2002 SPIRIT

DEDICATION

When the West End House first opened its doors in Allston on Monday, October 4, 1971, one of the first youngsters to join was Brian Honan. He had turned eight years of age the previous April, and like hundreds of other children in the area was excited about this brand new facility that had moved from the old West End of Boston and was about to offer superb programs for the neighborhood kids.

Brian remained a member all of his life; over the next three decades he became a shining example of everything we knew youth could become. His smile, his personality, his devotion to family and friends, his willingness to help and to be there for those who needed assistance – this was as evident to us in 1971 as it was in 2002. He never wavered from his goals, whether it was as a kid to score points for the WEH Basketball Team, as an adolescent to volunteer to referee basketball games, or as an adult to return to the gym to score baskets to raise money for the WEH Boys & Girls Club in the Annual Basketball Shoot-Out Fundraiser.

In 1995 Brian was elected to the Boston City Council, representing his beloved Allston-Brighton neighborhood. Although he was at home wherever he went (from City Council Chambers to the State House to neighborhood businesses and institutions), whenever he came into the West End House you knew that with the exception of his family's house around the corner he really was at home.

Brian Honan had visited camp many times, and through his efforts as a youth member, alumnus, City Councillor, and member of the West End House Board of Directors, advocated for our organization with a devotion, loyalty, and personal feeling that came from having experienced West End House to the fullest.

On July 30, 2002 Brian Honan, who had been campaigning for the office of District Attorney of Suffolk County, Massachusetts, died in the hospital of complications from cancer surgery. He was 39 years of age.

In loving tribute to this remarkable, energetic man, to the many lives he touched during his young lifetime, and to his steadfast support of the West End House and all that it stands for, the 2002 Spirit is respectfully and humbly dedicated to

BRIAN J. HONAN

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There are many people whose assistance during the off season is invaluable to us. We would like to acknowledge the following individuals and institutions that contributed to the success of the season:

·Members of the Camp Corporation, who oversee the operation and whose committees have been meeting regularly to ensure that WEH Camp is the very best it can possibly be. Special thanks to President Marty Jacobs and Immediate Past President Henry Barr for their extraordinary efforts.

·The Camp Breakfast is always a great time, and Bert Wynn ensures success by providing a huge number of raffle prizes for the children. The Breakfast is always planned around the schedule of Bert and his wife, Esther. We could not do it without them!

·Bobby ("Tank") Sherman – thank you for your generosity each summer in supplying the staff shirts. They are quality shirts that have added to the quality of the camp operation.

·Jeff Kublin – our gratitude for arranging for daily delivery of the Boston Herald, USA Today, and the Boston Globe (whose sports pages usually disappeared three minutes after the arrival of the mail) and for the weekly package of Sports Illustrated and other magazines. They were nice additions to the Library and the lunchtime reading in the dining hall.

·Tony Goroshko drove the rented supply truck round trip on staff opening day in June, and picked up excess luggage in his own truck on the last camp day in August. He truly deserves the Alumni Unsung Hero Award!

·Frank Moy, Jr., Director of Community Relations for Brighton's St. Elizabeth's Medical Center of Boston, makes sure that our infirmary is well stocked each summer with medical supplies. Our deepest gratitude to Frank and to the hospital.

·Brigitte Paine and the fine folks at Franciscan Children's Hospital in Brighton – we thank you for the use of your parking lot for bus departures and arrivals. It is an ideal meeting space!

·Sincere gratitude to the staff at the West End House Boys & Girls Club, especially Executive Director Andrea Howard, Associate Director Alex Danesco, and Director of Support Services, Karen Cyr, for their support and assistance throughout the year.

THANK YOU

... to Eric Morris and Zach Kublin for coordinating many of the articles and items in this year's Spirit; to Aaron Leppo (Full Line Graphics) for arranging the printing of this yearbook; and to all the contributors who made this publication a memorable chronicle of the exciting days of West End House Camp 2002!

ABOUT THE COVER

When West End House was founded in 1908 by James J. Storrow, there was one wooden structure (which served as a dining hall, food storage area, and nighttime recreation room). The building was known as "the Wildmere," named after Camp Wildmere, which had operated through 1907 on the site for at least a dozen years previously. Although the name "West End Camp" is shown on the building in the picture, it was actually put onto the photo after the name Wildmere was blotted out. It was never on the building itself. The Wildmere building remained until the 1920's and can be seen in many early photographs hanging in the dining hall.

The aerial photo was taken in the 1970's. We are looking to take another, better aerial photo this coming summer.

West End House Camp remains one of the most modern and best maintained facilities of its kind in the country – a far cry from the early days of drawing drinking water from the well, walking a half mile to the ballfield (well beyond Kennard's), and living without running water, electricity, and, indeed, radio, television, first bell, and the loudspeaker system!

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

This message is being written on December 31, 2002 as the last piece of the 2002 Spirit. Doing this so long after the end of last season allows me to look back and to look forward with a clear sense of the success of the past and the potential of the future.

2002 was a great year – we had a large enrollment (special thanks to Steve Lepler for ensuring that), excellent equipment (gratitude to Brett Barenholtz and Steve Curley), a really great, qualified, veteran, and trained staff, and a Camp Corporation President, Henry Barr, whose guidance, wisdom, and friendship have made the whole thing come together each year. Marty Jacobs, elected President at the end of August, has already proven himself to be a most able successor to Henry.

Thanks to everyone who made the past season so enjoyable and rewarding. Special appreciation to Steve Lepler; in his fourth season as Assistant Executive Director, he continued to increase the numbers of campers, to improve the already excellent quality of programming, to work closely in all aspects of the operation, and to relieve me of many tasks. It is a real pleasure to work with Steve; camp is a much better place with him on board! He is a tireless worker 52 weeks a year for West End House Camp!

The staff was excellent; many of 2001's counselors returned and the senior staff was truly great. Danny (Dooba) Barr did an excellent job as Program Director (thank you, thank you, thank you!), always willing to assume more and more responsibility, taking his job very seriously, and eagerly looking forward to 2003. Many thanks to all the staff who pulled together to ensure the success of the season. With two Red Cross certified Water Safety Instructors (Seth Thomases and Drew Thomases), three Red Cross certified lifeguards (Marc Balmazi, Jeffrey Berger, Alex Ingard), certified archery instructor Calvin Rodman, veterans like Aaron Englander, Mike Gordon, Lee Perryman, Jason Kublin, Jed Friedman, Mike Stawowy, Harris Friess, and Evan Lepler, and new senior counselors Dean Owens, Michael Kuta, Tom Sargent, and Zach Tucker we had a strong, well trained Senior Staff and other personnel.

My gratitude to our camp nurse, Christine LeTourneau, for her very diligent efforts and sincere concern for the wellbeing of the campers. She truly cared about each child, and she took her job very seriously. We are tremendously grateful for the volunteer efforts of Virginia Smith, also a registered nurse, who visited camp once a week to fill in for Christine. Thank you, Virginia, and family!!!

We had a crew of young cooks in the kitchen, and thanks to the changes in the menus as formulated by the Camp Food Committee, chaired by Jeff Kublin, this turned out to be a super year for quality meals! Even the counselors were pleased! When the State of Maine's Department of Human Services inspector came for his annual surprise visit to look at the kitchen, infirmary, waterfront and other areas, we were delighted that for the first time in history we received a mark of 100%!

Norman Scott – what can I say about him? He is the key that keeps the camp running, day and night, rain or shine, and is there for us all year. I truly believe that the most important job in our organization is that of the custodian, and Norm is the best! His wisdom, warmth, talents, and personality are unbeatable. Much thanks to his wife, Joan, for her most able assistance during the year.

I want to thank Ramie Lepler for her invaluable help during the summer – she was always ready, able, and willing to lend a helping hand and to assist in so many ways. Much appreciated, Ramie! You are a most valuable part of the team.

I am especially pleased to offer my appreciation to my wife, Bryna. Her volunteer efforts running the canteen, setting up and maintaining the camp library, keeping track of the campers' spending money, picking up supplies, tutoring, helping in the infirmary, and performing many other tasks were invaluable.

As you read this, the January 12th Camp Breakfast has ended. Enrollment thus far has been excellent – so if you have not signed up yet, I urge you not to be left out. Plan ahead – be accepted to camp, don't wait too long and then find yourself "excepted" from camp.

Best wishes to all of you. Although the cold and snow and ice may be with us now, it will not be that long before we will again be embarking from the buses on Opening Day, kayaking in the waters of Long Pond, shooting hoops in the gym, and lining up in the Council Ring (perhaps on time this year?) for breakfast.

Bill Margolin

MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It is Saturday afternoon, August 17th, another beautiful, sunny, 90 degree day. I am drip-drying on my cabin porch after a refreshing dip in Long Pond. This swim followed my annual post camp hike, a relaxing three mile stroll around the perimeter of the lake. I have been reflecting upon the 2002 West End House camp season, and I have many thoughts and emotions.

This has been a full, active, fun summer that ranks with some of our all time best. The spirit, energy, and camaraderie that existed among the campers and staff still echo, even though you are no longer here. I shut my eyes and see the entire camp in the Council Ring during the closing night ceremonies. I hear the heartfelt rendition of the House Song, and a few tears begin to trickle. I realize how lucky we all are to be part of the West End House Camp family.

I have seen 238 boys, the largest number ever, enjoy the many activities that we offer, and trying their best. Watching you mature and improve each day, each week, and each month is the most rewarding aspect of my job. I know that this will continue, and will encourage you to return to your summer home at West End House Camp in 2003.

This year's staff was truly outstanding. Not only was it large, but it was also very experienced and talented. As usual, most of our staff consisted of former campers who have earned their movement up the ladder. They have helped campers as they themselves had been mentored in their earlier years. Special mention and thanks go out to Danny Barr, Program Director, who ensured that the schedule and all of the activities went smoothly; to Seth Thomases, Waterfront Director, who ran an active, varied, and safe waterfront; to Jed Friedman and Evan Lepler, the Senior and Junior League Commissioners, respectively, who organized a very successful sports program filled with fun, friendly competitions; to Michael Gordon, Intercamp Sports Director, who developed our busiest, winningest, and most diverse intercamp sports schedule in recent years. In addition, the camp would not have been the same without the exceptional efforts of the talented and committed Senior Counselors Lee Perryman, Aaron Englander, Jason Kublin, Mike Stawowy, Dean Owens, Tom Sergeant, Mike Kuta, and Zack Tucker. The contributions of Drew Thomases, Harris Friess, and Marc Balmazi were also vital to the camp's success. Sincere thanks go out to them and to the entire staff.

As the summer turns into fall, Bill and I will be planning how to build the successes of 2002 to make 2003 as good - and even better. The continuity of fun and friendships amongst campers and staff, as well as continued emphasis on maturity, responsibility, and the development of character as boys move toward adolescents and adulthood will remain the highest priority.

In closing, one of the most touching moments of the summer was the spontaneous and well deserved standing ovation that Bill received from all assembled in the Council Ring on the last night of camp. NO one works harder, longer, and with more skill than Bill. West End House Camp would not be the same without him. I feel privileged to be able to provide a small amount of assistance to him and to the camp.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the Breakfast. I hope to be in contact with many of you much sooner as we all gear up for the best summer yet - West End House Camp 2003!

With best wishes and regards -

Steve Lepler, Assistant Executive Director

MESSAGE FROM THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

On July 6, 1991 I boarded a bus heading to West End House Camp for my first time as a camper with the only other boy I knew, Mike Gordon. We sat together for the two and a half hour ride - excited, yet extremely anxious as to what was to come once we stepped off the bus into the unknown. Who would have known then that twelve years later, we would be senior counselors together after rising up through the ranks as staff? We were the last staff remaining in Boston as the campers of 2002 were picked up at the bus stop this past August. The memories of that day in 1991, as an 8 year old, flashed through my mind. The career and experiences I have had at West End House Camp provided me with a lifetime full of memories already, growth as an individual, and many friends forever.

West End is a place that provides so much for so many people. The staff I had throughout my 6 years as a camper made me want to give back to the camp because they gave so much to me. West End is not just an 8-week summer, but also rather something that continues on for life inside of everyone. The friends made are truly friends for life, both at camp and over the winter months, no matter the age differential between campers or counselors alike.

I would like to take the time now to talk about two very important members of the staff the past 6 years, and two guys who are directly responsible for helping keep the West End tradition alive and well. For those of you who got a chance to get to know Mike Gordon and Aaron Englander over the summers, you got to meet two guys who meant a lot to the running of the camp and a lot to us all. Members of my "crew", together since the early 90's, these guys came to camp every year, truly loving the place and ready to give everything they had. Whether it be taking campers on an overnight across the lake, making the bonfire a success for the campers, spending 8 hours painting the Desert War field, coaching numerous intercamp teams, running night activities, being a role model that campers feel comfortable talking to if in need of help, or even just hanging out with their bunk and having these big hit dance parties with the eight and nine year olds in the counselor room, Mike and Aaron were always in it for the campers. Mike and Aaron will not be with us next summer. From all of us on the staff, and on behalf of the campers, thank you guys for everything. You will be missed, but you guys did so much already to benefit the camp, thank you so much

I personally will be back for the summer of 2003, and I look forward to another solid eight weeks. There are some changes with the programming for this coming summer that I have been working on to ensure we continue to improve as a camp.

As always, I wish you all the best of luck with school, enjoy your year, and before you know it June 22nd will be here. Keep in touch with each other, and try to get your friends to sign up to come along with you. It's gonna be a good one!

Your friend.

MESSAGE FROM THE WATERFRONT DIRECTOR

The summer of 2002 was truly a great summer at the waterfront. First of all, let me say that it would not have been as successful were it not for all the experienced and focused help of several individuals. The waterfront was fortunate to have two certified Red Cross Water Safety instructors – my brother, Drew, and me. Without Drew's assistance, my job would have been a lot more difficult than it actually was.

I especially want to thank the other certified lifeguards who helped keep the waterfront safe: Jeffrey Berger, my third in command and the Unsung Hero, and Marc Balmazi, Michael Jacobs, and Alex Ingard. From waterskiing to banana boating to sailing to kayaking to tennis and archery, I can only hope the campers had as much fun as I did.

Despite just a few cloudy or rainy days, the sun always beat down hard on the campers, but the waters of Long pond were always there to cool us down.

This being my ninth and last summer at West End, I just want to wish everyone that made my time here unforgettable a sincere farewell. Thank you, and let us all hope that the sun never sets n Long Pond!

- Seth Thomases

MESSAGE FROM ARTS & CRAFTS DIRECTOR

2002 is already over, and once again we had a great, fun-filled summer. This summer key chains and "Mommy I Miss You" gifts were popular, and array of Visiting Day presents were also popular in Wonderland.

As always, there are bigger and better plans in store for next season. Not making any promises to be able to return for a complete season next year (I am now in the Army), I do plan to leave a "1 – 2 – 3 to Fun" in Wonderland for next year's Arts & Crafts Director, and I encourage people to send in via email (webhgclub@al.com) requests and ideas for the 2003 season.

Take care – thanks for a great summer!

- Lee Perryman

MESSAGE FROM THE TENNIS DIRECTOR

For the first time in awhile there was an organized tennis program at camp, which was very popular. Although I was at first unsure of ultimate success when I first started out, I was pleasantly surprised that so many campers were happy that this program would be off and running. From the start of camp I rarely saw the courts empty, and once I began teaching lessons during waterfront activity scheduling I saw much improvement in almost all of the campers who put in the effort.

Steve Lepler and I put together a very packed Camper-Counselor Tournament that ran very smoothly. Everyone who took part in it had a fun time.

Also, for the first time in about 15 years we (Tom Sargent, Deans Owens, and I) put together a 13 and under Tennis Team. Over 30 campers tried out, and we were able to take nine of them to Robin Hood for a match. I have to admit that since Robin Hood had been doing this kind of thing for many years, I thought we were going to be crushed. Happily, though, we worked very hard and came away with a 4 – 2 victory!

2002 was a great year for tennis, and hopefully this program will be just as productive in the future.

-Alex Ingard

CAMPER-COUNSELOR TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The 2002 Camper-Counselor Tournament was a competitive and fun event that began during Week 3 and ended on the last night of camp. From the number one seeded team of Sam Finn and Harris Friess to the number forty-one seeded team of Stanley Saintil and Seth Friedman, a large number of people participated. Highlights of this year's tournament included Jesse Charney-Golden and Bill Margolin advancing to the second round for the second consecutive year, and the presence of three brother combinations: Gibbs, Kublin, and Goldstein.

When all was said and done, the champions were Bernie McTernan and Brian Handell, who defeated James Adams and Evan Lepler in a closely contested match.

Congratulations to Bernie and Brian, as well as to all who took part.

JUNIOR LEAGUES

Thanks to the sincere efforts of all the coaches, athletes, and referees, the summer of 2002 saw a very successful Junior League season. During the first two weeks, six teams (named in honor of the U.S. World Cup Soccer Team) competed and battled until the Donovans and O'Briens clinched their ways into the championship game. Led by Stanley Saintil and Jake Tucker, the Donovans captured the Junior League Championship crown by defeating the O'Briens 14 – 7 in kickball. Other solid athletes the first two weeks included Justin Fitzpatrick, Zach Siska, Dan D'Amelio, and Josh Latham.

In the second two week period (Steve Lepler T Shirt League), the Diehards, Three Stooges, Frank Perdues, and Cape Cod Capers all maintained strong campaigns. In the championship kickball game, the Cape Cod Capers, led by Andrew Solomon and Charles Markos, took home the title. Other accomplished athletes of the Steve Lepler T Shirt League included John Mitkevicius, Kendall Moses, Chris Moriarty, Matt Berkowitz, Ben Olins, and Nadav Mills.

The last four weeks began with the Camp Sayings League. The "OK, Thens" the "Hell Ya, Bears," the "Soups," and the "La Rones" all competed admirably until a little competition between Blue and White became more important. Alex Harris, Luke Goroshko, Matt Black, Julius Wright, Jesse Charney-Golden, and Ross O'Donoghue were all standout athletes of the final session.

Again, thanks to everyone for making the 2002 Junior Leagues a success.

-Evan Lepler
Junior League Commissioner

2002 SENIOR LEAGUE ROUND-UP

2002 saw some of the most exciting and competitive Senior Leagues I have ever been here for. During the first two weeks the Ghetto League (my inspiration!) saw the Fo Shizzle My Nizzles and the Playu Hatas captained, respectively, by Bernie McTernan and Jason Harris, pull away early from the pack and meet in the championship game. In a well played football game, the Playu Hatas took the crown the first two week period.

The second two week session featured the Mallrats League, inspired by fellow New Yorker and interim commissioner Lyle Friess. Unique to this session was the use of eight teams, which made for great variety of activities and active competition. The crown was won by the Lunch Boxes, co captained by Scott Picard and Andrew Babb. Thanks are due to many campers, including Matt Kaplan, Sammy Teplin, and Matt Gordon, for making this two week period so great.

The final four weeks saw the PSZ League, with the teams' names being popular video game titles. Although there was no championship game, the Metal Gear Solids, captained by Jordan Zullo with help from Nate Seiberling and David Rustin, finished on top.

I felt that Senior Leagues went well this year, and it was my privilege to run them. I could not have done this without the help of all the land staff, especially head refs like Mike Gordon, Harris Friess, Lyle Friess, as well as Evan Lepler. I also want to hank Danny Barr and Steve Lepler for their invaluable support – but most importantly, I want to express my thanks to al the campers.

-Jed Friedman
Senior League Commissioner

WATERMELON LEAGUE

West End House Camp's own unique brand of softball had its closest, most competitive, and most fun season in many years. At the end of the seven game regular season, there was a four way tie for first place at 4 – 3 among the Stawowys, the Perrymans, the Gordons, and the Leplers. There was also a four way tie at 3-4 for second (or last) place among the Thomases/Friedmans, the Englanders, the Barrs, and the Kublins.

In the playoffs, all teams started out anew with interesting results. The Kublins, Barrs, Gordons, and Leplers won their first round games and made it to the semi-finals. The two teams that started out the season the slowest (the Kublins and the Barrs) survived to make it to the finals.

The Watermelon Finals were a gala event, with player introductions, the Star Spangled Banner being played by trumpeter Jonathan Baker, and the ceremonial first pitch being thrown by Bill Margolin. In a very close contest, the Kublins edged the Barrs, 3- 2, to take the playoff championships.

On the last night of camp, the Kublins and the four regular season champions (the Stawowys, the Perrymans, the Gordons, and the Leplers) all partook of the victory watermelon in the dining hall!

-Steve Lepler

SOCCER TOURNAMENT

On a blistering, hot, sunny day at the beginning of July, the West End House Camp 13 and under Soccer Team made the short trip across the border into New Hampshire for a well documented tournament at Camp Robin Hood.

Upon arrival at Robin Hood, our guys were keen to learn whom they were going to play. They quickly found out they would be placed in the group with Robin Hood green, Winaukee, and Indian Acres.

The first game would be against the host camp. After being psyched by both coaches (Drew Thomases and me - Tom Sargent), our guys went out and put on a very impressive show, winning 4-0. Sammy Teplin got the hat trick, and Mike Levine added insult to injury by getting the fourth goal.

After a long rest, Drew and I knew that our next game against Winaukee could be a potential final! This game did not go as planned, and we suffered a 4-0 loss to a tough opponent that passed the ball round well and deserved the win.

Our boys recuperated for the final group game and won, moving us gradually but smoothly to the quarter finals. The quarter final match-up was against Robin Hood green again. This game was much tougher than the previous one, but the boys pulled through. Sammy Teplin grabbed an early goal, and tough defensive play by Zach Kumin, Matt Black, Ben Brink, and Andrew Solomon helped WEH Camp progress to the semi-finals.

The semi-final game was against Tecumseh. We did not know much about this team, so Drew and I decided we would stick to the same tactics we used in previous games. What a game this turned out to be! It is safe to say it was the game of the tournament! At the end of regulation time the score was 2 – 2. Overtime saw no further goals scored, so we went into the penalty kick phase. It was a nail biting period of kicks – it took eight kicks from both teams before Andrew Solomon scored the decisive kick to win it for us. The finals now beckoned for our team, and the excitement grew!

The finals, as Drew and I had predicted, was against Winaukee. This time our guys were pumped up for the game after a special speech from Jason Kublin. Our guys put on a great display, losing 1 – 0, but creating opportunities to win the game.

Drew and I would like to thank all the players that took part in this great day of entertaining soccer that was filled overall by success!

-Tom Sargent

MESSAGE FROM THE INTERCAMP SPORTS DIRECTOR

2002 was the summer that marked a return to excellence for West End House Intercamp Sports. After a sub par record in 2001, this year's large and skilled Gottlieb/1A (along with some 1st and 2nd year CIT's) stepped into the spotlight and led a formidable return to Intercamp glory.

The season opened with a 20+ point victory over Camp Robin Hood in the annual 15 and under basketball "House Game." Yikes! West End rode the momentum from this win into the third week of camp when the 13 under hoop team took home the trophy from Robin Hood's basketball tournament, and the 15 and under team finished runner up in its division.

The 13 and under soccer team made a great run at Robin Hood's soccer tournament, losing in the finals.

Week 4 of camp marked the highlight of the 2002 Intercamp season, as West End won the Robin Hood 15 and under baseball tournament for the first time since 1996, beating a very tough Tecumseh team in the finals. Danny "Dooba" Barr worked extremely hard as head coach of the team, which surpassed everyone's expectations by taking home the trophy. Outstanding job, Daniel!

Those were just some of the Intercamp highlights from the summer. Of course, it is the campers who make Intercamp sports as successful as they are, so thanks to every one of you who put in your time and your hard work. Keep working hard, staying focused, and being gentlemen.

Thank you for another great summer.

Your friend,

Michael Gordon

INTERCAMP BASEBALL ROUNDUP

In my fourth year as head coach of the 13-under and 15-under baseball teams at WEHC, both squads had the best year of baseball camp has seen since the early 1990s. The summer "season" was capped off by bringing home the championship trophy at the annual 15-Under Robin Hood Tournament. Arguably the hardest and most competitive tourney WEHC participates in, we were able to do something that was done only one other time in the past seven years, and done only two other times in the past twelve years.

The practice began right away within the second day the campers arrived in June. This 13-under team battled through some of the hottest days of camp in the 1st two-week session, and still was very successful in their practices and preparation for their game against Robin Hood. Two to three practices a day with lots of baseball to be learned, I was extremely proud of these guys' efforts. Their desire to learn and improve their game was greatly appreciated, and a true testament to these kids' hard work.

The game was a very pleasing and convincing victory at home vs. RH. The pitching by Mike Knowles and Dave Cotugno was excellent, the defense was nearly flawless led by CF Ben "Johnny Damon" Brink, who had himself at least a half a dozen put outs. Jake Tucker behind the plate was solid as well as the youngest boy on the team, Dan D'Amelio did a good job at 2B. John Moriarty, Matt Kaplan and Jordan Shapiro led the offense with their timely hitting. Overall, it was truly a team effort, and I want to once again congratulate the players and thank them all for being part of the team.

After a loss to open the 15-under part of the summer at RH, I was concerned about the team's ability to field. Already not the strongest hitting team, we prided ourselves in our defense, and it failed us in the loss. Going back to practice, I continued to stress the fundamentals and pushed the guys to improve to match the level of play they will need to succeed with at the tournament. Whatever it was that sent the message to these guys, they responded, and they were ready to play.

We opened up at the tourney against a weaker Camp Cody team, but we made sure we took care of them early and played our game. The offense got off to a great start for the day, and we took care of them easily. Andrew Babb tossed the shutout, and batters one through nine all got at least one hit. The next game featured an always tough and big Winaukee team. Heading into the final inning of a 1-1 game and runners in scoring position with 2 outs, a ball dropping into left-center field was caught by Brian Handell in an unbelievable game saving, "web jem" play. We rallied in the bottom of the inning for a 2-1 victory. We got a chance to meet up with that Robin Hood team again in the semi-finals and easily took care of them this time, which took us to the finals vs. Tecumseh. A big team of recruited players was what we were up against, but our ace Tomas Farrell was up to the challenge pitching his best game ever. We took advantage of errors by their team, aggressive base running and solid defense to bring home the championship trophy. Players Tomas Farrell, Brian Handell, Scott Picard, Andrew Babb, Jason Harris, Sam Freund, Jesse Doran, Josh Swiecicki, Greg Dancey, and Jeff Levine were the guys who made this happen, and the guys who are responsible for us coming home after a very long day as #1!

Thanks go out to Evan Lepler and Robbie Gordon for their help, and we all await another chance to show the skills of WEHC baseball to the other camps. Feels good now to be able to say we are the defending champions, and it is surely something well deserved for all these guys.

OFFICERS

Each summer, usually during the third or fourth week of the season, elections are held for various offices at camp. These elected officials meet with Bill, Steve, and Danny to discuss matters of importance to the campers; as a result of their recommendations, we endeavor to make the stay at West End House Camp even more rewarding and exciting for each and every camper.

The Officers for 2002 were:

President: Josh Swiecicki
Vice President: Matt Newman
Sr. Postmaster: Victor Goodman
Jr. Postmaster: Zach Leppo
Liaison to the Sr. League Commissioner: Bernie McTernan
Liaison to the Jr. League Commissioner: Kendal Moses
Sr. Sgt. at Arms: Joel Pelletier
Jr. Sgt. at Arms: David Oliveira
Sr. Liaison to the Cooks: Jamal Blount
Jr. Liaison to the Cooks: Jason Goldstein

THE RETURN OF SOCIALS

For the first time in more than a decade, the boys of the West End House Camp had the pleasure of participating in socials (two of them!!) with area girls' camps. On July 16th a busload of our 14 & 15 year olds traveled to Camp Huckins in Ossipee, New Hampshire for a full and fun evening of dancing and socializing. The Huckins girls and West End House boys had a great time.

On August 6th West End House hosted a social in our own beautiful recreation hall. This was the first "home" dance in a very long time. Forty-five girls from Camp Pondicherry in Bridgton, Maine arrived by bus and were greeted by our 12 and 13 year old campers. With DJ extraordinaire Seth Thomases spinning the tunes, there was non-stop dancing and fun. No one wanted the evening to end. As their bus was driving away, the girls were happily calling out and waving goodbye to our young men.

Given the success of this year's events, it is a certainty that socials will be a part of West End House Camp's schedule in the upcoming years.

AIN'T NO MOUNTAIN HIGH ENOUGH!

The summer of 2002 once again saw groups of adventurous campers and staff exploring the natural beauty in and around West End House Camp. A large number of Seniors did the 5½ mile Blueberry Hill (Hessian Hill) walk. The views from the top looking out towards the White Mountains and back onto Long Pond were spectacular. Campers are beginning to realize that not only is WEH Camp a fun place, it is also a beautiful place as well.

Two groups were eager to set out for the White Mountains in nearby New Hampshire. Both hiked up and down the challenging Champney Falls Trail, which ascends to the peak of Mount Chocurua – close to 4,000 feet high. This round trip journey is approximately 8 miles long. Congratulations to this first group, led by Aaron Englander, Mike Kuta, and Steve Lepler and consisting of Justin Fitzpatrick, Kevin Boecke, Ricardo Tirado, Ryan Kaiser, Charlie Markos, Taylor Gallagher, Jeremie Bender, Chris Sullivan, and Christian "Detroit" Tilles.

The second group of hikers was cabin 3B, which wisely used their auction points to bid on and win the best prize! This energetic group consisted of Robbie Nash, Paul Kaklamanos, John Gruber, David Finn, Ryan Dennison, Jesse Fusco, CJ Oguendo, Tom Mulcahy, Tom Keilty, and Chrystyan Oliveira.

There has been increased interest in hiking in the mountains, and we will be incorporating plans into next year's schedule. We hope you will take advantage of these opportunities!

-Steve Lepler

MICHAEL W. CATALDO, SR. AWARD

Mike Cataldo had been affiliated with the West End House since childhood. He served as President of the WEH Alumni Association, the WEH Boys & Girls Club, and the WEH Camp, and was Co-Chairman of the Camp Committee for many, many years. He was a most dedicated and tireless worker for the organization and we all felt a great loss when he passed away in 1999.

In his memory, an annual award is presented to a person whose efforts, commitment, and service to the West End House Camp are in keeping with the tradition and character so exemplified by Michael W. Cataldo, Sr.

Recipients have been:

2000: William Swiecicki
2001: Henry L. Barr
2002: Bert Wynn
2003: Marty Jacobs

5A SAYINGS

Shawn Cox: "Why? Do I have to mop the bathroom? I like frogs."

Todd Zucker: "Hee-hee. Zuuucker. I don't want the food. I want a jelly sandwich. I love Color War."

Chris Moriarty: "Tweet-tweet. Do you know my cousin Keith? My uncle is the world Uno champion. Sure I'll go swimming."

Matt Ryter: "Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha. I have visitors today. 5A staff rules!"

Andrew Ferestien: "My fan is really strong. I love baseball. Yes! Fight White Fight!"

Zach Leppo: "Gibbs my favorite ribs. Liar! No! 5A staff is the best. Jelly, get off my bed! Can we go on a campout?"

Matt Jellison: "Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha. I don't get it. Ok, then OK. Grandpa Gibbs. Murder, I say murder!"

Vigan Sarkisov: "I love Color War. My eyelashes are not that long. 5A is the coolest."

Wayne "Thunder" Yee (1CIT): "Ahh, geez. Ooohh, I didn't see you. You came from the other way. Did you know that in games Shaq...."

Lyle Friess (2CIT): "Are you kidding me? Robbie, I carry our team. Shoulders. OK, then. I get no respect."

Jason Gibbs (2CIT): "Ace, you're so salty. Let me and Chico go for a ride. Lyle is a first year. It's Funkstein, not Chunkstein."

Aaron Englander (SC): "I'm not salty. Gordon, let's go work out. Gibbs and Harris, get up! Look out, Cleveland. Harris & Gibbs, I said wake up!"

Dean Owens (SC): Australia, football, Old Orchard Beach, Tom, his mates, hopefully a return next summer to West End.

4A SAYINGS

Jonathan Baker: "None of you speaks English properly! The trumpet is simply superior to all other brass instruments. Drew, wanna see a card trick? Wow!"

Sam Dasch: "Let's play that towel kicking game again. I'm the coolest Dasch by far!"

Jordan Shapiro: "Drew, I know you like me, but why do I always have mess hall? Just because I am terrible at soccer doesn't mean that I won't be a High Senior Captain!"

John Moriarty: "Can I go wakeboarding? Can I go swimming?"

Benji Weistrop: "Who ate my brownies? Who drank my Gatorades? Is this kosher?"

Ganson Pollock: "It's my feet! It's my shoes! Drew, did you throw out all my clothing?"

Jason Lipsett: "Jordan, stop throwing clothes on me!"

Josh Angoff: "I love hot sauce! In fact, hot sauce may be the most delicious condiment in the world."

Mike Knowles: (Silence)

Mike Levine: "Drew, did you drink my sodas? Are you serious? This cotton candy is the best. Mike, let's go What??"

Evan Taylor: "No one can beat me in basketball. I should be at the top of the bunk list. Next year I hope to be a High Senior Captain."

Man Ho (1CIT): "I never don't have kitchen. Drew, do you think I have relief again tonight?"

Darin Solomon (2CIT): I'm good at crosswords, I swear! I hate flashlight tag. Calvin's bed is definitely the best in camp."

Drew Thomases (JC): "Wind instruments are no longer allowed in 4A. Stawowy, I'm taking the kids swimming. Sweet! Good call!"

Mike Stawowy (SC): "Ganson is a downright great two-dog. Evan Taylor, I will destroy that ball if you bounce it one more time. "

4B SAYINGS

Rashad Cudjoe: "Quiet, Nikita. Ah, Nick, no! You can't make me!"

Nikita Finkel: "Dragonball! I'm the best sailor in camp. I'm special – Jacobs, could you take me on a boat ride? I'm the best. Please, please, please!"

Jason Cohen: "You'll be the one complaining in the morning!"

Taylor Dahl: "I don't talk very much. Can you buy me something in town? I'm the best camper. I go to 4A all the time."

Sam Fitzgerald: "Get off my bed! My trunk needs to be in the aisle as a card table."

Sam Jekowsky: "I really should be in Gottlieb. I'm sorry. I know I talk too much."

Dana King: "I called single bed. Can you get me KHOP? I'll give you an awful waffle."

David Mingolla: "Can we go banana boating? Let's play Stratego. Yeah, sure."

Spencer Jacobson: "I'm nasty at tennis. I don't do softball. You need shorts with pockets to play tennis."

Alex Lee: "Let's go play tennis. I made my bed perfect before I got into it. Gimme back Mr. Bear."

Tomas Farrell (1CIT): "I ate only four éclairs. I'm leaving. What did you say, Nikita?"

Nick Sprague (2CIT): "Do you want to go to laundry? Nikita, 50 pushups! I'm leaving."

Michael Jacobs (2CIT): "59, 58, 57, 56!!! Come on, guys! You guys are gonna be the ones complaining in the morning. Do your job!"

COLOR WAR 2002

Color War began after supper on Wednesday, August 7th. Bill had just finished displaying some old "time capsules" in the Council Ring. Campers and staff were getting ready to go to the evening activity when Bryna drove her car near the 1B/2A area and out of her trunk sprang Danny Barr and Mike Gordon! Off in the distance, Aaron Englander was creating booms and noises as only he knows how to concoct, and the campers knew this was the real thing!

For the next five days, ending with Song Night on Monday, August 12th, everything went smoothly, the weather cooperated, and injuries and illness were nowhere in sight – except for Evan Lepler's attempt to defy gravity during his entrance.

Congratulations and thanks to everyone – campers, coaches, referees, and all the other staff for making this a hard fought, safe, well done Color War!

In My Life- the Beatles

There are places we remember
All our lives
Though some have changed
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain
West End has had its moments
With brothers and friends I still can recall
Some are Dead and some are living
But in my life I've loved them all

But of all our friends and brothers
There is nothing that replaces you
And these memories keep their meaning
When I think of camp as something true

2x

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For friends and wars that came before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
Cause in my life West End is more
Cause in my life West End is more

Blister in the Sun- Violent Femmes

verse 1

When we're walking
We strut our stuff
Blue is number one
We're high as the sky
Passers by
Stop to view the fun

chorus

We will go on
The funks chances are done
We will go on
Cause blue is number one

verse 2

Funk is beat
They're way too weak
They done even know why
The plaque is blue
This war is through
White is starting to cry

Chorus
Verse 1
Verse 2
Chorus

BLUE

STEALTH

In Too Deep- Sum 41

The faster whites falling
They're stopping and stalling
They're running in circles again
Just as blue was getting tough
Funk said they weren't good enough
But still they're crying one more time

2x

Maybe they're just trying too hard
When a white victory is way too far
Cause Funk's in too deep
And they just can't keep
A good hope in their head
Cause they are going under
Cause they are going under

Seems like each time whites with blue
Funk loses their mind
Because white is bending over backwards to win
It's one thing to complain
But when stealth drives the Funk insane
Well then its time for white funk to give in

2x

2x

Maybe they're just trying too hard
When a white victory is way too far
Cause Funk's in too deep
And they just can't keep
A good hope in their head
Cause they are going under
Cause they are going under

stuck in the Middle with You- Steeler's Wheel

Well we don't know why Funk came here to fight
White's got the feeling that something ain't right
They're so scared cause these teams are unfair
And their Afro picks are stuck in their hair

Blue is the winning team, Funk has lost the fight
Here we are, winning this war for blue
Yes we're, winning this war for blue

And white's wondering what it is they can do
It's so hard to keep this smile from our face
Cause the white team is a total disgrace

Blue is the winning team, Funk has lost the fight
Here we are, winning this war for blue
Yes we're, winning this war for blue

Trying to make some sense of it all
But Masta Plan makes no sense at all
We rob and steal what we want
And it's too hard for us not to flaunt

-x [Blue is the winning team, Funk has lost the fight
Here we are, winning this war for blue
Yes we're, winning this war for blue] 2x

Cheer Medley-

2x [Guess who's back
Back again
Blue teams back
Tell West End]

3x [We played it, We won it
We want some more of it]

2x [Ain't no mountain high enough
Ain't no valley low enough
Ain't no river wide enough
To keep us from beating the white team]

2x [We ain't
Going nowhere
We ain't
Going nowhere
We can't be stopped now
Cause its blue team for life]

3x [We hate the funk
Gotta beat the funk]

Don't Let Me Get Me- Pink

Always win first place
Always support the team
Always take direction
And we beat up on the white
Fields and water
We play harder
We always win the fight
Cause the funk does nothing right

Everyday we fight a war against the white team
They can't take the pressure staring back at them

[We're a hazard to the white
We always crush them
Were Funks worst enemies
It's good to be the stealth
White is fading
They have no chance in this war
They'll be beaten by the Stealth] Chorus

West End told me
You'll win Color War
All we have to show is
Our higher total score
Tired of being compared
To damn white Funk
Jed's a Junky
Kublins breath's funky
So judges, judges wont you please prove us something
That we will dominate the Funk

Chorus

GO BLUE GO!

WHITE FUNK

In The End - Linkin Park

Funkmaster: It starts with white

Solo 1: Funk don't know why
It doesn't even matter how hard blue tries
Keep that in mind
We don't win all the time
To see blue team cry and whine

Funkmaster: All we know

Solo 2: This war is a valuable thing
Watch it slip blue for another white win
Watch them walk away with nothing to say
The Funk grooves on all day

Funkmaster: It's so unreal

Solo 3: Blue just don't got flow
Trying to steal our rhythm, funk, and soul
Trying to groove on, you didn't even know
You wasted it all

Solo 4: You kept everything inside
Even though blue tried, it all fell apart
What it meant to be will eventually be a victory
For the white

Chorus

Blue tried so hard and lost the war
In the end it doesn't even matter
Blue had to fall to lose it all
But in the end it doesn't even matter

Funkmaster: One thing

Solo 5: Funk don't know why
It doesn't even matter how hard blue tries
Keep that in mind
We designed this rhyme to remind the blue

Funkmaster: How to try so hard

Solo 6: Despite all the ways you been mocking white
Acting like you were gonna win the fight
Remembering how the funk is always right
Don't be surprised at the ending of the war
Things aren't the way they were before
Now white has another plaque in color war
And now it can go down in history
Of White Funk's CW victory

Chorus

London Calling - The Clash

White team calling to the far away town
War was declared, and battle came down
White team calling to the blue stealth
Get out now, it's not good for your health
White team calling, now don't look to us
Blue team and their coaches have bitten the dust
White team calling, see we ain't got no lows
Except for our coaches, with those beautiful 'fros

Chorus

The white funk is coming, the sun's zooming in
Blue team stop trying, your hope's growing thin
The war is not over, but we have no fear
Cause blue team is frowning... and we will deliver

White team calling to the judges in the hall
Quit holding out, just let the blue team fall
White team calling at the top of the plaque
After all this, blue will never come back
White team calling to the team who can't move
But hey, blue stealth, where's your rhythm and groove

Chorus x2

All Things Must Pass - George Harrison (alma mater)

Sunrise doesn't last all morning
A cloudburst doesn't last all day
Camp seems to end without a warning
It's not always gonna be this grey
Every summer, it will pass
But West End, in our hearts you'll stay

Sunset doesn't last all evening
A wind can blow those clouds away
It is our time, we must be leaving
It's not always gonna be this grey

Every summer, it will pass
But West End, in our hearts you'll stay
Every summer, it will pass
All of our friendships, they will last
We'll all be back another day

Darkness only stays at night time
In the morning, it fades away
Camp always arrives at the right time
No it's never gonna be this grey
Every summer, it will pass
But West End, in our hearts you'll stay

WHITE FUNK

Get the Party Started - Pink

We're just gettin started, the blue team is tight
Everybody knows the white's won the fight
Sending out the message to all of our friends
We'll be lookin' funky, a white win again
We got lots of style, just look at our 'fros
Confidence is booming from our head to our toes

Chorus x4

White's groovin' out so blue better get their act together

Pumpin' up the volume, get out of your seats
Cruisin' around West End, the white can't be beat
The blue stealth is freakin' as we're comin' up fast
This color war is over, the blue came in last
From the very start of it, we knew we'd go far
The white team funkadelic number one superstar

Chorus x4

You knew we had rhythm when we entered the room
Blue's demise is comin' and it's comin' real soon
We're pumpin' up the volume with our brand new beat
Funk is out here dancin', stealth's just tappin' their feet

Chorus x4

Cheer Medley

Right about now
The funk soul brother x3
Check it out now
The funk soul brother

Make our funk the white funk
We want our funk uncut x2
Make our funk the white funk
We wants to get funk'd up
We are the funk, the white funk
The stealth is all washed up

And we were singin' and dancin'
And movin' to the groovin'
And just when... blue came out, we said,
Play that funky music white team
Play that funky music white
Play that funky music white team
Lay down the blue stealth and play that funky music 'til we die

Get up - get on up
Stay on the scene - get on up x3
Like a funk machine - get on up

Shake your money maker x3

Huuuhh!!!

You Might Think - The Cars

You might think we're crazy
Fightin' this war with blue
Or maybe you think we're lucky
But white team's funk'd out too
But we think that your done
It's this war, we have won

Chorus

Blue might think we're foolish
But stealth, that's not right
Blue might think we're crazy
Funk has won the fight

Blue might think it's hysterical
We know when you're weak
You think you're in the movies
You are in too deep
But we think that you're done
It's this war, we have won

Chorus

We might think you're furious
The way we run you down
But somewhere, sometimes
When you're curious
We'll be back around
But we think that you're done
It's this war we have won

Chorus

HOUSE SONG

The House Song we sing today was composed by Al Sherman around 1946 and was first heard at a West End House Show & Dance at the Statler Ballroom in Boston.

Hundreds of hearts that beat as one
Grateful for all the House has done
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

When you're one of the boys
You're always one of the boys
And here's one thing you'll do –
You'll always go through
You'll always go through
You'll always go through

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

ORIGINAL HOUSE SONG

The words and music to the original West End House Song were written by John Channell and were first published in 1909.

Let me sing to you a song of a House not far away
Where we gather every evening and we laugh and sing and play
Many social clubs are gathered, points of interest for each one
And we'll be glad to welcome you to join us whene'er you come.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.

Many literary functions we attend, in due season socials, too
And our athletic teams are flourishing for to win their aim in view
And we camp out in the summer on the shore near woods and plain
But we are happy when we see the West End House again.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.
