

TALENT NIGHT
by
CONTESTANT NO. 4B

Talent night this year was a huge success. There was lots of talent, good and bad, with and without practice; but all in all it turned out very well. The contestants exhibited their talents as follows:

- 1) Joe Petruzzelli drums
- 2) Stuart Zane trumpet
- 3) Richard Katz vocal
- 4A) Michael Berman piano
- 4B) Donny Hurwitz vocal
- 5) Howard Gershman piano
- 6) Malcolm Alter piano

Joe Petruzzelli and Richard Katz tied for first, but everyone put up a good fight. After that there was a twisting contest and Teddy and Timmy Baker walked away with first prize. The gala evening ended with Eddy Shane's favorite ballads.

FOURTH OF JULY
STARTS OFF WITH A BANG!!
by
Donny Hurwitz

This year on the Fourth, we were lucky- we had good weather, even good enough to have our annual Fourth of July Apache Relay. The events, although kind of wierd, were followed through. The campers had to do such things as roll a potato with their nose, swim in their pajamas, and sink foul shots. At the end it was very close, but Sherm's team won. Later on in the afternoon we had a track meet in which all the boys participated in at least one event. The results of the track meet can be found on another page.

WEST END HOUSE CAMP 1962 SPORTS

by
Sports Editor, Mike Berman

SPORTS

BASKETBALL: This year basketball at West End House came off with a flying start, with Bob Gordon as coach for varsity and Sharky Garsys as coach for the J.V.'s. About thirty boys tried out for varsity and thirty for J.V. It looks as if we'll have a good season. Both coaches have an optimistic outlook for this season. The following will play in the game on Monday:

- Tony Alessi
- Peter Gordon
- Al Lewis
- Barry Nesson
- Stanley Porter
- Steve Rubin
- Lewis Spatz
- Jason Tobias
- Gaspar Tringale
- Tony Tringale
- Richard Wynn

BASEBALL: Baseball this year came off with a big start with Johnny O'Neil, better known as Buddy, coach for the varsity, and Paul Lipof for the junior varsity. Thirty-five boys tried out for each team, and the coaches had a hard time selecting those with the most ability. From my point of view it looks like it's going to be a good season for both teams. GOOD LUCK!!

BOXING: POW!! Another boxer bites the dust, as West End House Camp begins another BIG year. Here is the list of all the sluggers:

FIRST BOUTS

- Ed Swartz* vs. Peter Leppo
- Joel Lipof* vs. Joel Goober
- Henry Leeper* vs. Stanley Porter
- Skippy Stearns vs. Lee Phillips
- Howie Levine vs. Howie Tuch
- A. Tringale vs. Phil Bari

SECOND BOUTS

- Jeff Gordon* vs. Ricky Kramer
- Jason Tobias vs. Louis Newman
- Phil Bari* vs. Ed Swartz
- A. Tringale* vs. S. Bicchieri
- A. Passinisi vs. Barry Kessler
- Charles Wiseman* vs. M. Toronto
- J. Petruselli* vs. M. Gregory
- Baker vs. Baker
- L. LoGrippo vs. Sal Vinci*
- Jeff Thaw* vs. Jeff Modest
- Skippy Stearns* vs. Lee Phillips
- S. Porter* vs. S. Foster
- H. Gershman vs.
- Aldo John Henry Ghisalbert III

(ED. NOTE* asterisk (*) denotes the winner; otherwise the bout was a draw.)

"SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES"

by
Donny Hurwitz

The first movie this year to be shown at West End House Camp was entitled "The Babe Ruth Story." William Bendix, who formerly played the lead roll in "The Life Of Riley," portrayed Babe Ruth. The movie told all about the Babe's life and how he started out in his career. The movie was well enjoyed by both campers and counselors.

PLEASE BE QUIET!!
by Mike Rosenberg

Since Sunday night I've had an earache. The nurse, Miss Frazier, then took care of me. On Wednesday morning Allie Coles took me to Maine General Hospital in Portland. When I got to the hospital, I answered some questions. A doctor looked at my ear and decided to operate. After the operation I came back to camp.

GOING TO CAMP
by Lee Block

You get on a bus and you wave good-bye
Your mother waves back with a great big sigh
Your suitcase is packed all nice and neat
And your new sneakers are on your feet
Your driver tells you "You're almost there"
But you don't even care
And when you get there
You're homesick enough
And your mother writes pack
You forgot your ear muffs.

(ED. NOTE- This poem, written by Lee last year, appeared in a Boston newspaper.)

THE YELLOW DOT TRAIL
by Stanley Brown

On Sunday our cabin went on the yellow dot trail. It was very interesting. We saw many miniature water falls and streams. We also went over some tricky bridges. One of the boys lost his balance and fell in the water. The bridges are mainly logs and rocks. The trail circles around to the camp site.

UNDECIDED DECISION
by Lee Block

When I got on the bus I didn't know where to go. There was so much noise in the bus, that by the time it left I was reading comic books and I didn't even know we had left.

About an hour or two later I had fallen asleep. Suddenly we hit a bump, and I almost fell out of the seat. When we got to camp I decided it wasn't a bad ride after all.

FRIDAY NIGHT SERVICES

Friday night services begin tonight. We hope for a big turnout.

INSPECTION PRIZE

This year the inspection will again be based on one hundred points on such items as beds, closets, bathroom, floor, and lines. At the end of the week the bunk with the greatest number of points will win one of CHEF RALPH HALIBURTON'S extra special upside-down pineapple cakes. There will be a prize in each division.

!HELP WANTED!

The ECHO is your newspaper and it will only as good as you want to make it. Any boy who wishes to write or draw for the ECHO is welcome to. Boys from both divisions are urged to participate.

THE COVER

This is the first in our new series of covers for the ECHO, the West End House Camp newspaper. Each week the cover will picture a scene from camp. This week's cover, by Richard Cogliano, 1A, is of the Dr. David G. Klein Memorial.

CAMP NEWS

Richard Burton lost a tooth and the good fairy left him a dime.

Donny Hurwitz has been hired as editor of the NEW YORK TIMES. (Just remember, Donny, you got your first start with the ECHO.

NEWS FLASH: Andy Alessi's advanced English Class will not meet tomorrow as scheduled.

THANKS DUE

Thanks are due to Larry Leeder, Mal alter, Bennett Davies, and Tony Alessi for their invaluable assistance.

Lou Fuccillo: " Get the job done."

QUIZ

How many five-letter can you think up which, when spelled backwards, will spell the same word? Example: madam
A prize will be awarded to the winner and he will be announced in the next edition of the ECHO.

Without taking your pencil off the paper can you connect all the lines by four straight lines?
