam Eggert, 3B

Westendo was a huge hit amongst the campers. The game is played like a live action version of the board game Stratego. The rules are very similar, except for one major difference; instead of only moving one step at a time in one direction, players in Westendo are free roaming, giving the activity a capture the flag feel. However, the flag in Westendo is usually a fast or unnoticeable camper. I think we should play it more often.

A Message from Mark Sands

WATERFRONT 2009 1ST 2 WEEK REPORT

After a 28 year absence from West End's illustrious staff, I have returned to work as the Waterfront Director here on the shores of Long Pond. I may be the 1st staff person in the history of the West End House Camp to go from being a 2nd year CIT to being the Director of Waterfront. Many things have changed at WEHC. Desert War? 4 o'clock fruit? Trangle ball? Shuffleboard? New cabins? The list goes on. However, much has stayed the same. I am so pleased to announce, campers still love swimming! I am so proud to have been asked to bring my perspective that I have gained from 22 years of working with young people and in teaching to West End House Camp this summer.

The first piece of news to announce is that I have initiated a new Fishing Program with the support of our generous Old Timers who donated the funds needed to get required supplies. 20 rods are used daily and many worms have been swallowed by largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, pickerel and bluegills. We have had numerous 1st fish ever caught by campers so far this season. James Alves caught a 4lb largemouth bass. Seth Thibodeau and others have provided numerous crayfish for bait and each one has brought at least a big strike, if not a big fish landed. My nephew Dominick Sands has caught numerous big bass since opening day.

We are working together to hone our fishing skills including knot tying, safe casting, catch and release skills and environmentally sound fishing techniques. Long Pond is an amazing resource we have enjoyed for years. I often think of my grandfather swimming here as I dive in for my daily laps. We are doing our best to pick up any type of foreign objects from the lake, rake the inner pool and work to keep all pollutants as far away from the lake as possible.

Along with fishing, we are seeing lots of swim instruction going on delivered by our incredible staff of swim instructors. Brandon Avergon, Justin Avergon, Chris Moriarity, Jason Cohen and I have implemented the Red Cross swimming programs for our campers as often as the weather has allowed.

Sailing, kayaking, paddle boating, and canoes have seen lots of use and Mike Jacobs has enjoyed a few windy days so many West Enders have enjoyed a chance to sail the lengths of Long Pond. Our water skiers, tube lovers and banana boaters have had hours of enjoyment already this season between rain drops which have fallen often in this year's rainy start.

All in all, I think we are off to an amazing start. Our programming in tennis, archery, biking, arts and crafts are all keeping campers engaged and learning new skills while they have fun. As I take my daily walk from the H dock to my new home in the Burnes cabin, the unmistakable sound of West Enders laughing, running, swimming, diving, water skiing and learning new skills reassures me that our campers are growing and creating quality members of this great tradition called West End House Camp. Their growth as people shows their respect of the Spirit of the House and is music to my ears.

Yours with the Spirit of the House from the waterfront,

Mark Sands

Desert War 2009

Jason Cohen, 5A (Staff)

This year's Desert War will go down as one of the greatest in history. The camp was filled with excitement from the very beginning until the final moments. The experience was started by two Gottliebbers, Jacob Leppo and Marcus Tingling, running back in the last seconds of Gottlieb Hunt to announce "Desert War is now!" while being covered in a painted message that also proclaimed the start of Desert War. The camp was divided into two excellent teams: the Orange led by coaches Josh Singer, Chris Moriarty, and Joe McKinnon and the Green led by Thibaut Rochette, Doug Spink, and Neal Zucker.

This first event of Desert War, Color Rush, started off slowly, but was filled with intensity once the Green team snagged two games in a row, and the Orange team had to make a mad dash for the balls in the remaining minutes of the morning activity. By lunch, the Green led by seventy five points.

In the afternoon the seniors were separated from the intermediates and the juniors in order to compete in the revamped Ironman. The new Ironman consists of a swimming portion, a cycling portion, and a running portion. All of the seniors were ready to compete and familiar with the new course after a week's worth of training during waterfront activities. Each competitor was eager to beat his and his opponents' times from the trial runs. Most of the trial times were shattered during the Desert War Ironman. This year was also the first year that extra points were awarded to the top ten finishers, in addition to the points awarded to the team that had all participants finish the race first. The Orange finished the Ironman first, but the Green stayed close by achieving a majority of the top ten times.

While the Seniors were competing in the Ironman, the Intermediates and Juniors were battling in the first ever Desert War Westendo, WEHC's high energy adaptation of the board game Stratego played on the soccer field. The competitors were able to fit twelve games into the ninety minute time limit, and Orange was able to walk away with ten victories. By dinner, the Orange led by 61 points. An impressive comeback!

The evening activity, filled with all of the excitement and energy anyone could hope for, was West End Capture the Flag. In an incredible effort by both teams, and many amazing runs by individual campers, Desert War remained in reach to both teams until the final, deciding moments. With only twelve minutes left in Desert War, the Green team trailed by only one point, but the Orange won the last few games to ensure their victory.

The announcement of the Orange team's victory was followed by a new Desert War tradition. The entire team ran down to the starting point of the new Ironman, by the tennis court, at Desert War Rock. This rock had been painted half orange and half green at the beginning of the war, and the Orange team got the honor of painting the entire rock orange, and it will remain so until next Desert War.

What Was Your Favorite Desert War Moment?

Jay Mastrangelo was running to get a ball at the Auxiliary during Color Rush when he ran behind the 5's and jumped onto the auxiliary porch, ran across it, then leaped off the porch, but before he came down in the circle he got his flag pulled by Ben Robinson. It was sick. -Brandon Avergon

All of Color Rush was the best. -Jack Lesser

Raymond Wu was running back the Frisbee in a junior capture the flag game. He runs across the field, tiptoes around his own jail instead of freeing it, and then bolts to the middle line. Right before the line, with no defenders in sight, he raises his arms in triumph, but his flag falls out in the process. -Ben Yudsky

When Big Joe got really mad during Color Rush. It was funny. -Sam Eggert

Night Activities 2009

During Staff week, before the campers got up to camp, the staff had a contest to see who could come up with the best new Night Activity. From that contest emerged “Westendo,” “Murder Mystery” and “Crossfire.” It is safe to say that “Westendo” was the new hit of the summer as we turned the soccer field into a human version of the board game “Stratego.” Thanks to all of the staff who participated in this contest for coming up with ideas that will be used forever.

Desert War 2009

By Jason Cohen

This year's Desert War will go down as one of the greatest in history. The camp was filled with excitement from the very beginning until the final moments. The experience was started by two Gottleibers, Jacob Leppo and Marcus Tingling, running back in the last seconds of Gottlieb Hunt to announce "Desert War is now!" while being covered in a painted message that also proclaimed the start of Desert War. The camp was divided into two excellent teams: the Orange led by coaches Josh Singer, Chris Moriarty, and Joe McKinnon and the Green led by Thibaut Rochette, Doug Spink, and Neal Zucker.

This first event of Desert War, Color Rush, started off slowly, but was filled with intensity once the Green team snagged two games in a row, and the Orange team had to make a mad dash for the balls in the remaining minutes of the morning activity. By lunch, the Green led by seventy five points.

In the afternoon the seniors were separated from the intermediates and the juniors in order to compete in the revamped Ironman. The new Ironman consists of a swimming portion, a cycling portion, and a running portion. All of the seniors were ready to compete and familiar with the new course after a week's worth of training during waterfront activities. Each competitor was eager to beat his and his opponents' times from the trial runs. Most of the trial times were shattered during the Desert War Ironman. This year was also the first year that extra points were awarded to the top ten finishers, in addition to the points awarded to the team that had all participants finish the race first. The Orange finished the Ironman first, but the Green stayed close by achieving a majority of the top ten times.

While the seniors were competing in the Ironman, the intermediates and juniors were battling in the first ever Desert War West Endo, WEHC's high energy adaptation of the board game Stratego played on the soccer field. The competitors were able to fit twelve games into the ninety minute time limit, and Orange was able to walk away with ten victories. By Dinner, the Orange led by 61 points. An impressive comeback.

The evening activity, filled with all of the excitement and energy anyone could hope for, was West End Capture the Flag. In an incredible effort by both teams, and many amazing runs by individual campers, Desert War remained in reach to both teams until the final, deciding moments. With only twelve minutes left in Desert War, the Green team trailed by only one point, but the Orange won the last few games to ensure their victory.

The announcement of the Orange team's victory was followed by a new Desert War tradition. The entire team ran down to the starting point of the new Ironman, by the tennis court, at Desert War Rock. This rock had been painted half orange and half green at the beginning of the war, and the Orange team got the honor of painting the entire rock orange, and it will remain so until next Desert War.

Ironman 2009

The Ironman got a huge facelift in 2009. The course was changed to start off at the tennis courts at “Desert War Rock.” The participants had to swim from the tennis courts to the Old Timers Dock, dry off, run to the entrance and grab a bike. Then they had to bike to the red house on the way to Route 5, come back and run up the path to the softball fields. After running 2 laps the Ironmen would run down the road, into lower camp and end at the rock in which they started. This year, the individual winner of the Ironman received an extra 10 Desert War points for his team, 2nd place received 9 all the way down to 10th place which received 1 point for his team. Also, thanks to Rashad Cudjoe’s artistic ability, we are now going to keep track of the all time best Ironman times. So, all of this year’s Top 10 are on the board, but as years go by it will be increasingly more difficult to get on the “West End’s Ironmen” plaque.

Color War 2009

By Ryan Wilensky

The 2009 Color War was one of the closest and most competitive of all time. First off, Color War started at 9:55 AM on Wednesday, August 12. From the beginning, Jason Cohen and I wanted to start Color War in a way that had never been done before. So, the seniors were playing 2 Volleyball games and the Intermediates and Juniors were all sitting at the Green Path probably never thinking that Color War could start. After a couple of loud noises were made, I came out of the Rec Hall with a sign that said "Color War is Now" draped off the back porch. Jason Cohen and Mike Kirsten were pretending to hang out on the Bongo and held up a sign at the exact same time. The campers were shocked and ran up to the Big Diamond.

This Color War had the Blue Savages (tribal warriors) facing off against the White Disturbed (crazy clowns). The Blue was lead by Night Activity Director, Brandon Avergon, and captains Eric Lesser, Jose Noyola, and Vincent Leppo. The White was led by Waterfront Director Mark Sands, and captains Roque Reyes, Zach Leppo, and Kyle Hood.

This Color War will be remembered for an incredible start by the White Team, an incredible comeback by the Blue, and an incredible Song Night in which the Blue Team was trying to hang on to a slim lead. The White Disturbed jumped out to a 244-120 lead after Day 2. This performance was so dominating that Jason and I were wondering what we did wrong as "Runners." But the Blue showed tremendous spirit on Swim and Track Day and cut the deficit to 43 after Day 3. After a 4-2 Blue split in the morning and a huge sweep of the Omelet games in the afternoon, Blue went into Day 5 with a 6 point lead. After splitting the morning games, Blue walked into Song Night up 6. It was clear from the start of Song Night that both teams were well prepared. However, the White Team had great Song Night performances by Jeremy Zucker and their skit members, including Ben Robinson and Joey Cohen and won Song Night by 14 to win Color War 560 to 553.

Some memorable individual performances in this Color War included the following:

- Jon Dunlap as a Low Senior was probably the best swimmer in camp.
- Mitch Lesser hitting a miracle 3-pointer to send the Intermediate Hoop game into OT.
- Gabe Sands 3 home runs in High Junior Kickball.
- Mike Katzen dominating on the line in Intermediate Football.
- Andrew Mastrangelo edging out Jack Lesser by 1 foot in the Steeple Chase.
- Andrew Mastrangelo hitting the roof on the first try in the Apache Relay' wiffle ball event.
- Ian Finn with 1 arm in a cast being the best Soccer player in his division, coming in 2nd in the Distance, and having the best time in the dash of any non-High Senior.
- Jacob Sands so narrowly beating Vincent Leppo in the Dash that I am still not sure who won.
- Josue Seoane, Jacob Leppo, and Aidan Driscoll fighting neck and neck in the HS Distance (ultimately won by Josue).
- Alex Romantz dominating all around performance, leading his division to a 6-0 record.
- Jarrid McElligot dropping 31 points in High Senior hoop in a huge upset for the 5-1 White High Seniors.
- Yasmo making 3 huge saves as the soccer goalie in the Junior Apache Relay.
- Anthony Shea dominating the Low Juniors with huge Newcomb and Softball games.
- Ari Mayhew scoring 2 goals in Low Junior Soccer.
- Zach Leppo tiptoeing the line for a 50 yard TD score in HS Football.
- The White team coming back and winning Middle Senior Basketball on the last morning, keeping the Blue from adding to their 6 point overall lead. This game gave the White team a legitimate chance of winning Color War. MoMo and Corey White stepped up in a big way.

Team Accomplishments

- White sweeping the Tugs
- White winning 5-0-1 on the morning of Day 2
- White having 5 coaches that won their splits
- Blue sweeping the Tennis
- Blue sweeping the Omelets thanks to 2 huge catches by Brendan Wolfe
- Blue making the biggest comeback that anyone can remember (125 points)

BLUE SAVAGE

One Way or Another- Blondie

One way or another, we're gonna find ya
We're gonna, get ya, get ya, get ya, get ya
One way or another, we're gonna beat ya
We're gonna beat ya, beat ya, beat ya, beat ya
One way or another, we're gonna find ya
We're gonna, get ya, get ya, get ya, get ya
One game, maybe next game
You're gonna fall down, and worship, and worship

Sa-vage top of the plaque
Dis-turbed under attack
White team can't take the heat
Sa-vage cannot be beat

[Repeat All]

Cold as Ice- Foreigner

We're as cold as ice
We're going to sacrifice the white
They're gonna pay the price
This is their final night

We know
We've seen it before
It happens all the time
We've taken the war
And left the white behind

We've beaten them down
They're floating away
As they are drown-ing
They just hear us say...

Better Days- Goo Goo Dolls (Alma Mater)

And you asked me what I want this year
And I try to make this kind and clear
Just a chance that maybe we'll come back again
'Cause I don't need boxes wrapped in strings
And designer love and empty things
Just a chance that maybe we'll come back again

So take these words and sing out loud
'Cause everyone will be forced to cry
'Cause tonight's the night we finally say goodbye

I need some place simple where we can live
And something only West End gives
And that's faith and trust and peace while we're alive
And the friends we've come to know and love
And there's ten million more we probably could
If we all just spent our summer here again

[Chorus]

I wish everyone was loved tonight
And somehow stop this endless fight
Just a chance that maybe we'll come back again

[Chorus; last line 2X]

Cheer Medley

Welcome to the Savage where our players play,
And we run over white like everyday,
Disturbed on the run, see Savage roamin',
White team afraid they won't see the next morning.

Blue Savage ain't nothing to mess with! [4X]

No where to run to,
No where to hide,
Team from the other side,
Savage Worldwide.

Now throw your hands in the ay-er,
And wave 'em like you just don't cay-er,
And if you wanna beat the white, we win the war tonight
Everybody let me hear you say oh yay-er

We came to get down,
We came to get down,
So get out ya seat and jump around,
Jump! Jump! Jump Around! [2x]

Gotta Be- Des'ree

We wake up and our day unfolds
Talent that the white can't hold
All disturbed can do is watch and cry
Savage has no time for tears
Disturbed is filled with doubt and fear
A blue plaque's on the wall and white just wonders why

You gotta be
You gotta be bad, you gotta be bold, you gotta be wiser
You gotta be hard, you gotta be tough, you gotta be stronger
You gotta be cool, you gotta be calm, you gotta stick together
All I know, all I know, is blue will win the war

Winning every game and split
Those stupid clowns can't handle it
We've taken over the war
Now it's savage time

Some question the strength of blue
Something that you shouldn't do
Blue Sa-vage, Hey, Hey, Hey

[Chorus]

House of the Rising Sun- The Animals

There is a place way down by the lake
They call the savage land
And it's been the ruin of many a poor team
And white they know they're one

The only thing a savage needs
Is a sharp-ened stick, and a club
And the only time he's satisfied
Is when he's on the hunt

White coaches tell your children
Not to wander off at night
Or spend your life in misery
'cause blue has won the fight

We're going down the water-front
To toast our vic-tory
With roar-ing flames and roast-ing meat
Back in the sa-vage land

[Chorus]

WHITE DISTURBED

Bad- Michael Jackson
The war is white's
It feels so right
Don't show your faces
In broad daylight

We're telling you
Just how we feel
We're out of our minds
And we shoot to kill

Chorus:

They say the sky's the limit
And for us that's really true
But my friends you have seen nothing
Just wait 'til we get through

Because we're mad!
Yeah we're mad!           X2
We're completely mad!

The word is out
They're doing wrong
Gonna shut blue up
Before too long

We're telling you
What we're about
This is our game
So shut your mouths

Chorus X2

Disturbia- Rihanna

4x: Bom Bom Bidom, Bom Bom Bidom Bom

No more hearts in their chest, can't even talk about us
Nothing heard, nothing said, can't even think about us
On blue's life, on blue's head, they want to cry about us
Seems like we're going insane, yea

Chorus:
We will creep through the night and come and grab you
We will creep up to you and consume you
A disease in the mind, we will control you
This is Disturb's war now

Stop telling lies, you're in white's game of wonder
Ain't gon' play nice, blue is gonna go under
Better think twice, their game plan will be altered
So If you must falter be wise

Blue's mind's in disturbia, in their dreams they see the white
Disturbia, is white scaring blue tonight?
Disturbia, ain't used to what they like
Disturbia, Disturbia

x4 Bom Bom Bidom, Bom Bom Bidom Bom

Faded blue plaques on the wall, the white is taking over
Watching the Blue Savage fall, Disturbed is watching them break
They better get out, and give us this war now
Dis-turbed is a monster, oh

[Chorus]

x4 Bom Bom Bidom, Bom Bom Bidom Bom

Mad World- Gary Jules (Alma Mater)

All around us are smiling faces
Familiar places, familiar faces
It's bright and early, and we love what we see
Don't make us leave, Don't makes us leave

Chorus:

And we find it kind of funny
It makes us kind of sad
The dreams of us at West End
Are the best we've ever had
We find it hard to tell you
It always makes us weep
The thought of leaving West End in just under a week
West End, West End

We're always waiting for the day we feel best
The first day of camp, first day of camp
We can't believe that it's already over
Can it go on, can it go on

[Chorus]

We will always have the spirit within us
We won't let it leave us, the spirit will never die
A year from now we'll have smiling faces
Familiar places, familiar faces

[Chorus]

Teenagers –My Chemical Romance

We're gonna beat up the blue
there's nothing savage can do

disturbed is making a joke of you

Because we sleep with a gun
And make sure this war is won
so we can break all their spirits too.

Because their plans never work
And we just give them a smirk
And we got methods to make you scream

Were gonna rip off your heads
Your aspirations to shreds
Another team in the disturbed machine

You say that disturbed just scares the living hell out of me

But we could care less as long as savage'll bleed
We darken our clothes and strike a violent pose
We'll never leave you alone so you'll see

The savage just make us sick
The awful name that you picked
The savage is just way to timid

You are too troubled and hurt
blue just gets buried in dirt
We'll make you pay for the things that you did

Chorus

There is no room on the plaque
With all the talent you lack
Blue doesn't make the right cut for fame

You try to get in first place
But we just laugh in your face
Cuz at the top there is only one name

Chorus X2

I'll Make a Man Out of You- Mulan

Let's get down to business
To defeat savage
Their team is getting slaughtered
They're below average

They're the saddest bunch we've ever met
And you can bet before we're through
The white team will make fools out of blue

Tears are streaming down them
But we only show grins
We'll continue to pound them
'Til they announce white wins

They're a prideless, pale, pathetic lot
And they haven't got a clue
The white team will make fools out of blue

*I'm never gonna catch my breath
Say goodbye to those who knew me
Boy, was I a fool for trying to win
The white's got me scared to death
I know they can see right through me
Even divine miracles can't get blue a win*

(White will win) The blue team knows that this war is over
(Blue will cry) This war was finished before it started
(Now it's done) Disturbed will be forever remembered
Consider yourselves beaten by the clowns

Time is racing towards them
Until the scores arrive
Clowns are getting stronger
And blue won't survive

We're prepared to face the rage of war
And we know just what to do
The white team will make fools out of blue
[Chorus]

Cheer Medley

W.H.I.T.E.
x2 Savages will die
D.I.S.T.U.R.B.
And they're about to cry

We feel irrational
So confrontational
To tell the truth, disturbed is getting away with murder
It is impossible
To even save the blue
Cuz in reality, white's getting away with murder

X6 Getting Away

Blue's going right down baby right down
When they see clowns when they see white clowns X2

White riot
2X We want a riot
White riot
Beat the blue

Sometimes white comes around
X2 And we knock blue down
Don't get back up
Cuz we'll knock blue down

HOUSE SONG

The West End House Camp song we sing today was composed by Al Sherman around 1946; it was first heard at a West End House Show & Dance at the Statler Ballroom in Boston.

Hundreds of hearts that beat as one
Grateful for all the House has done
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

When you're one of the boys
You're always one of the boys
And here's one thing you'll do –
You'll always go through
You'll always go through
You'll always go through . . . . .

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

RIP RIP RIP RAP RAP RAP WEST END HOUSE (clap clap clap) WEST END HOUSE (clap clap clap) YEAH!
