4TH OF JULY TRACK MEET

Under the capable supervision of Andy Alessi, the annual West End House Camp 4th. of July Track Meet was held last Saturday. Boys were divided into three groups for the various contests: ten- and eleven year olds, twelve and thirteen year olds, and fourteen year olds. The general swim which followed the Meet was well earned and much enjoyed by all. Thanks to Andy for his fine job.

SIDELIGHTS:

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

1. What is Barry Goldwater's middle name?
2. What is the official language of the Phillipines?

Malcolm Alter's mattress is on the rampage again.

Andy Alessi has been picked National Cowboy of the Week by the Rodeo Writers of America because of the latest addition to his wardrobe.

Gary Slabine and Bob Cohen, both of 5A, received money from the good fairy when they lost their teeth (one tooth each, that is).

BASKETBALL

This week saw a lot of activity by the various West End House Camp basketball teams. The four home games were won by us, while the two away games ended in defeat. Congratulations to all the boys and coaches for games well played.

On Sunday, July 5, the scheduled baseball game with Kezar Falls was changed into a basketball game in which WEHC C-I-T's came out the victors in double overtime. Joel Goober and Tony Alessi played for Kezar.

WEHC J. C.'s vs. ROBIN HOOD J. C.'s

A mighty House Staff took on the J. C.'s of Robin Hood. In an exciting game, the adversary bowed to us by a score of 62 - 56.

Steve Rubin	29	Elliot	35
Pete Gordon	16	Day	25
J. Holtzman	13	V. Mouradian	10

					WEHC	- 46

The annual Fourth of July Apache Relay was held last week, and thanks and congratulations are certainly in order for the C-I-T's who coached the eight teams. Thanks to Chief Andy Alessi for his fine organization, and a pat on the back to the winners, Jerry Katz and Joel Goober.

BASEBALL

Our Junior Varsity Baseball Team took on the mighty Kezar Falls Little League All-Stars on Saturday, July 11, before a crowd of thousands. Our boys, not the least daunted by the hostile crowd, came through to sew up a 7 - 5 "winning victory." The stars of the six inning game were Howie Tuch on the batting end, while Joel Saperstein struck out five in the last two innings in his relief stint. The lineup looked as follows:

Billy Swiecicki	p	Dick Sharpstein	c	Richie Eskin	ss
Aldo Ghisalbert	p	Bob Charlton	c	Richie Aron	rf
Joel Saperstein	p - cf	Cary Richards	2b	Jamie Hauer	lf

WHITE TEAM SONGS

BENEATH THE PINES

Beneath the Pines of West End House Camp
We were beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.
Beneath the Pines of West End House Camp
We were beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.

Oh, we were beating the Blues, the Blues, the Blues,
Beating the Blues, the Blues, the Blues,
Beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.
Beneath the Pines of West End House Camp
We were beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.

Oh, we were steep't in the tradition of a glory covered past,
We White Team men now march again with courage firm and fast.
Our color is the sparkling White beneath a shining sun-
And we'll be true, we'll fight for you until the vict'ry's won.

Oh, as we go marching
Hear the song we sing with pride for you.
Oh, West End House Camp White Team
Our love for you shall ever stronger grow.

Beneath the Pines of West End House Camp
We were beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.
Beneath the Pines of West End House Camp
We were beating the Blues and urging the Whites along.

FORWARD THE WHITE

Oh, Defenders of the White
'Mid the tumult of the fight
Do you hear the measured tramp of marching?
Do you hear the thund'rous roar
Like the surf upon the shore
Of our mighty team that cannot know defeat?
Do you hear our crashing song
As we proudly march along?
Do you hear the ringing message that we send?
As the waves of battle roll
We are with you heart and soul-
And we'll follow, follow, follow to the end.....

Forward the White,
On through the fight:
Emblem of honor
Fearless and bright.
Through stress and strain
Peril and pain
Borne to the end with ne'er a stain. RAH! RAH! RAH!
Loyal and true,
Always to you:
Each White Team member will dare, will do.
Vict'ry's fair light,
Ever in sight.
White Team will triumph-
Forward the White. HEY!

BRIGHT SKIES

When bright skies were o'er us
And life lay before us,
To West End House
We gathered far and near.
So pledging to be fair
And win Color Warfare
We all set out
To play for White Team Dear.

CHORUS

So it's BEAT - BLUE
BEAT THE BLUE.
Smash 'em into splinters
When you're done.
White Team is better,
We all work together-
There is no greater teamwork
'Neath the sun.

When manhood has found us
RAH! /And children surround us,
Our White Team days and friends
We'll still recall.
With heartfelt emotion
And deathless devotion
We know our great White Team
Can never fall.

CHORUS
