

WEST END HOUSE CAMP

2003 SPIRIT

DEDICATION

George Kane has been a member of the West End House for well over 85 years! He had already been active at the West End House Boys' Club prior to attending WEH Camp for the first time in 1919. Indeed, he has attended camp virtually every year since then!

Mr. Kane is a remarkable man who has dedicated his efforts in an extraordinary manner to assuring that the children of our organization enjoy the very best in services that we can offer. In the late 1940's he spearheaded the fundraising campaign to modernize the camp, to build cabins, the dining hall, and the gymnasium, to develop the waterfront, and to clear land for playing fields. In the late 1960's and early 1970's he again was at the forefront of raising money, this time to build a brand new club in Allston (after WEH moved from the old West End section of Boston). For the past few years he and his family have once more been magnanimous in their efforts to secure funds for the club for the purpose of the establishment of a new third floor of the renovated club – the Louis I. Kane Youth Leadership Center, named in memory of his late son.

Mr. Kane has worked tirelessly for the West End House his entire life, not only raising funds for the Camp and the Club, but also serving as President of the West End House Camp, West End House Boys' Club (as it was known originally), and the West End House Alumni Association. He remains active to this day as a member of the Corporate Boards of both the Camp and Club.

At Mr. Kane's 90th birthday party in January 1995, he spoke of his first trip to the West End House Camp in 1919. He reminisced that when he first saw the lake (Long Pond) in East Parsonsfield, his heart skipped a beat as he realized the beauty of this place and the wonderful opportunity that was afforded him to attend this facility. He concluded his remarks by stating that every year since then he feels the same emotion when he passes the lake and enters the camp. It is a feeling that we all share to varying degrees, but none with more emotion, history, and perseverance than George Kane.

On the occasion of his 99th birthday on January 1, 2004, and in humble gratitude for his remarkable efforts in the past, present, and future on behalf of the children of the West End House, we respectfully and lovingly dedicate the 2003 Spirit to

GEORGE E. KANE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There are many people whose assistance during this past year has been invaluable to us. We would like to acknowledge the following individuals and institutions that contributed to the success of the season:

·Marty Jacobs, President, for his advice and presence all during the year; members of the Camp Corporation, who oversee the operation and whose committees have been meeting regularly to ensure that WEH Camp is the very best it can possibly be; Billy Swiecicki for ensuring the beautiful grounds; Mike Finn for his sponsorship of the Kezar and the updates to that facility; Brett Barenholtz for his efforts in securing the new boat; Bob Goober for arranging for the digital camera; and Immediate Past President Henry Barr for his continuing supportive efforts.

·Aaron Leppo (Full Line Graphics) – thank you for arranging for the printing of the 2003 Spirit!

·The Camp Breakfast is always a great time, and Bert Wynn ensures success by buying and providing a huge number of raffle prizes for the children. The Breakfast is always planned around the schedule of Bert and his wife, Esther. We could not do it without them!

·Danny Andelman – thank you (and Sean Finley) for the updated video!

·Peter Nason – our gratitude for running the baseball clinics during the summer.

·Bobby (“Tank”) Sherman – thank you for your generosity each summer in supplying the staff shirts. They are quality shirts that have added to the quality of the camp operation.

·Jeff Kublin – our deepest appreciation for arranging for delivery of newspapers (whose sports pages never went unread!) during the summer.

·Tony Goroshko and Richard McKenna drove the rented supply truck round trip on staff opening day in June, and picked up excess luggage in the Goroshko Moving Co. truck on the last camp day in August. Thank you both for your great efforts!

·Frank Moy, Jr., Director of Community Relations for Brighton’s Caritas St. Elizabeth’s Medical Center of Boston, makes sure that our infirmary is well stocked each summer with medical supplies. Our deepest gratitude to Frank and to the hospital.

·Brigitte Paine and the fine folks at Franciscan Children’s Hospital in Brighton – we thank you for the use of your parking lot for bus departures and arrivals. It is an ideal meeting space!

·Sincere gratitude to the staff at the West End House Boys & Girls Club, especially Executive Director Andrea Howard and Director of Support Services, Karen Cyr, for cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

·Joe Jacobs – thank you for your input with this year’s Spirit.

ABOUT THE COVER

The pictures on the cover were taken in 1951, the second full season after the camp had been modernized by the construction of four cabins (the 1’s, 2’s, 3’s, and 4’s), the dining hall, the original gymnasium, and the addition of other facilities. Some of the Old Timers will recognize Chef Ralph Halliburton in the upper middle picture, or Dr. Solomon Skvirsky towards the lower left.

The expression “the more things change, the more they stay the same” is never more true than at West End House Camp. The faces may have changed during the years, but the good fun, camaraderie, and the making of friends for life that existed in 1951 (and, indeed, from our very founding in 1908) are not only still with us now, but are stronger than ever.

The Spirit of the West End House will certainly never die!

Message From the Program Director

Another successful and enjoyable summer at West End House Camp is over, and once again it is time to look back on the camp season. In this year's message from me, I decided to try to capture my personal top 5 reasons why WEHC was the best in 2003. There were lots of people, events and memories that made the camp season what it was, but here are Dooba's own top 5:

5) The bunk Gottlieb was simply the best bunk in camp. For most of them, it was a chance at repeating their Gottlieb summer from a year ago. With some of the guys hesitant about this idea coming into the summer, unsure if their friends would be campers too; I can honestly say from their reaction after the summer, it was one of their best, if not their best summer yet. They truly were the leaders of camp, whether it was during intercamp games, competing in senior leagues, coaching junior league teams, during night activities or in DW and CW. I think most of them became good friends over the summer, and formed crews that will hopefully stay in touch with each other for many years to come. This Gottlieb really loves WEHC and it shows, as their dedication to making the camp better is very clear in their talk and actions. I personally want to thank the bunk once again for making my summer much easier and enjoyable. You are a good bunch of guys, and hopefully many of you will return as staff. Thank you.

4) Welcome back Bob. Bobby Shifman arriving to camp proved to be the biggest addition to WEHC in 2003. In only a few weeks at camp, Bob helped out bunk Gottlieb by driving them on various trips that otherwise couldn't have happened (as well as providing constant entertainment), assisted me in the pre-color war/ Program Director duties, was fully in charge of the 5 days of CW (always using his "discretion"), became a staff man in Gottlieb to fill a needed hole in the bunk, took on responsibilities as a referee of games, and was part of various night activities. Bob came through big time, and was a bonus from my own standpoint to have a member of my crew back for even just a few weeks. On behalf of WEHC, thank you Bob for the help. Hopefully we can get you back for one more in 2004.

3) Intercamp Sports, though record wise wasn't our best year, we still had many "shining moments." I had the privilege this year of being the head coach of the 15-under basketball team. The House Game was just amazing, and even though Robin Hood was an embarrassment to the tradition of the big game, the players from WEHC once again showed more class and that they are much better than the boys from the Hood. This again was the case at The Hood Game when their color war broke in the middle of the game and the officiating was just horrendous... (just ask Robbie G., "don't get me started, don't even get me started.."). We once again won. With poor sportsmanship from RH after the game (and during), WEHC ignored the "trash talk" and had another victory to walk away with.

2) Yeah I know, this is back-to-back intercamp sports, but I couldn't leave out my baseball team. The 15-under baseball squad lost all but 1 starter off of the 2002 RH tournament championship team. That didn't matter at all, as with a starting catcher who was 12 years old, a bench that was so deep it was literally all used, and 3 pitchers (all 14 years old or younger) going 15 innings plus combined; we found ourselves in the finals for the second straight year. This was a very enjoyable team to coach, and even in the short time we had because of the camp week sessions, it was a part of the summer that once again was just awesome.

1) The #1 easily goes to the person who not only helped make my summer what it was, but also the camps, and that is Bill. This past summer had some challenging issues to deal with at times from many new staff, to a younger smaller staff, to the new week sessions, to many other various issues over a variety of topics that came up. Camp only needs one person to run the way it does, to keep the tradition alive; that person is Bill Margolin. Thank you Bill, thank you so much, as WEHC is what is today, and what it hopefully will be in the future because of you.

I look forward to seeing all of you back at WEHC for the summer of 2004. Best wishes and best of luck over the year, with all of your activities, sports and school. Hopefully you can get some of your friends from home to come join you at camp. Stay in touch with each other and be cool.

Your Friend,
Danny "Dooba" Barr

MESSAGE FROM THE INTERCAMP SPORTS DIRECTOR

Intercamp sports in 2003 were a great success, as always. West End's excellence is in winning games fairly, while at the same time, never compromising good sportsmanship. Although our winning percentage suffered a slight decline in comparison to recent years, there were indeed moments of glory that exemplified West End's pride.

Our goal this year was to get campers of all ages involved, and we did so by participating in 11 and under newcombe, softball, and soccer, 13 and under soccer and basketball, 14 and under basketball, and 15 and under basketball and baseball to name a few.

The first Intercamp contest of the year is the highly acclaimed 15 and under basketball "House Game" against Camp Robin Hood. In front of a large crowd of West Enders, current and alumni, as well as a stage full of opposing fans, the team was victorious once again. Bernie McTernan, Matt Gordon and Eric Morris turned in outstanding performances. Head Coach Danny Barr worked hard with the team on a grueling practice schedule in preparation, and led the team to victory. Thank you Danny for a terrific job.

We endured some slightly abnormal circumstances, including rain on the day of a basketball tournament that moved it to a small indoor gym/kitchen floor, as well as Robin Hood's Color War breaking in the middle of a basketball game. Even though an official ran away and the whole situation was a mess, the team kept didn't lose composure and pulled out a win.

The campers and coaches deserve a great amount of credit. While they could be resting and hanging out many hot mornings and afternoons, they're out there working hard so they can represent West End the best they can. Thank you to all participants who gave their time and effort this summer; it would not have been a success without you.

Work hard this winter, stay active, have fun, and I look forward to seeing you all up in Maine this summer.

Your friend,

Robbie Gordon

SENIOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP

This year's Senior Leagues were solid from start to finish. For the first time in recent memory there were only two sessions of leagues. For the first three week period, it was the 50 Cent League. The Wakstas, led by Max Parker, dominated throughout; however, the Magic Sticks, captained by Rashad Cudjoe, emerged as champions. Matt Gordon, Eric Morris, Jeff Levine, Evan White, Ben Brink, and Craig Kublin gave some great performances.

The second session (last five weeks) was the Old School League. Frank the Tanks, led by Nate Seiberling, were almost unstoppable. They were rivaled by the Blue You're My Boys, captained by David Rustin and Danny Weistrop. Other top competitors included Mike Knowles, Sam Finn, Jonathan Gibbs, Sam Freund, and David Kaplan.

Thanks to all who participated!

- Ian Greenblatt

TAKE A HIKE!

Once again, trips to the White Mountains were extremely popular this summer. There were waiting lists to go on each of the hikes. Campers of all ages were eager to experience the beauty (and accomplish the challenge of climbing) the peaks in New Hampshire.

An all-star group of hikers set out to conquer Mount Chocurua on July 14th. The route was the Brook Trail to the Liberty Trail, a nine mile loop that crosses the summit. The views from the rocky top on this perfectly sunny day were spectacular, and they were enjoyed by the entire group: Andrew Blute, Sam Finn, Neal Zucker, Matt Black, Shaun Cronin, Matt Berkowitz, Matt Newman, Jonathan Lipshutz, Andrew Solomon, David Baker, Jonathan Baker, and J. T. Lowe. The group was led by Steve Lepler, Mark Armstrong, and Ross Peart.

The second hike took place on July 23rd when an able group of young men ascended Mount Chocurua via the Champney Falls Trail. This eight mile trail was especially challenging because of the intermittent rain. Everyone was careful and made it to the summit safely. While we were having lunch at the top, we saw the clouds recede and the sun come out! Congratulations to this hearty group, consisting of Zach Goroshko, Nick Gaudette, Jake Schwartz, Justin Fitzpatrick, David Kalenjian, Kevin Boecke, Andrew DeMarco, Ben Olins, Ricardo Barros, Byron Jones, Terry McLelland, and Sam Phelan. The group was led by Mike Stawowy, Mark Armstrong and Steve Lepler.

Finally, on August 4th the entire 4A cabin enjoyed its prize for Auction Part 2: White Mountains hike followed by KHOP! It was a misty day as we climbed South Moat Mountain, a very steep and challenging trail. Everyone appreciated the magical feeling of being up in a cloud. This stellar group consisted of Joel Pelletier, Sam Finn, Ricardo Barros, Ben Ddungu, James Adams, Andrew Blute, Jonathan Goldstein, Joey Klapman, Scott Anderson, Mat Apeseche, Mark Augenstern, Matt Freund, Jeff Walch, and Evan White, and was led by Drew Thomases, Ian Greenblatt, Evan Lepler, and Steve Lepler.

Several campers have already let it be known that they want to take part in next year's hiking expeditions. We will try to accommodate each and every one!

-Steve Lepler

DESERT WAR

There are no longer any campers who have experienced a WEHC summer without Desert War. This year, the Emerald Team (coached by Josh Swiecicki, Keoni Wright, and Tomas Farrell) narrowly defeated the Maroon Team (coached by Brian Handell, Chico Kramer, and Blake Kampen) 230 – 200.

In the morning's Color Rush (definitely the most intense activity of the day), Emerald pulled out a victory with less than 3 minutes to go (after trailing nearly the entire final game). They went on to take the 75 point event two games to one.

The afternoon featured the Juniors battling each other in bombardment in the gym, and the Seniors taking part in the triathlon. In the closet Iron Man ever, the Maroon Team took the lead just yards from the finish line for a three second victory! Both players from their respective teams were neck and neck down the road towards the finish line, with refs and coaches in stride with them to capture this photo finish. This wild race gained the Maroon Team a much needed 65 Desert War points.

In the nightcap, Capture the Flag was played to decide the winner of this War. After going back and forth in the early rounds, the Emerald Team pulled out a victory in the 5th round to go up by 30 with just 25 seconds to go. As the referees scrambled to reset the flags, the Maroon Team planned an all out attack. With 10 seconds left, a Maroon player reached the flag and had blockers leading his way to his side. Just 3 yards away from 50 points and victory, whistles blew as time reached zero on the clock!

In the best overall Desert War (beating even last year's amazing finish), Emerald held on to capture the victory in 2003!

WORLD SERIES OF WIFFLE BALL

The 2003 season saw the rebirth of waffle ball madness! First it was just batting practice – “No one can hit the knuckler!” Then it was serious pick-up games during choice/free play times.

When the Junior and Senior World Series of Wiffle Ball were announced, 48 campers eagerly signed up! Eight teams of three players in both the Junior Division and Senior Division competed for these prestigious championships. In the finals for the Juniors, the trio of David Lach, Jelahni Gilbert, and Casey Morrocco defeated Ben Olins, Justin Fitzpatrick, and Danny Williams. In the Seniors, it was the talented team of Danny Weistrop, David Kaplan, and Sam Jekowsky that took the title from Jordan Shapiro, Evan Taylor, and Michael Levine.

Because of the success of the World Series, a second tournament was held. In the Junior/Senior Wiffle Ball Tourney, teams of four, consisting of two Juniors and two Seniors, were formed. Sixty-four campers participated in many memorable matches. In the finals, Zach Goroshko, David Deveny, Mike Knowles, and John Mitkevicius triumphed over a valiant team of Zach Leppo, Jake Leppo, Mike Levine, and Sammy Teplin.

Towards the end of the summer, some formal and informal home run derby competitions were held. The waffle ball sluggers of 2003 were led by Spencer Jacobson and Mike Knowles, both of whom showed incredible power and consistency in their swings.

Next year the Council Ring will again be home to the fun, socializing, and competition of wiffle ball action for the many players and spectators. Be there!

LET'S DANCE!

For the second year in a row, the gentlemen of West End House participated in two socials with local girls' camps. The first one was for 13, 14, and 15 year old boys and was held a Camp Huckins in New Hampshire. This large gathering was filled with plenty of music, dancing, and conversation. None of our boys wanted the evening to end!

The second social was for 12 and 13 year old boys and took place at Camp Pondicherry. The girls from Pondicherry were unable to attend a dance in our gymnasium, as they had done last year; however, they did invite us for a full day of activities at their camp in Bridgton, Maine. It was a fun and diverse day, and included a variety of activities and challenges, games, a cookout, and a dance.

As our boys enjoyed themselves and conducted themselves with grace and with class, we can look forward to more socials in the upcoming year.

WEST END HOUSE CAMP CORPORATION

Members of the West End House Camp Corporation are people who have all had a long affiliation with the West End House organization and who volunteer extraordinary time and efforts throughout the year for the benefit of the West End House Camp. The Officers and Directors, as of January 1, 2004, are:

President: Marty Jacobs

MICHAEL W. CATALDO, SR. AWARD

Mike Cataldo had been affiliated with the West End House since childhood. He served as President of the WEH Alumni Association, the WEH Boys & Girls Club, and the WEH Camp, and was Co-Chairman of the Camp Committee for many, many years. He was a most dedicated and tireless worker for the organization, and we all felt a profound loss when he passed away in 1999.

In his memory, an annual award is presented to a person whose efforts, commitment, and service to the West End House Camp are in keeping with the tradition and character so exemplified by Michael W. Cataldo, Sr.

Recipients have been:

2000 William Swiecicki
2001 Henry L. Barr
2002 Bert Wynn
2003 Marty Jacobs
2004 Elmer "Bud" Runyon

AWARDS

Each summer, on the night before the campers go home, awards in various categories are announced in the Council Ring in front of the entire camp. The winners are young men who, in the opinion of the senior staff, have shown qualities that the counselors feel should be recognized. The actual trophies are presented in January at the Annual Breakfast at Boston College.

COLOR WAR 2003

Special thanks to Danny Barr for his planning of competition, and to Bobby Shifman, assisted by Bernie McTernan, for running it in top notch fashion!

Color War this year began during announcements after lunch on Wednesday, August 6th. Jim the Cook, not always known for his calm temperament, was "upset" about the fact that ice cream was being served for dessert, and he ranted and raved during announcements. Finally, he came out of the kitchen, threw blue and white papers towards to the campers, and, with the words "Color War is now!" formally launched the gala competition that would absorb everyone for the next 5+ days.

The afternoon and evening competitions (designated as "Day Zero") were tennis and archery, and the regular sports activities began on Thursday morning. Fortunately, the weather was great for the entire Color War - congratulations to the campers, coaches, and referees for a well played, well fought, and safe Color War.

Get Ready to Die- Andrew W.K

This is your time to pay
This is your judgment day
We made a sacrifice
And now we get to take your life
We'll make the riders run
We'll take on anyone
It's really nothing new
It's just the thing we like to do

Chorus:

You better get ready to die
Get ready to die
You better get ready to lose
Get ready to lose
You better get ready to run cause here we come
You better get ready to die

Your team is over now
The blue is running out
When this night is at an end
It's our time to win again
We win without a fight
Blue's seeing only white
You're just a parasite
Now close your eyes and say goodnight

Chorus (2X)

Can't Stop- Red Hot Chili Peppers

Can't stop addicted to the white team
Blue lives deep inside a day dream
We attack without a hesitation
White team conquers every other nation
Beat down by white, we're gonna win big
Go home tonight cuz this is white's gig
In time you'll see why we're not friends
White Conquest is taking over West End

Knocked down but blue you better come to
Stand up, the white's about to end you
Go write the message on the pavement
White team wins, the blue is for enslavement

Chorus:

The war we loved, the tears Blue dropped
To be part of the White, can't stop
Ever wonder if it's over, Blue? (2X)

Blue team is screaming while they struggle
We watch and laugh as they stumble
In time you'll see why we're not friends
White Conquest is taking over West End

Chorus (2X)

WHITE CONQUEST

Cheer Medley

We've been patiently waiting
For a team to explode on
Don't be stunned by Conquest, Blue
You've known all along
No point in your team
Even sticking around
Just leave the rec hall
Your head coaches are clowns

There is something blue can't understand
How white could just kill a man(4X)

Solo: Riders' palms are sweaty
Knees weak
Arms are heavy
There's urine in their pants already
But white is ready
Blue's nervous
But on the surface
They look calm and ready
They need Mom but
They keep on forgetting that their time's now
Conquest's just too loud
We're on top and we won't come down
Jeff's choking, how
Riders are all choking now
Their time's run out
This war's over now

Conquered by the white
Their ride is over now
Blue gave up without a fight(3X)

F W N F

Stand My Ground- Tom Petty

Well we won't back down
No we won't back down
Blue can stand us up at the gates of hell
But we won't back down
No we'll stand our ground
Won't be turned around
And we'll keep the blue from dragging us down
Gonna stand our ground
And we won't back down

Chorus:

We won't back down
Hey blue team
There aint no easy way out
We won't back down
Hey blue team
We'll stand our ground
And we won't back down

Well we know what's right
It will be the white
We're the kings that were just recently crowned
And we'll stand our ground
And we won't back down
Chorus (3X)

Doin' Time- Sublime

Chorus: Summer time
And the winning's easy
When you're on Conquest
You get victory
All the people in this hall will agree
That we're well qualified to represent W.E.H.C
We, me and white team
Run to the fields
Beat on the blue
It gets harder

Me and blue team got this relationship
We hate them so bad so we treat them like shh...
Got them so sad they just want to leave
Been beating on them for 5 days
But we won't set them free

Chorus

Riders,
We've come to tell you that you can't win
Most definitely
Riders,
You're gonna have to deal with a white plaque
Most definitely

Chorus

Alma Mater: Dreaming of You- Selena

Late at night when all the camp is sleeping
I stay up and think of you
And I wish on a star
That somewhere you are thinking of me too
Cause I'm dreaming of camp tonight
Till tomorrow and for all of our lives
and there's no where in the world I'd rather be
Than here at West End thinking about you and me

I think about when camp is over
And I wish that I was always here
If you looked in my eyes
Would you see what's inside
The spirit never dies
I just want to hold on tight
So far, I have all these memories
So I live for the day
To be able to say
That I will always stay

Now I'm dreaming of camp tonight
Till tomorrow and for all of our lives
And there's nowhere in the world I'd rather be
Than here at West End
Thinking of you endlessly

AND SO IT GOES – Billy Joel (ALMA MATER)

In Parsonsfield there is a place
A sanctuary safe and strong
To heal the wounds of summers past
Until a new one comes along

I speak of you when I'm alone
You take away my loneliness
The friends I made will last for life
I love West End I must confess

And as I walk on Long Pond Road
I reminisce and free my mind
And so it goes, and so it goes
And so will camp soon I suppose

So I would choose to be at camp
That's if the choice were mine to make
But winter comes and I must go
And as I sing my heart does break

CHORUS

PRE-CHORUS

CHORUS

And so it goes, and so it goes
And so will camp soon I suppose

CHEER MEDLEY

I don't know what white heard about me,
But white can't get a win outta me.
So judges can't you just see,
That I ride for the B-L-U-E.

Ready or not,
Here we come,
You can't ride,
Gonna find the white,
And wreck the Conquest.

If Blue can't,
Do it (Judges)
It can't be done.

Stop, drop,
Shut em down open up shop.
Oh, no,
That's how Rough Riders roll.

How many people wanna ride tonight
How many people gonna die tonight,
How many people wanna ride tonight,
Ride or Die, Ride or Die

YOU MAY BE RIGHT – Billy Joel

Song Night and the Riders party
Crushin' white and we're not sorry
Let us beat the White Conquest again.
We were only having fun
Beating Conquest till they're done
And we're winning every point now for a change.

You are the white
You must be crazy
If you think you had a chance to win this Color War.
So Ride or Die
Now that's what we say
We'll win this fight and we're so glad we're not the white

We were riding in the combat zone
White team's stranded all alone
We even ride our Harley's in the rain.
So don't tell us not to ride
Cuz we'll make it home alive
If you think the white team's better you're insane.

COWBOYS FROM HELL – Pantera

Under the lights where we stand tall
Nobody touches us at all
Showdown. Shootout. Spread fear within without
We're gonna take what's ours to have
Spread the word across the land
Rough Riders wear black
We've won and can't turn back

PRE-CHORUS

White sees us coming
And they all together run for cover
We're taking over this town

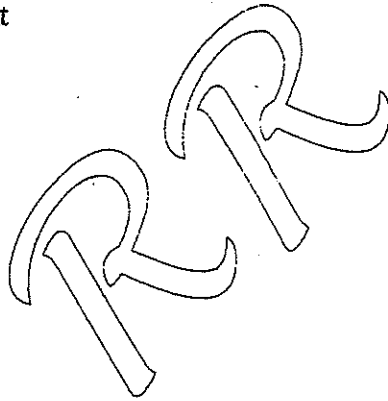

CHORUS

Here we come the war is won
You better listen well white team.
Hear us shout GO BLUE GO
Riding through, causing hell.
Deed is done again we've won
You better listen well white team.
Hear us shout GO BLUE GO
Riding through, causing hell.

On the fields, trash the white team
Keep on adding to our lead.
Knocked down, on the ground
Waiting for a victory.
Out of darkness, into the light
Rough Riders won the fight
Can't stop, our rage
Can't keep us in our cage

PRE-CHORUS

CHORUS

THE ANTHEM – Good Charlotte

So it's Song Night, and the war is gone
Riders winning, Conquest is done
White team only has the blue to blame.
In the ball fields, it's plain to see
Blue is tougher, smelling victory
Conquest struggles just to win a game.

White team can't ever compare to blue
They can't even do the things we do
Judges listen to the words we say

CHORUS

White team only wishes
White team wishes that they were bluuu-ue
They wanna be just like blue
We wanna tell them that we are the Riders
Don't try to fight us, Bluuu-ue
They wanna be blue

Blue is ridin', so the white team flees
We are better, judges can't you see
Blue Rough Riders live the way we want.
In track and swimming, we got the fastest times
Wanna be us, so just get in line
Blue is so much cooler it's a crime

No one really wants to be like white
They cannot put up a decent fight
Conquest can't deny that it is true

CHORUS

I'D DO ANYTHING – Simple Plan

Another war is going by
We're beating the Conquest all the time.
And white is scared
Cuz we're here winning.

Blue team, won't give up til white is dead
They might as well get into their beds.
Now white team's gone
And we're still riding.

This could be the one last chance
White has to understand,

Can't do anything
To stop us from ridin' on.
Got a tank of gas
Ridin' to the top half of the plaque.
We'd do anything
Just to win the war for blue.
Rough Riders are true
Cuz we know you won't forget the blue.

We challenged white to many duels
Each time we made them look like fools
White's a disgrace
Don't ever come back.

HOUSE SONG

The West End House song we sing today was composed by Al Sherman around 1946; it was first heard at a West End House Show & Dance at the Statler Ballroom in Boston.

Hundreds of hearts that beat as one
Grateful for all the House has done
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

When you're one of the boys
You're always one of the boys
And here's one thing you'll do –
You'll always go through
You'll always go through
You'll always go through . . . . .

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

ORIGINAL HOUSE SONG

The words and music to the original West End House Song were written by John Channell and were first published in 1909.

Let me sing to you a song of a House not far away
Where we gather every evening and we laugh and sing and play
Many social clubs are gathered, points of interest for each one
And we'll be glad to welcome you to join us whene'er you come.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.

Many literary functions we attend, in due season socials, too
And our athletic teams are flourishing for to win their aim in view
And we camp out in the summer on the shore near woods and plain
But we are happy when we see the West End House again.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.
