

WEST END HOUSE CAMP

2004 SPIRIT

DEDICATION

Ian Greenblatt was a young man who was very much part of the West End House Camp family. He lived in Ashland, Massachusetts, and although he initially attended WEH Camp as a young boy with other friends from that town, he quickly became friends with countless other kids from all over the country. His warm personality, sincerity, and leadership abilities were but some of the outstanding attributes that endeared him to everyone he met.

In 2000, his last year as a camper, he was a Co-Captain of the Blue Legion, and from 2001 through 2003 he was on the Camp staff.

Wherever Ian went he was popular, whatever tasks he undertook he did so with the commitment to succeed. As a staff man, as a Color War coach, as a friend, and as a person he was great and great to be with – always with a warm smile and a twinkle in his eye.

That twinkle was extinguished as the result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Father's Day Weekend 2004 in New York City. He had just recently celebrated his graduation from Rivers and was looking forward to attending Colgate University in New York in the fall. He left behind his parents, his sister, grandparents, and countless hundreds of friends whose presence at his funeral was a tribute to the lives he had touched in his all too brief 18 years of life.

A number of funds and memorials were established in memory of Ian, including the Ian Greenblatt Spirit of the House Award. Beginning with the 2004 camp season, this award will be presented to a Junior and to a Senior who best represent the outstanding spirit and dedication exhibited by Ian Greenblatt.

In loving and sincere tribute to this remarkable young man, and with the humble gratitude that we had the honor to share so many summers with him, we respectfully dedicate the 2004 Spirit to

IAN GREENBLATT

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

There are many people whose assistance during this past year has been invaluable to us. We would like to acknowledge the following individuals and institutions that contributed to the success of the season:

·Marty Jacobs, President of the WEH Camp Corporation, for his leadership, advice, and presence all during the year.

·Members of the Camp Corporation, who oversee the operation and whose committees have been meeting regularly to ensure that WEH Camp is the very best it can possibly be. These great people are listed elsewhere in the Spirit and each has been tremendous in his support of the Camp. Special thanks to Adam Barr for his work on the website, to Steve Curley for arranging for the donation of so much of our athletic and program supplies, and to Immediate Past President Henry Barr for his continued support and efforts.

·Aaron Leppo (Full Line Graphics) – thank you for arranging for the printing of the 2004 Spirit!

·The Camp Breakfast is always a great time, and Bert Wynn ensures success by buying and providing a huge number of raffle prizes for the children.

·Bobby (“Tank”) Sherman – thank you for your generosity each summer in supplying the staff shirts. They are quality shirts that have added to the quality of the camp operation.

·Tony Goroshko and Richard McKenna drove the rented supply truck round trip on staff opening day in June, and picked up excess luggage in the Goroshko Moving Co. truck on the last camp day in August. Thank you both for your great efforts!

·The fine folks at Franciscan Children’s Hospital in Brighton – we thank you for the use of your parking lot for bus departures and arrivals. It is an ideal meeting space!

·Sincere gratitude to the staff at the West End House Boys & Girls Club, especially Executive Director Andrea Howard and Director of Support Services, Karen Cyr, for cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

·Danny Barr - thank you so much for your tremendous work with this year’s Spirit. You made the job so much easier!

ABOUT THE COVER

In 1950 the “new” West End House Camp was dedicated on a warm Sunday afternoon with many hundreds of people in attendance. George Kane, who turned 100 years of age on January 1, 2005 and who is still very active with the West End House organization, spearheaded the fundraising efforts in 1949 and 1950 and chaired the committee whose work resulted in the building of a modern camp that replaced the tents of the previous four decades. This photograph pictures campers, parents, WEH Alumni Association and Auxiliary members listening to an invocation in the gymnasium, after which they were seated for the ceremonies.

This was the original gym, which was destroyed in the winter of 1952-1953 as the result of one of the most severe ice and snow storms ever seen in Maine. It was a huge building, and on that day had about 350 – 400 people in it to listen to the dedication ceremonies.

The current gym, built in 1956 to replace the fallen structure, was constructed with iron support beams to prevent any possibility of history repeating itself!

MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I am writing this message on Thursday, January 6th (2005). We had snow today in New England, and many schools were canceled. Camp seems so far away – almost like a fantasy land! Yet, we are starting to round the corner into the New Year, the Camp Breakfast will have ended when you read this message, and we are moving towards another tremendous season. I hope you are planning to be part of it!

Last summer everything came together like never before: campers, staff, nurse, cooks, and maintenance! We managed to run virtually every single one of our activities without interruption, despite a fair amount of rain. As always, the summer “flew” by!

Thanks to everyone who made this past summer so very successful. Some of the people who were so helpful are listed on the acknowledgments page. I do, however, want to single out some very special individuals.

Camp would not be where it is today were it not for the efforts of Steve Lepler, the Assistant Executive Director. He is tireless in his efforts to make West End House Camp the best it can possibly be, and although he works full time during the off season, he devotes the equivalent of a full time job on camp matters also! He has been indispensable and has truly made the difference that has resulted in such successful seasons these past six summers that he has been with us.

Danny Barr once again proved himself to be most worthy of being Program Director. Despite a rigorous class schedule at the University of Delaware, he somehow managed to spend very substantial time on camp matters during the school year. Once at camp, he was very much on top of the situation at all times. The best news is that 2004 was not his last year, as we (and he!) had thought; we are delighted that he will be back in 2005 (and hopefully beyond).

The staff was superb – the veterans were great, the new counselors were super, and the “returnees” (those who had missed a year or two and came back) were a most welcome addition. It would not be fair to single out individuals – honestly, they were all so good!

Our cooks, Lee and Linda, assisted by Davis, were superb – both as cooks and as people. The food was excellent, and they took immense pride in their work. What a pleasure to have them on board – I hope they will be back for many more summers!

It is always difficult to secure the services of a nurse, but last summer we were so fortunate to have with us Sandi Nelson. She is a caring and conscientious person who ministered to our health needs all summer, and rarely, if ever, left camp. We are also looking for her return next summer.

Our gratitude to Virginia Smith, Registered Nurse, who volunteered during the summer to assist with medical matters. Virginia and her family are always welcome at camp!

The key to our operation – our custodian, Norm Scott – was again on the scene, making sure the physical plant was in top running order. Day and night, 52 weeks a year, Norm is in the area, and in his calm, capable, and friendly manner he ensures everything is working properly. This year he was ably assisted by John Fredette, who had been most recently in California and who will be taking over from Norm in the spring of 2005. John was a most welcome addition to camp, and we know he will continue the same fine job that Norm has done. Thanks, too, to Joan Scott for her help, support, friendship, and accounting work!

I want to express my gratitude to Ramie Lepler, who once again this summer volunteered in many instances and was always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. Thank you, Ramie, for all that you have done for our West End House family.

I am especially pleased to offer my appreciation to my wife, Bryna. Her volunteer efforts keeping track of the campers' spending money, picking up the mail, making the trips to the clinic or hospital, running the canteen, helping in the infirmary, picking up supplies, etc. are truly invaluable.

If you need to reach anyone, names and addresses (and email addresses) are listed elsewhere in the Spirit. Also, check out our fantastic website (westendhousecamp.com) !

In the meantime, stay well, sign up for camp before it is too late, and take care.

- Bill Margolin

MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It is Sunday, August 22nd, a sunny, invigorating 75 degree day, unlike the downpour of yesterday and the intermittent drizzling of the summer. I have just returned from a 5½ mile walk up and down Blueberry Hill. On this crystal clear day I could vividly view the White Mountains in the distance and sparkling Long Pond below. I could also see clearly what a positive, smooth, fun, and upbeat season we have just completed at West End House Camp.

When I was hired by the West End House Board of Directors and Bill to return as Assistant Executive Director in 1999, the goals that were expressed to me in order to make a great camp even better included the following:

1. Develop a more mature staff who will be excellent role models and who will adhere to all our policies, values, and standards of performance.
2. Emphasize teaching and coaching in all sports and waterfront activities.
3. Increase the level of competition and competitiveness, while improving the sportsmanship displayed.
4. Ensure that all structured activities are fully and completely scheduled, and that there are a variety of choices available during "free play" time.
5. Provide additional optional activities, such as hikes, campouts, and socials, in order to give campers a better rounded experience.
6. Recruit and keep quality campers from a variety of different communities and states and to have a harmonious and vibrant camp.

I am pleased to report that in 2004 we have come very close to meeting all of these goals. This success is due to the efforts of many talented and hardworking individuals.

First of all, I would like to thank Danny Barr, Program Director, who was more collaborative, mature, organized, and effective than ever. Secondly, the informal "Executive Council," consisting of the key senior leaders of camp met with Bill, Danny, and me to ensure that we were all on the same page and that we were giving the proper messages and leadership to the entire staff. Thanks to Robbie Gordon (Senior League Commissioner), Josh Swiecicki (Junior League Commissioner), Jeff Berger (Waterfront Director), Mike Gordon, and Evan Lepler, who eagerly participated in these efforts.

Thirdly, the staff consisted of many skilled, certified, energetic, mature men who upgrade several activities. Jon Kander and Damon Cashman provided excellent tennis instruction; Mike Jacobs headed up the small crafts program and taught sailing, kayaking, and even some canoeing to many campers; Artie Jones reinvigorated our lacrosse program; certified archery instructors Kenny Ng and Dave Kaplan ran active and fun archery classes; under the leadership of Jeff Berger and Marc Balmazi, the waterfront was busy and better organized - particular credit goes to Tommy Kandler (who often drove the Malibu and taught waterskiing), and to André Fredette (who piloted the "90" for many banana boating and tubing expeditions); Mike Stawowy and Dan Liebman provided valuable leadership and assistance in just about all of the above areas.

In the athletic realm, quality teaching, coaching, and/or reffing were done by Mike Gordon, Evan Lepler, Robbie Gordon, Josh Swiecicki, Rashad Daker, Chris Johnson, and Rickey Taylor, ably assisted by many CIT's. Our large group of CIT's showed many strengths that helped us this year and will aid us even more in the future.

During the entire camp season, there was a positive atmosphere that permeated the overall environment. Campers and staff alike felt that this was the best year yet. No one seemed to notice the unusually poor weather. They were too busy having fun, hanging with their friends, and feeling good about themselves and each other. This is what West End House Camp is all about.

As always, it has been a pleasure and privilege to collaborate with Bill Margolin. No one works harder and more effectively than Bill. If I can contribute a fraction of what he does for West End House Camp, then my sincere efforts are - and will be - worthwhile.

The only thing that will outdo WEHC 2004 is WEHC 2005! We can fully meet and exceed all of our goals. By the time you read this, I am hopeful that all of you campers and staff will have signed up for an even better summer that is right around the corner. I look forward to seeing you and doing all I can to help make your summer as fun, fulfilling, and exciting as possible.

With best regards to you and your families -

Steve Lepler

MESSAGE FROM THE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

I cannot believe my 14th consecutive summer and my fourth year as Program Director at West End have come and gone. For the first time in awhile, even though there have been many good summers, I came back home this time really missing the days of camp more than ever. While it is hard for me to pinpoint exactly what caused this reaction, there are many reasons and people that made it possible. From the staff, to the campers, to Color War, to intercamp sports, it truly was a summer that goes down as one of my favorites and one of camp's best.

The staff I led this summer was overall really outstanding. For starters, many of the new and returning staff deserve lots of credit down at the waterfront for all their efforts. We had by far the most successful and most productive tennis program led by Damon Cashman and Jon Kander; for the first time a structured and well-instructed lacrosse program led by Artie Jones; and a boating program that many hours of planning went into due to the hard work of Mike Jacobs. I want to thank you guys very much, as the waterfront activities were very strong due to you guys.

I also want to extend a big thank you to John Moriarty and Spencer Jacobson, as these two deserve lots of credit for everything they did leading up to and during Color War as runners (plus putting up with me - not the most patient person at times). While most of camp was sleeping, John, Spencer, and I would be up working late in the Kezar trying to put together the best Color War ever. Through lots of long days of scouting and meetings and late nights of work, these two were awesome in their efforts and ideas. Though most of this work was behind the scenes, there is a lot of time and effort that goes into preparing a Color War, and John and Spencer were up to every challenge. Again, thank you very much John and Spencer, your work did not go unnoticed and the outcome of Color War was a clear result of all the hard work you did. Thanks, I had an awesome time that really made my summer that much better.

Lastly with regards to the staff, I want to thank Evan Lepler and Josh Swiecicki. Evan really stepped it up this summer and took the initiative in running many of the night activities. He was always eager to help me out, and the activities he did run were very well executed. Thank you very much Evan. Josh, only a 2nd year CIT, had an outstanding summer. At such a young age he took on the responsibility of Junior League Commissioner, which was done extremely well, assisted me with the 15-under baseball team through a month of practice, ran night activities, and was even thrown into the role of Head Coach during Color War. It was a first that such a young person took on so many key positions in various roles. He was excellent, and I want to personally thank him for everything he did.

I really believe that this group of CITs we had this year as well as the upcoming group of potential CITs from Gottlieb and 1A (two excellent bunks) will be a really good group of staff for many years to come. I hope many of them choose to return, as they truly are the future of West End.

As I said at Awards Night on the last day of camp, West End runs through the dedication, hard work and many hours of planning the camp summer by Bill Margolin. We really want to see him back forever, as West End continues to be the best place to spend a summer mainly due to everything he has done and continues to do. Once again, thank you Bill for everything.

I really was honored and appreciated all the compliments and the push for me to return in 2005 at the end of the summer from the campers, staff and parents. It was a great feeling to know that I could help make their summer so great. More importantly, I was very pleased to hear the positive feedback from everyone about his enjoyment of camp in 2004. I am honored and happy to report that I will be returning to camp in 2005 as the Program Director and in a new capacity as the Executive Administrative Assistant to continue my hard work and dedication to camp over the off-season months. I look forward to continuing putting all my best efforts towards the West End House Camp now and hopefully into the distant future.

As always, I wish everyone the best of luck over the year with school, all of your activities and sports. Feel free to email me and tell me how your year is going or to just talk camp. I eagerly look forward to the summer of 2005. Stay in touch with each other and I'll see you all very soon.

Your Friend,
Danny Dooba Barr

MESSAGE FROM THE WATERFRONT DIRECTOR

In the tradition of the West End House Camp, the proverb "If it's not broke, don't fix it" is often followed to a tee. However, after much discussion last spring with Danny Barr, it became my intention to evaluate each waterfront program and make changes to them accordingly. This task proved to be more difficult than I expected, but as a result of a devoted and excellent staff, it became much more possible.

There is no question in my mind that the 2004 staff was the best that I have seen in my 11 years at camp. As I reflect today, five months since summer ended, there are so many people I would like to thank for making the summer such a successful one. For starters, I would like to thank the Assistant Waterfront Director, Marc Balmazi. If it were not for him, I probably would have quit halfway through the summer. I also would like to give a special thanks to Dan Liebman, whose devotion to making the summer successful is unparalleled. One of the main goals at the start of the summer was to use both motor boats at all times. We were able to do this in large part because of Tommy Kandler, who was always willing to help in any way possible, whether it was teaching swim classes or changing the Malibu's oil. The waterfront had an extremely experienced and qualified staff with Marc Balmazi and me as both WSI's and lifeguards, along with Tommy Kandler, Andre Fredette, and Jason Cohen as certified lifeguards.

This summer, the waterfront featured surveys every two weeks to help determine which programs needed to be changed. In the beginning of the summer, lacrosse and tennis were the two least liked programs as voted by the campers, but by the summer's end they were the two top ranked programs. The lacrosse program was run by Artie Jones, who did an outstanding job of taking the brand new program and making it one of the best programs the camp ever had. I would also like to thank Dan Liebman and Rich Smith who had no previous lacrosse experience but who learned how the game was played in order to help Artie make it so successful. The tennis program was run by Damon Cashman and John Kander, who did an outstanding job of working with me on new ways we could make tennis one of the favorite programs, and, by the end of the summer, it was.

Another major change to the waterfront program was the small crafts program. Michael Jacobs did an outstanding job of combining instruction in canoes, rowboats, kayaks, and sailboats into one program. He did an exceptional job of adding instruction into the program while still making it equally as fun. The archery program would not have been possible without Kenny Ng and David Kaplan, both certified archery instructors. This has long been one of the favorites for campers in the Junior Division, but it would not have been possible without the hard work of both of them.

Overall, the devotion by this summer's staff was incredible. Whether it was Tommy Kandler and Rich Smith fixing the floating dock on a daily basis, or the staff's willingness to work doubles so that the programming would not be hurt, this staff is one that I cannot thank enough. I would like to also thank Brett Barenholtz and the other members of the Camp Board who kept in contact with me throughout the summer and supplied me with whatever we needed. As for me, I have had the greatest 11 summers of my life; however, for various reasons I will not be able to return in 2005. I only hope that next summer will be as great as this past one, and I look forward to seeing everyone in the future

Your Waterfront Director

Jeffrey Berger

SAILING AT WEST END HOUSE CAMP

Elder statesman Mike Stawowy and I worked together this summer to strengthen the sailing program, and we were assisted by CIT Josh Daigle. With the recent purchase of a terrific new sailing dock and several new boats, our facility is really in great shape. In addition to the sailing during normal waterfront activity periods, we held classes during Rest Period and had special clinics for those especially interested in this field. When there was a good breeze, the boats were put to good use.

I was very pleased with the progress of everyone who participated in the classes, and I hope that all will continue sailing. Several individuals merit special recognition for their work in completing the sailing course: Steve Presser, Matt Spector, and Peter Elliott all passed the tests that were based on U.S. Sailing Requirements.

Hopefully, next year will bring better wind and an expanding number of sailors!

Best wishes for the school year —

-Mike Jacobs

Message from the Intercamp Sports Director

The 2004 intercamp season was an action packed and a very active one for West End House Camp. The planning for this summer's schedule began over the spring with our camp joining other camps as a Lakes Region camp member. This allowed us to work with camps we had not played as much in the past and to get involved in various other games and tournaments. It was a very busy and solid intercamp summer that covered games for kids 9-15 in all sports and in the most tournaments ever played in any summer.

The summer included an 18-12 record with 4 tournament final appearances and once again a convincing victory in the annual House Game versus Camp Robin Hood. While we struggled to keep up this summer with Winaukee, we had our way in nearly every game and at every age level with our biggest rival - Robin Hood.

Our intercamp games started with 15-under basketball at home and ended with 15-under baseball at home. I would like to have my own "2004 was the intercamp year that..."

- We had 14 intercamp games played on the same day and won 11 of them
- We failed to beat Winaukee at the 15-under level and only beat them once at the 13-under level
- Maine Teen failed to show up, and Cody embarrassed themselves
- Max Parker was a beast on the boards in hoops
- Riding Spencer Jacobson's arm and play, we were in two finals versus Winaukee
- Robin Hood only beat us one time and that was a baseball team playing soccer
- John Moriarty started and played 4 different positions at the RH Baseball Tourney
- Swiecks sent a runner home down by 2 with 2 outs in the top of the last (kidding Josh)
- For another summer, we showed our opponents the pride and heart that West End House Camp is all about.

I would like to thank all the coaches and players for putting in the time and effort to run and participate in practices on a daily basis. As head coach of the 15-under baseball and 15-under basketball teams, I would like to thank my assistant coaches and the players that gave it their all and put the effort in that made a difference. Keep working hard.

Sincerely,
Danny "Dooba" Barr

MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR LEAGUE COMMISSIONER

Senior Leagues were a huge success this year. Campers got the chance to participate just about every day in sports such as basketball, softball, volleyball, soccer, football, beach volleyball, and the occasional handball. The first two weeks was the Jason Kublin League, and after fierce competition, the Fallons, led by co-captains Joel Pelletier and Alex Harris, came out on top. The next two weeks brought the Bill's Stories League, and competition became stiffer with the addition of two more teams to the mix. In the last four weeks, there were an incredible number of Seniors, and Leagues became very intense with eight teams contending. Although the Old-School Nickelodeon Shows League was cut short by the start of Color War, all eight teams were very competitive due to outstanding leadership by Gottliebbers and IA'ers. Key performers throughout the summer included Andrew Blute, James Adams, Paul Kaklamanos, Brenden Taylor, Evan Taylor, Sam Finn, Ben Brink, Jeremy Finney, Jon Goldstein, Joey Klapman, and Evan White. I want to personally thank the land staff who did an excellent job reffing the games, supervising warm ups, and teaching skills. Finally, thank you to all of the campers in Senior cabins, whose hard work throughout the whole summer truly made Leagues what they were. Stay active, stay well, and keep in touch. I wish I could be at the Breakfast with all of you, and I look forward to seeing you all next summer.

Your Friend,

Robbie Gordon
Senior League Commissioner

Junior League Roundup

When Danny Barr asked me to run Junior Leagues back in January, I was very excited and felt very privileged to run such an important part of camp. West End House is known for great athletic ability and, more importantly, for great sportsmanship. Junior Leagues represents all of these qualities, and the campers this year certainly represented these characteristics.

There were only a few minor adjustments to Junior Leagues in 2004. By far, the biggest change was the removal of basketball relays. This allowed every player to participate in the actual game. Every camper got to play a variety of sports, which included softball, basketball, soccer, newcombe, and kickball.

There are many people I would like to thank. First, I would like to express gratitude to the first year CIT's for coaching the teams. Next, I would like to thank the staff for a terrific job reffing games. Finally, I want to thank the campers for their feedback, suggestions, and participation. Your comments were very helpful, and it truly made a difference.

One last thing: For those campers and staff who are unsure about coming back to camp - come back! You have to take advantage of camp's opportunities. They're too good to pass up, and they won't be there forever. I look forward to seeing you this upcoming summer.

Josh Swiecicki

ONE, TWO, THREE . . . HIKES!

This summer there were three major hiking expeditions to the White Mountains in New Hampshire. The first group was Cabin 4A, which wisely used their one hundred points from the Auction to win a day of hiking, swimming, and "KHOP." Matthew Corey, Thomas Ryabin, Jacob Klapman, Dakota Polito, CJ Bird, and David Oliveira, led by Dan Liebman, André Fredette, and Steve Lepler, climbed the challenging South Moat Mountain. This five mile hike produced beautiful sights on the way up and down, and from the summit there was a panoramic view in all directions.

The second group of trekkers set out to conquer Mount Chocurua via the breathtaking Brook and Liberty Trails, a nine mile loop. I am pleased to report that all the hikers did very well and met the challenge. This all-star group consisted of Ross Friedman, Lucas Vered, Maxx Kim, Luke Goroshko, Nick Gaudette, Alex Giordano, Thomas Ryabin, Zach Goroshko, Adam Berman, Justin Fitzpatrick, Evan Hacker, Neal Zucker, and David Baker, and was led by Mike Stawowy and Steve Lepler.

The third group of hikers was an eager and energetic group of Juniors. Due to Color War, they had to wait an additional six days until their special hiking day arrived. This group did a great job climbing South Moat Mountain, a difficult task due to the wet rocks from the previous night's rain.

Congratulations to Ben Eggert, Jonah Rappaport, David Kalenjian, Josh Sutton, Matt Ryter, Troy Ouellette, Andrew Ferestien, Jake Ryter, Eric Lesser, Celio Araujo, Doug Spink, Cody Sutton, Sam McGann, Ben Liebman, and Chris Moriarty, capably led by Chris Johnson, Mike Stawowy, Joey Jacobs and Steve Lepler.

In addition to the White Mountain trips, there were also two groups that did the Long Pond/Hatchet Harry hike. This is the trail that goes entirely around the perimeter of Long Pond and past the infamous Hatchet Harry Cabin – close to a three mile loop. The hikers were pleased to see the camp and the beautiful areas around the lake from many different angles and perspectives. The first group included Troy Ouellette, Jacob Shochat, Jeremy Zucker, Zach Leppo, Matt Jellison, Evan Hacker, Ben Liebman, Sam McGann, Celio Araujo, Jonah Rappaport, Cody Sutton, Andrew Ferestien, Caleb Johnson, Matt Ryter, Doug Spink, Marcus Tingling, Chris Moriarty, David Kalenjian, and Finn Sullivan, and were led by Sam Jekowsky, David Kaplan, and Steve Lepler. The second group included Ben Yudysky, Danny Bernard, Ross Friedman, Casey Morrocco, Ben Johnson, Justin Fitzpatrick, David Lach, Luke Goroshko, Zach Goroshko, Danny Williams, Alex Giordano, Chris Ruocchio, Colin HYTE, Matt Spector, Zach Siska, Justin Ryder, Thomas Ryabin, and Patrick McKenna, led by Jason Cohen, Josh Daigle, and Steve Lepler.

Next year we will try to get as many interested people as possible to meet the challenge and experience the beauty of the White Mountains and the area surrounding the West End House Camp. Let me know if you are interested in being one of the first ones on the list.

Remember, you can accomplish almost anything that you really work hard at!

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS!

Due to popular demand, the older boys once again had two socials with a local girl's camp. Camp Huckins in Ossipee, New Hampshire was the site for both.

The first was for twenty-five 14 and 15 year old campers. There was much dancing and mingling, despite the fact that most of the girls in attendance were 13.

The second social was a bigger success. All of our 13, 14, and 15 year old campers participated, and there were dozens of girls in attendance at the dance in these age categories. Our young lads had a great time!

Next year we hope to have even more socials, with more campers involved! Be there!

WIFFLE BALL WINNERS

Wiffle ball was one of the ways that campers chose to keep themselves active during free play or elective time. (Frisbee, baseball, miniature golf, tennis, chess, fishing, swimming, and extra sailing lessons were some of the other preferred choice activities.) In addition to wiffle ball pickup games, batting practice, and home run derby, there were three fun tournaments that got lots of people involved, both players and spectators.

The Senior World Series of Wiffle Ball consisted of 13 teams of 3 Seniors each. They played 5 inning games, most of which were close and exciting. In the finals, James Adams, Andrew Blute, and Joel Pelletier beat Jordan Shapiro, Andrew DeMarco, and Chrystyan Oliveira.

In the Junior World Series of Wiffle Ball, there were ten 3-person teams that signed up. Many of these younger kids sure could hit! In a very thrilling finals, Jon Lipshutz, Mike Kirsten, and Barrett Wilson defeated Ian Solomon, Finn Sullivan, and Damian Dobson.

New this year, the Camper-Counselor Wiffle Ball Tournament attracted the interest of 88 participants. Each of the 22 teams had one counselor, two Seniors, and one Junior. There were many memorable games. In the semi-finals, Spencer Jacobson, Evan White, Joey Klapman, and Jared Klapman edged Steve Lepler, Ryan Leppo, Mark Augenstern, and Zach Leppo. In the other semi-final match-up, "Team Sharon" (comprised of Evan Lepler, Danny Bernard, Ben Yudysky, and Eric Lesser) came back from an eleven run deficit to outscore the powerful team of Artie Jones, Jordan Shapiro, Chrystyan Oliveira, and Chris Moriarty. The championship game was very close, with Spencer Jacobson's team holding on a for a two run victory over Evan Lepler's team.

Congratulations to all the winners and to all the participants who had lots of fun in the Council Ring!

Color War 2004

Color War this year began on Tuesday, August 10th during the night activity of 1A/Staff Jai-Alai. As the activity began, the anxiety of when Color War was going to start was running high throughout all of camp. After one round of jai-alai was completed, the kids began to believe that their hopes of the war starting would have to wait another day. As the 1A players (the oldest campers) and staff players came into the rec hall to start round two, they began the same way they always did. The 8 participants yelled out, " West End House Camp Jai-Alai, We Salute..." and before they could finish, the referee blew his whistle loudly two times, threw confetti into the air, and the staff players screamed "Color War is now!"

The surprise start was a great beginning to one of the best Color Wars of all time. Although the weather didn't fully cooperate, every activity was played over the five day War. From the most spectacular and best overcoming of a deficit ever in Color War history (119 points), to one of the biggest Song Night victories ever (28 points), to three divisions going 3-3 in games; this Color War goes down as one of the best ever.

Special thanks go out to John Moriarty and Spencer Jacobson who helped make the Color War what it was. They worked very hard over the course of a several and were involved in many long days and nights with scouting and planning.

Congratulations go out to both teams, coaches, and all officials for a job well done.

WHITE FRATERNITY

Cheer - Medley

We won, won, won the War
(I say) we grabbed our girls & moved along

This is how we do it where we're from
Rockin' in the club until we see the sun.
FRA-AT
Walking to our Escalade
Tell the Blue we're not afraid
To beat the Wild.

Me and my teammates
Top of the plaque
Rollin' on Blue Team
Wild can't stop that
So much winning
Blue can't beat that.

Why is Blue trying to win
When they're playing to lose?

Clocks - Cold Play

Blue Wild came out to play
They tried and they tried to beat the White
Frat brings Blue to their knees
Oh they beg, they beg mercy
Come on out and play our team
Beat the Wild until they scream
Blue can't beat Fraternity
We'll beat Blue until eternity.

And we beat the Blue.

The White Frat never stops
Winning games and getting points
Come back to the house
We'll show Wild who is boss
Come out and play the White
Frat beats Blue in the fight
Apart from the Blue
White will win Color War.

Chorus X3

Nothing else compares
And nothing else compares
To White

Chorus 3X

Come Together - Beatles

Here comes the Blue Team
They're just going down quickly
Blue is a big loser
They've got nothing going
They are losing in all the sports
White will be the winners
Cuz we know how to play.

Come together, right now
In the Frat!

Wild can't get wins
Frat is just too strong for them
We are the best ever
White cannot be beaten
We say "Try to play us"
And they run away
One thing Blue can tell you
Is that White should be feared.

Chorus X3

The White Team is rolling
Blue is running away slowly
Frat will party through them
Blue will cry at home
For days to come
On top of the plaque
That is where White will be

Chorus X3

We'll Bring you Down

We've got Blue running out of their mind
The Frat is coming, Blue is wasting their time.

We'll bring Blue down, we'll bring Blue down
We'll tell you once more
Before the end of this War
We'll bring Blue down.

Chorus

We'll bring you down, Blue.

Chorus X3

What happened to the team Frat used to play?
They lost their heart a long time ago.

Chorus

Blue always talks about their wild days
But they never learned any winning ways

Chorus X3

Strawberry Fields Forever - Beatles

Let me take you down
Cuz we're going to
West End House Camp
Nothing is real
And nothing to complain about
West End House Camp, forever.

Living is easy in the summertime
When you're loving all you see
It's always hard to leave West End
But it all works out
It really matters much to me.

Chorus

Always know sometimes it is rough
But you know you're not alone
I think I know that it will all turn out all right
At least I know I will have fun.

99 Problems - Lay Z

We got White control of this Color War
Making sure Blue cannot touch our goal
The White Frat has money, girls, fun
We're from the party zone
Hell, we're gonna win this one.

If Blue got winning problems
We feel bad for them, son
We got no problems
And the Blue got one.

Destroying Blue up and down the field
Beating Wild until they yield
We're the best the House has to give
Winning all day and winning all night
Just to show Blue who is right.

Chorus

You'll find Fraternity on the top of the plaque
We'll be running away with the War
While dancing and chilling with the girls

White's beating Blue down
And they can't fight back
We got no problems
And the Blue's got one.

Chorus X 2

BLUE WILD

Cheer Medley

x3 To the window, to the wall
Til the sweat drips down our brows,
All you Frat boys bow

x2 These chicks don't even know the name of our team
But they're all on us cuz we're livin the dream
So now you Frat boys just go cry to your moms
This war is over now cuz blue is the bomb

x2 If you seniors gonna win now
Go brush your shoulders off
Juniors will win too
Go brush your shoulders off
The Wild's crazy baby don't forget that blue told you
Get that dirt off your shoulder (repeat)

x4 We on fire
Up in here
Burnin hot
We on fire

I could not ask for more- Edwin McCain
Being here with you, listening to the rain
Smiling just to see, the sunset on the lake
And these are the moments, I thank god that I'm alive
And these are the moments, I remember all my life
Camp is all I'm waiting for, and I could not ask for more.

Looking at West End, seeing all I need
Everything you are, is everything to me
And these are the moments, I know heaven must exist
And these are the moments, I know all I need is this
Camp is all I'm waiting for, and I could not ask for more.

I could not ask for more than this time together,
I could not ask for more than White and Blue
And every prayer has been answered
And our dreams have come true
And right here in this moment
At a place where we feel free
Friends always, we will be

And these are the moments, I thank god that I'm alive
And these are the moments, I remember all my life
Camp is all I'm waiting for, and I could not ask for more

This Love- Maroon 5

White sees our eyes, they do not recognize
The fire burning in our eyes,
Desire that controls our minds
We're in a fight
Beating White tonight
Plaque is colored blue again
We knew it from the start

CHORUS

This war has taken its toll on White,
Wild's arrived, and we'll be back for more
Frat is just fallin apart, judges, they have no choice
And we will say get out of this war

They tried their best to stay in the fight,
Kept on working every night
But they were never satisfied.
We played this game so we could prove our name
Knowing that we weren't the same
Frat's given up again we say

CHORUS

Blue is the greatest team, the best you'll ever see,
With Wild everything's alright.
This war is over now, but we will stick around
Party on with blue cause you know that's what you want to do

Summer Nights- Grease

Summer breaking, having a blast
Summer breaking, happened so fast
With the Wild, life is easy
Put up a blue plaque, big victory
Summer days, beating the white
Ooh ah, oh those summer nights

Oh well oh well oh well oh well,
Tell me more, tell me more, Did you give them a glance?
Tell me more, tell me more, Like did they stand a chance?

White retreated, they were afraid
Blue gone wild, parties all day
Blue is the life, a beautiful sound
Frat's a joke, their house is shut down
Summer sun, something's begun, ooh ah oh those summer nights

Oh well oh well oh well oh well,
Tell me more tell me more, Were the coaches unfair?
Tell me more tell me more, Did they run away scared?
Ow, dooby doo, dooby doo, dooby dooby dooby dow (repeat)

We kept playin, under the lights
Wild parties, these are the nights
The good times, we had on the docks
With all the girls, the white team was shocked
Summer break, chill by the lake, right oh those summer nights

Wo wo wo wo
Tell me more tell me more, Do they want this to end?
Tell me more tell me more, Blue gone Wild West End

Shoop bop bop, shoop bop bop (repeat)
Shoop bop bop, shoop bop bop (repeat)
Yeah!

War is over, we beat them on land,
Now we'll party, down in the sand
Feeling great, winning is sweet,
White was bad, you know what I mean
Summer heat, white sees defeat, right under those summer nights

Tell me more tell me more, Can we party tonight?
Yes we can yes we can, Cause we've won this big fight!

The Girl's Gone Wild- Travis Tritt

Mutt- Blink 182

We see our coaches and we tell ourselves this team is the bomb
We see the ladies in bikinis and the fun's just begun.
It's been told, Blue's a world, wild partying girls,
Go Wild every day, good times in every way oh yea.
White don't even care.

CHORUS
Blue is winning the war,
Trust us just look at the score,
Cuz Frat is way too cowardly
Bad undeniably they've see blue do this before.

Girls are amazing white team never even notices them
Wild's superior in every way our team is a gem.
Frat wants to go, this I know, they are ready to blow.
We have fun every night, Winning this easy fight oh yea.
White don't even care..

CHORUS X2

Partying at West End, summer break weekend, winning everywhere we go,
Coca Cola six-packs, chewing gum and Tic Tacs, fill it up and hit the road.
Beat White in the morning, beat 'em in the evening, make it to the beach by ten,
Everyone comes to watch another White team loss, baby let the games begin.

Blue gone wild, all the girls love our style,
beating White by miles, we're the Blue gone wild.
Breakin hearts, winning then the party starts, beating White by miles,
Don't you know the Blue's gone wild.

Our girls are smokin', the white team's chokin'
We're rippin them apart at the seams
Ballfields, Rec Hall, Fraternity is bound to fall
They wish they were on our team.
We will be famous, blue is outrageous
The war is ours, this we know
Cruisin in the party bus, all the ladies love us
Singin' out GO BLUE GO!

HOUSE SONG

The West End House song we sing today was composed by Al Sherman around 1946; it was first heard at a West End House Show & Dance at the Statler Ballroom in Boston.

Hundreds of hearts that beat as one
Grateful for all the House has done
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

When you're one of the boys
You're always one of the boys
And here's one thing you'll do –
You'll always go through
You'll always go through
You'll always go through

James J. Storrow will always live
Our support we will always give
As long as the sun is in the sky
The Spirit of the House will never die.

ORIGINAL HOUSE SONG

The words and music to the original West End House Song were written by John Channell and were first published in 1909.

Let me sing to you a song of a House not far away
Where we gather every evening and we laugh and sing and play
Many social clubs are gathered, points of interest for each one
And we'll be glad to welcome you to join us whene'er you come.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.

Many literary functions we attend, in due season socials, too
And our athletic teams are flourishing for to win their aim in view
And we camp out in the summer on the shore near woods and plain
But we are happy when we see the West End House again.

We are the boys of the West End, and there we'll join together
One thousand members there attend, the House we'll cherish ever
Our Benefactor in our hearts to cheer our best endeavors
Then West End House will seem to us like Home Sweet Home.
